

seph Palma of Lake Forest, was in light blue. She carried pink roses. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Adolph Bertucci of Lake Forest, sister-in-law of the bride, and the Misses Lucy Cabri and Margaret Vorpahl. Mrs. Bertucci was gowned in orchid, Miss Cabri in yellow and Miss Vorpahl in pale green. They all carried yellow roses.

Marshall Meckley served the bridegroom as best man and the ushers were the bride's brother, Adolph Bertucci, Tom Calbri and Andrew McComb.

The bride's mother chose a green dress and winter white hat and accessories. Her corsage was of white and pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a grey suit with black hat and accessories. Her corsage was like that of the bride's mother.

A breakfast at the Deerpath Inn in Lake Forest followed the ceremony, and a reception was held in the evening at Witten's Hall.

Mr. La Belle and his bride are now spending a month in Florida. They will live in Highland Park on their return.

FAMILY REUNION

The entire family of Mrs. Florence Schmidt of 640 Homewood avenue took part in a family reunion shortly after the holidays.

Among those present were S/ Sgt. and Mrs. H. A. Parsons (Betty Schmidt), home from Germany, where he has been stationed for 2½ years. The sergeant is now at Rantoul awaiting reassignment.

Mrs. Parsons met her husband while on duty with the WAC in Germany, and they were married in Sonnenberg. She served in Germany since 1943, only one visit home during that time—a two months' furlough in 1945.

Also present were Mrs. Edgar Asbury (Mary Schmidt) and son, Tim, of Colorado Springs, and the Francis Schmidts of Akron, Ohio, with their two children. Mr. Schmidt is with the Goodyear Rubber Company.

Mrs. Schmidt's other son, John, of the U.S. Navy, stationed at Norfolk, Virginia, was also home on a week's leave. Stationed at Norfolk since August, he is in radar.

The Lincoln Seyls (Florence Schmidt) and four children reside with Mrs. Schmidt.

Midwest Bids For Top Place In Dog Shows

The Midwest's bid for supremacy in the dog world—Chicago's International Kennel Club Dog show—last year placed in size among the top shows of the country.

The past year's tally of the number of dogs shown at all accredited exhibitions throughout the country places the International show second in the United States.

The International is annually scheduled for the last weekend in March in the Amphitheatre of the Chicago Stock Yard. This year's dates are March 26 and 27, and officials are anticipating an even larger show this year.

Richard Florsheim Works Exhibited In Chicago During January

During the month of January an exhibition of oils, gouaches and lithographs by Richard A. Florsheim, of Highland Park, will be presented at the Riccardo Restaurant and Gallery, Inc., 435 Rush street, Chicago.

Mr. Florsheim, of whom it has been said "his strongest canvases spring from an ability to personalize . . . and dramatize", and "his canvases . . . carry a message at times almost prophetic", has exhibited in many important galleries, including the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, San Francisco Museum of Fine Arts, Art Institute of Chicago, Toledo Museum of Art and many others.

"I'm Fresh as a Daisy..."

"I feel bright as a new penny every morning . . . after a good night's sleep under my electric blanket. The blanket's gentle warmth assures me of healthful rest all night—every night. No wonder my disposition is sunny."

The wide-awake control of your electric blanket, comforter or sheet will assure you of comfort while you sleep . . . it adjusts automatically to room temperature changes. Switch the control to "on" a few minutes before retiring and your bed will be cozy-warm from corner to corner. You'll find you really relax, too, because there's only one lightweight electric bedcovering over you instead of three or four heavy, old-fashioned blankets.

You'll sleep better—and feel better—when you have an electric bedcovering. You can't help being fresh as a daisy! For a wide assortment of electric bedcoverings, see your dealer or our nearest store.

...thanks to my Electric Blanket!"
