NEWLYWEDS MAKE BRIEF VISIT TO HIGHLAND PARK

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Grant McPherson visited their Aunt and Uncle, the W. Raymond Grants of Forest avenue, during the holidays. The former Winifred Caroline Langston of Springfield, Missouri, and Mr. McPherson were married in October in Lincoln, Nebraska, where they are attending the University of Nebraska. Mr. McPherson will receive his degree in Journalism next February.

LEW SARETT'S ATTEND ROSE BOWL GAME

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Sarett of 1732 S. Green Bay have returned from two weeks spent in California. They were in Pasadena on January 1 for the Rose Bowl game. Mr. Sarett, a faculty member at Northwestern University, is a member of Northwestern's Board of Athletics.

CHRISTMAS IN FLORIDA

In Florida for a two weeks' holiday were the E. P. Engelbrechts and daughter, Jeanne, of 2221 Lakeside place. They returned home on Sunday.

CAMPBELL MILLS TAKES A BRIDE

The marriage of Miss Paula Johnson, daughter of the Courtney Johnsons of South Bend, Indiana, and Campbell Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lawrence Mills of Barrington, formerly of Highland Park, took place on December 29. The 4 o'clock ceremony was performed at the St. James Episcopal church. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride is a graduate of Kemper Hall and Northwestern University. Mr. Mills is a graduate of Deerfield academy and Amherst. During the war he served for three years in the navy.

Mr. Mills and his bride will reside in Yakima, Washington, where Mr. Mills is in the lumber business.

BACK HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Langill of Lincoln avenue returned home a few days before Christmas from a week's vacation at Biloxi, Mississippi.

CHRISTMAS IN MINNESOTA

Mrs. P. Schreiber and her daughter, Mrs. R. Cobb, of 520 Glencoe avenue, spent Christmas in Minneapolis, Minnesota, with Mrs. Schreiber's son and his family, the Theodore Schreibers.

VISITS HERE

Enroute to Dartmouth, where he is a student, Norman Clark of London, England, spent Friday visiting with Ted Zabel. Norman had been in Omaha, Nebraska, with relatives for the holidays.

HOLIDAY GUESTS

Holiday guests of the Bradford Larsons of Boston, Massachusetts, were Mrs. Larson's parents, the George Heaths of Omaha, Nebraska, and her grandmother, Mrs. Nellie Heath of Kansas City, Missouri. The Larsons are former Highland Parkers. Mr. Larson is the son of the Albert Larsons of S. Green Bay road.

HOLIDAY TEA

Miss Rebecca Anthony of the Y.W.C.A. was hostess last Wednesday at a holiday tea. Receiving with her were the four YWCA board members, Mrs. Edmund Froehlich, president, Mrs. Lester Laubenstein, Mrs. William McCaully and Mrs. David Suttle.

DINNER PARTY

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Vail of 190 Lakewood avenue were hosts at a small dinner party at their home.

APPROACHING WEDDING

January 15 has been chosen as the date of the wedding of Miss Norma Claire Lenzini, daughter of the Virgil Lenzinis of 313 Oak Terrace avenue, Highland Park, and Sinesio A. Zaganoli, son of the Valerio Zaganolis of 226 Highland avenue. The ceremony, which will be performed by the Rev. Arthur Douaire, will take place at 10 o'clock in the morning at St. James church, Highland Park.

Miss Virginia Morelli will attend the bride as maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be the Misses Rose Ann Bitetti, Vera Capitani, and Rosa Lorusso. Little Barbara Bernardi will be flower girl for her cousin.

Best man will be Rolland Zaganoli, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers will be Bernard Lenzini, brother of the bride-to-be, Alfio Zaganoli, cousin of the bridegroom, and Edward Piacentini.

A breakfast will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Cummings of 1331 Broadview avenue and a reception will be held at 7 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents.

Both Miss Lenzini and her fiancé are graduates of the Highland Park high school and he is a graduate of Purdue university.

To-night Miss Lenzini's attendants will be co-hostesses at a personal shower in her honor. The party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cummings in Ravinia.

VISITING HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Stever Aubrey of New York City arrived on Sunday to spend a week with Mr. Aubrey's parents, the James T. Aubreys of 181 Hazel avenue.

The Aubreys' youngest son, David, returned to his studies at Princeton on Monday after spending the holidays at home.

NEW YEAR BRIDE

Miss Audrey Stein, daughter of the Joseph Steins of Woodland road, and David Greenberg, son of the Morris Greenbergs of Pine Point drive, were united in marriage on Sunday, January 2. The 8 p.m. ceremony took place at the Ambassador East hotel, Chicago. Dr. Edgar E. Siskin, rabbi of North Shore Congregation Israel, performed the ceremony.

The bride was lovely in an ivory satin gown made with a long train. Her veil was full length. It fell from a cap shaped headdress trimmed with stephanotis. The bouquet she carried was of white sweetpeas and stephanotis formed around a white orchid.

Miss Joy Stein attended her sister as maid of honor. White roses were pinned on the front of her green gown. The bridesmaids, Miss Judy Greenberg, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Gail Cooper, Miss Barbara Gutmann and Miss Mary White were also in green. The nosegays they carried were of white roses.

John Heymann served the bridegroom as best man, and Donald Heymann, Peter Reinhart, Ruben Sivek, and Arthur Swanson ushered.

The bride's mother wore orchid lace and the bridegroom's mother was in blue lace. Each wore a corsage of orchids.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Highland Park high school. He served with the army for three years during the recent war, and attended Lake Forest college.

A reception followed the ceremony.

Mr. Greenberg and his bride are now honeymooning in Los Angeles, California. They will make their home in Highland Park.

WINTERING IN MISSISSIPPI

On Tuesday Mrs. Karl A. Meyer of 229 Prospect avenue left for the Meyers' winter home in Ocean Springs, Mississippi. She will be gone until June.

In February Mrs. Meyer's niece, Mrs. John Harmon, Jr. and her children, of Judson avenue, plan to visit there and sometime in March, Dr. and Mrs. August Daro, son-in-law and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Karl Meyer, will visit with their mother. Mrs. George B. Hart of Lincoln avenue also plans a visit there shortly.

Rose Rhapsody

Full-blown roses in the white cornucopia container, complemented by white tapers, white Spode china, and criss-crossed Irish linen scarfs, make an aristocratic table setting for a dessert buffet during National Flower Week. The cherries and grapes in the moulded dessert also carry out the color scheme.

MCCORMISH-PEDDLE NUPTIALS

Gowned in white transparent velvet made with long sleeves, shirred drop shoulders and yoke of illusion, Miss Cecelia Marie McCormish became the bride of Eugene Francis Peddle. The fingertip veil she wore hung from a white velvet bonnet style head-dress trimmed with orange blossoms. The white orchids she carried were backed with white satin and velvet. The bride is the daughter of the C. T. McCormishes of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, and Mr. Peddle is the son of Mrs. Joseph J. Peddle of 610 Homewood avenue, and the late Mr. Peddle.

The 10 a.m. ceremony was performed in a nuptial high mass in St. Joseph's church, Cuyahoga Falls, on Tuesday, December 28. The Rev. Thomas D. McIntyre heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

The matron of honor, Mrs. J. R. Longworth, cousin of the bride, wore a white spinner satin gown and matching bonnet type hat. She carried poinsettias tied with green ribbon. The bridesmaids, the Misses Nancy Lou McCormish, cousin of the bride, and Betty and Sally Waters, all of Cuyahoga Falls, were gowned like the matron of honor in similar gowns. Their headdresses were white satin haloes and their bouquets were also poinsettias.

Best man was William E. Johnson of Oxford, Ohio, and the ushers were the bridegroom's three brothers, Lawrence J. and Henry W. of Highland Park and Roger J. of Lake Forest.

The bride's mother chose a royal blue crepe gown and feathered crownless hat for the occasion, complemented by black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother was in purple. Her hat was winter white and her accessories, grey. She, too, wore gardenias.

"I'm Fresh as a Daisy..."

"I feel bright as a new penny every morning... after a good night's sleep under my electric blanket. The blanket's gentle warmth assures me of healthful rest all night—every night. No wonder my disposition is sunny."

The wide-awake control of your electric blanket, comforter or sheet will assure you of comfort while you sleep... it adjusts automatically to room temperature changes. Switch the control to "on" a few minutes before retiring and your bed will be cozy-warm from corner to corner. You'll find you really relax, too, because there's only one lightweight electric bedcovering over you instead of three or four heavy, old-fashioned blankets.

You'll sleep better—and feel better—when you have an electric bedcovering. You can't help being fresh as a daisy! For a wide assortment of electric bedcoverings, see your dealer or our nearest store.

...thanks to my Electric Blanket!"
