HOLIDAY VISIT

Visiting with her parents, the Harold C. Millers, owners of the Correspondence Nook, is Miss Marjorie Miller. Miss Miller, a professional actress, resides in New York. She is a graduate of the American Academy in New York City. She appeared with John Carradine in "My Dear Children" and in several stock shows. Right after the war she toured the south Pacific with a U.S.O. unit in "Petticoat Fever". Her latest appearance has been on the Ford Television Hour.

She will visit with her parents until after the holidays.

APPROACHING WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Jane Bennett, daughter of the Robert C. Bennetts of Lake Forest, formerly of Highland Park, and William Converse Staley, Jr., son of Mrs. Barnes Staley and Mr. Staley, both of Springfield, Illinois, will take place on Wednesday, December 29, at 8:30 o'clock in the evening. The ceremony will be read by the Rev. Dr. Samuel Harkness in the chapel of the Winnetka Congregational church.

Mrs. R. C. Bennett, Jr. of 14 Brittany road will be her sister-in-law's matron of honor. The other attendant will be the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Robert O'Keefe of Springfield.

Paul Schanbacher of Springfield will serve the bridegroom as best man, and the ushers will be R. C. Bennett, Jr., Robert O'Keefe, Louis Farrar of Winnetka, and James Torian of Chicago.

A reception at the Exmoor Country club will follow the ceremony.

The bride-to-be attended Ogontz school in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and the Garland school in Boston, Massachusetts. Mr. Staley attended Taft school in Waterbury, Connecticut and is a graduate of Dartmouth.

The young couple will reside in Springfield.

WEEK-END VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Herman of Crawfordsville, Indiana, spent the week-end in Highland Park with their parents, the Howells W. Murrays of 31 N. Linden avenue, and the Raymond E. Hermans of 328 N. Linden avenue.

They will again return for a few days at Christmas. They and the Murrays will have Christmas dinner with the Murrays' other son-in-law and daughter, the Heath Wakelees in Glen Ellyn.
