Wesley M. E. Church
The Christmas season for Wesley Methodist church is drawing to a close with three more events to be held.

The Annual Sunday School Christmas program is tonight (Thurs.) at 7:30 p.m. There will be white gift offering for Lake Bluff Orphanage and a special offering, part of which will also be sent to the Orphanage.

Friday, December 24th there will be the traditional Christmas eve service beginning at 11:00 p.m. to midnight. Mrs. Larry Stockton will be the pianist and will also play a special musical number entitled "Angel's Serenade".

Sunday morning, December 26 the sermon topic will be "1948 In Review". The young people of the church who are attending college will take part in the service, since this Sunday is "Student Recognition Day".

The final program will be Sunday evening at 7:00 p.m. when the Methodist Youth Fellowship will present a one act play entitled, "Uncle Jimmy Versus Christmas". The cast of characters are: The Supervisor, Cynthia Baruffi; Uncle Jimmy, Jim Bench; Eddie, Art Fuller; and Beekie, Joan Moore. The Junior choir under the direction of Mrs. L. D. Fuller will sing "Infant Holy, Infant Lowly" and "Joy to the World."

Members and friends are cordially invited to attend all or any of these services.

Youth To Be Heard At N. S. Congregation Israel Friday Night, Dec. 24

Youth will be heard from the pulpit of the North Shore Congregation Israel on Friday night, December 24, when Rabbi Edgar E. Siskin dedicates the Service as a "homecoming" for the alumni of the Temple and introduces to the congregation three post confirmants who will present "Fresh Perspectives" on current issues.

The speakers will be: Thomas B. Roos, of Glencoe, a member of the confirmation class of 1944 and now a pre-med student at Harvard; Joasne Hammerman of Glencoe, now a senior at Mount Holyoke College; and Gustav B. Spéro, also of Glencoe, who is a third year student at Northwestern University. Miss Hammerman was selected last summer by the World Student Service Fund to make a special tour of student conditions in several European countries.

The service will be read by Alice Altheimer, Richard Fagen, William Kaufman, Thomas Landauer and Fay Sigel. The Religious School choir of some seventy-five voices will also participate in the service.

North Shore Congregation Israel is located at the corner of Lincoln and Vernon Avenues in Glencoe. Services are held every Friday night at 8:15 o'clock and visitors are always cordially welcome.

The Sixth Annual Christmas Eve Carol and Candle Lighting Service will be held in the Sanctuary of the Bethany Evangelical United Brethren Church on Friday night, Dec. 24. This popular worship service will begin at 10:55 p.m. with the choirs singing and marching in the candle light procession. The theme of this musical service will be: "Jesus, the Light of the World" as the carols

The friendly scent of the cedars is typical of the Spirit of Christmas. It is in that spirit that we wish for you all the joys and blessings of this Yuletide season.
