of England, Russia, Greece, Germany, Norway, France, Sweden, the United States and other countries are interpreted by the choirs.

Interspersed between the carols, there will be appropriate Scripture to give the connected story of the birth of the Christchild. Mr. Elmer Schlung, Sr., will serve as interlocutor. Mildred R. Johnson will accompany the Youth Choir on the piano, and Esther H. Laubenstein as Director will be at the organ console. Rev. Lester H. Laubenstein, Minister, will bring a brief meditation.

At the conclusion of the service, departing worshippers will be given a lighted candle which they are asked to take to their homes as symbolic of radiating the Christ spirit. Special music from the church tower will usher in the Christmas morn as the people travel homeward.
