He spent some time with a sister in Chicago and plans a trip to the west coast soon to visit with a brother in California. Enroute to the east coast he plans another stopover with the Eriksons. His last visit to the United States was twenty-two years ago.

PONSI-ZIMMER WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Clara Frances Ponsi, daughter of Mrs. Germano Ponsi of 1301 Pleasant avenue, and Herbert R. Zimmer, son of F. J. Zimmers of 782 North End Court, took place on Saturday, November 6, at 6 p.m. at the Immaculate Conception church, the Rev. O'Connell reading the service.

The bride wore an aqua colored moire dress complemented by matching veiled headdress trimmed with seed pearls. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white carnations. Her sister, Mrs. Florio Orsi, attended as matron of honor. Her brown moire dress was made like that of the bride's. Her beaded headband was pink and the carnations in the old fashioned bouquet she carried were also pink.

Florio Orsi served the bridegroom as best man.

Only the immediate families and close friends attended the ceremony and reception at the home of the bride's mother which followed. About sixty were present.

After a week's Wisconsin honeymoon, Mr. Zimmer and his bride will reside on North End court.

VISIT IN VIRGINIA

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nellis of 116 No. Linden Avenue, were in Williamsburg, Virginia this week visiting the historic city that has been restored to its 18th century appearance by John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

While in the city they were guests at the Williamsburg Lodge and viewed several of the buildings that have been restored or reconstructed as they were two centuries ago when this city was capital of England's largest and wealthiest American province, the Virginia Colony.

ELECTED CO-EDITOR OF COLLEGE YEAR BOOK

Word comes from House in the Pines Junior College, Norton, Mass., that Miss Natalie Schram and Miss Nancy Colcord have been elected co-editors of the college year book. Miss Schram is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Schram, Jr. of 603 Woodpath.

MARRIED THIS FALL

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry D. Nickels, Jr. are students this year at the Arizona State college in Tempe. Their wedding was an event of August 19. Mr. Nickels, who formerly attended the Northern Illinois State Teachers' college in De Kalb for two years is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nickels of Pleasant avenue.

Their wedding, which is of interest to many Highland Parkers, took place in Danforth chapel of the college in Tempe. Elder Paul L. Crandall of the Latter-day Saints Church heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride, the former Kathleen (Kay) Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hughes of Phoenix, wore a gown of white satin, made with a fitted bodice, and full skirt with tulle back ruffles ending in a train. Her fingertip veil fell from a halo of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of gardenias and orange blossoms. Her father gave her in marriage.

Miss Barbara Crandall, maid of honor, wore a light pink taffeta gown with back fullness. Her matching gloves and hat were net. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Miss Betty Park, bridesmaid, was similarly gowned and her bouquet, too, was like that of the maid of honor.

Charles E. Gale of Cleveland, Ohio, served Mr. Nickels as best man and Morrie Schwartz of Chicago, and Emory Dowell of Missouri, ushered.

The bride is a member of Philomathian sorority and the bridegroom is a member of Delta Sigma Chi fraternity.

A reception followed the ceremony in Lyceum Lounge at Tempe.

Mr. Nickels and his bride spent their honeymoon in northern Arizona and San Diego, California. They are now residing in Curry Apartments, Tempe.

The bridegroom's parents attended the wedding.

Parade

- If a parade
- Made up only of
- Illinois Bell telephone employees
- And their families
- And their friends
- And former telephone employees
- And their families
- And their friends
- And of the Illinois people
- In every walk of life
- Who have money invested
- In the telephone business
- And of all the people in this state
- Who rely on good telephone service
- For business
- For convenience
- For pleasure
- And for emergencies...
- If, we say, a parade
- Made up only of
- These people
- Were to be formed
- There would be scarcely a person
- In the state
- To watch the parade
- Pass by!
