Notes At Random . . .

Thanksgiving!
It's a wonderful day.
Why not try each day to give thanks—to members of your family, to your fellow workers, to your teachers, to your minister, to your God?
You'll be happier if you'll show your gratitude daily!

FINE LAUNDRY . . .
Attempting to practice what's stated above, here's a thanks to the able folks around Reliable Laundry.

Over the years we've had hundreds and hundreds of shirts washed in scores of laundries.
But the laundry we've found best is Highland Park's Reliable.
Thanks, folks, for the fine job you do each week.

SUDDEN THOUGHT . . .
If all the money used to buy cannon shells shot off to salute Elizabeth's new prince had been spent for construction, more vets would have homes . . .

IMPROVING HIGHLAND PARK
Won't it be pleasant when certain Highland Park streets are put together again?
It's been right tricky weaving in and around inconvenient barricades recently.
But the necessary work is for improvement of our town . . . and that's what's important . . .

THINGS WE'D LIKE TO KNOW
Who determines how many vacations President Truman is to have each year . . . and how long each should be?

What Gov. Dewey was saying in his New York hotel suite as election returns come in?

If the people in other nations around us are puzzled by our frequent changings of State Secretaries?

Yes, and we'd like to know who makes up Army language—like "Operation Jump", "Operation Crossroads", "G.I." (and what exactly does that mean, by the way?) S.O.P. and others?

EXCELLENT FOOD . . .

The bride was too weary to cook the other evening after a busy day of sewing and cleaning, so we dined at Phil Johnson's.

Without doubt it was the finest steak dinner we've ever eaten—quickly and courteously served in a homey atmosphere.

We surely recommend Phil Johnson's . . . and from now on we're going to be regular customers . . .

REMEMBER . . .
You'll be happier if you remember to be thankful each day . . .
