

THIS WEEK ... IN HIGHLAND PARK

BY ALICE ZABEL

Telephone Highland Park 2944

EXHIBIT OF RICHARD FLORSHEIM'S ART

Richard Florsheim, of 138 Elmwood Drive, is honored with representation in the national collection of etchings, lithographs and woodcuts, now on view in Mandel Brothers Galleries. Thirty five of America's top ranking graphic artists have work on view. Mr. Florsheim has hung two large etchings, powerful portrayals of men in marching or in "ceremonial" motion.

The exhibition will be on view through November 27, in Mandel Brothers Galleries. Both miniature and regular prints, numbering over 150, are in the collection.

DON SHANAFELT TAKES A BRIDE TOMORROW

St. Paul's Lutheran church, Evanston, will be the scene of the wedding of Miss Faye Sandra Windeborn, daughter of the Arthur L. Windeborns of Evanston, and Donald K. Shanafelt, son of the S. D. Shanafelts of 1410 Pleasant avenue, tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. The Rev. Aigner will hear the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride will wear an ankle length white brocaded satin gown. For the something "borrowed" she will wear the fingertip veil belonging to the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Alex Seidl (Betty Shanafelt). She will carry a colonial bouquet of tiny white rosebuds. Miss Avis Reinhold will attend as maid of honor. Her velveteen gown will be brown. Her bouquet will be of flowers in the autumnal shades.

Charles Shanafelt will serve his brother as best man.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents at 1422 Florence avenue, Evanston, will follow the ceremony.

After a few days' honeymoon, Mr. Shanafelt and his bride will reside in Highland Park at his parents' home until the apartment they have rented in Chicago is ready for them. The bridegroom is a freshman in the University of Ill. Medical school, Chicago. He spent three years at the University of Illinois at Champaign. He is pledged to Alpha Kappa Kappa fraternity.

VISITING HERE

Mrs. Dudley J. Clapp, Jr. (Audrey Prindle) of 645 Riverside drive, New York City, arrived on Saturday for a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Prindle of 374 Oak land drive.

STATIONED IN KENTUCKY

Stephen Whitney, son of the Arthur C. Whitneys of 111 Dale avenue, is stationed at Camp Breckenridge, Kentucky. Steve is with the Air Borne Field Artillery Battalion of the 101st Air Borne Division. Steve enlisted in the army the day following his eighteenth birthday. He plans to serve a year and then enter college. He graduated in June from the Highland Park high school.

WEDDING DATE CHOSEN

November 27 has been chosen as the date of the marriage of Miss Zoe Maurine, daughter of the Michael G. Maurines of McGovern street, and Loren W. Smith, son of the Lester W. Smiths of S. Central avenue, Highwood. The wedding will be solemnized in the afternoon at the Immaculate Conception church.

HOME FROM EUROPE

Joseph Cabonargi and daughters, Juul and Diana, of 369 Cedar street recently returned from a three months' visit in Italy. They spent eleven weeks in Italy visiting with relatives, and one week in Switzerland. Both trips were made by plane.

TO WED SATURDAY

On Saturday, November 20, the wedding of Miss Lucille Cannerini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Pignatari, of 130 Prairie avenue and Julio Campagni, son of the Everisto Campagnis of 312 Highwood avenue, Highwood, will take place in St. James church, at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. The Rev. Arthur Douaire reading the service.

Mrs. Leo Ori, sister of the bride-to-be, will attend as matron of honor, and Mrs. Arthur Cervetti will be the bridesmaid. Nello Campagni will serve his brother as best man and Victor Pignatari, brother of the bride, will usher.

Mr. and Mrs. Nello Campagni will be hosts to the bridal party and immediate families at breakfast following the ceremony. Mr. Campagni, best man, is a brother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Campagni is a sister of the bride.

Dinner for one hundred and twenty guests will be held at St. James Hall. A reception for six hundred will be held at the Labor Temple at 8 o'clock.

Following a week's honeymoon in New York, Mr. Campagni and his bride will reside in North Chicago.
