What's Ahead? And Paragraphing . . .

A Chicago newsman cornered me at a party recently and asked what I thought was ahead for us, business-wise, during challenging 1949.

He explained his assignment was to write a round-up story of opinion by operators of modest-sized businesses in the midwest.

His question came as a surprise. "The future is bright—if we want it to be!", I told him.

It's up to us. As "Boss" Kettering told me once when I interviewed him, "if we think a good future, plan for it, and work for it, it'll be ours."

HOW'S YOUR THINKING? POSITIVE? . . .

Kettering, as you probably know, is the great inventor and the man responsible for many developments in the field of automotive engineering.

His statement is just as accurate today as it was when he made it during dedication ceremonies at Northwestern Tech back in the early 40's.

It's really all up to us, this future some of us seem to fear. If we want peace, we'll have it.

If we want prosperity, it'll be ours.

If we want progress, it's up to us.

It's a matter of thinking. Of thinking positively.

Of wanting—and working for—a bright and prosperous future.

FEAR . . .

The negativists let fear get a strangle hold on them.

Instead of digging holes, they could do some planting.

Instead of tearing down, they should build.

America is equipped with the brains, the manpower, the raw materials and the faith to build a better nation.

Fear, loss of confidence, discouragement—these are the things that'll mar our future.

Toss them aside. Work hard. Set high goals. Believe. Have faith. Think affirmatively. And the future will be bright!

Special Courses At "Y"

After holiday festivities what could be more beneficial than a course in modern dancing under Miss Madge Friedman at the YWCA? This modern dancing is actually a course of bending and stretching exercise performed to music. The course is reported to be a great success, improving postures and waist lines. Costume—T shirts and shorts. No shoes. Painted toenails are optional.

The new course starts Tuesday morning, at 9:00. Registrations should be made at once, as numbers in class are limited. For particulars call the "Y", H.P. 675.

The new course in dressmaking starts in January. Mrs. Grayce Dayton in charge. Registrations should be made well in advance.
