

THIS WEEK ... IN HIGHLAND PARK

BY ALICE ZABEL

Telephone Highland Park 2064

ELEANOR AUSTIN, WEDS

The marriage of Miss Eleanor M. Austin, daughter of Mrs. Austin of 1352 Broadview avenue and the late Frank Drake Austin, and Orval Frederick Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schmidt of Lone Wolf, Oklahoma, took place on Saturday, January 15. The 4 p.m. ceremony was solemnized at St. James Episcopal chapel, Chicago. The Rev. Dr. Duncan Browne heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, James C. Austin of Washington, D. C., was gowned in white satin, made with a train. The veil she wore was fingertip length. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Dorothy Matson of Lake Forest, maid of honor, was gowned in ice blue satin and her bouquet was of camellias. Little Joanne Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Austin, attended her aunt as flower girl. She wore a long pink satin dress with matching mitts and carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds.

Thomas Schimer of Chicago served the bridegroom as best man, and John D. and Robert E. Austin, brothers of the bride, ushered.

About fifty guests attended the reception at 60 E. Scott street, Chicago, following the ceremony. After a short wedding trip Mr. Schmidt and his bride will reside in Chicago.

ON WORLD CRUISE

Word has recently been received from Robert C. Cameron, Jr., U. S. Navy, that he is now in the Persian Ocean off Arabia. Bob, son of the R. C. Camerons of 424 N. Central avenue, Highwood, is on a world cruise aboard the U. S. S. Tarawa. Bob was president of his graduating class, Highland Park high school, class of '46.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Florent of Sunnyside avenue entertained in honor of the second birthday of their daughter, Sandra Lynn. Sandra was two years old on Tuesday, January 18.

NORMA LENZINI, A BRIDE

Gowned in traditional white satin and wearing a family heirloom veil of rosepoint lace, three quarter length, which fell from a crown headdress, and carrying a prayer book to which a single white rose was attached, Miss Norma Claire Lenzini became the bride of Sinisio A. Zaganoli. The rosary she carried was a gift from the bridegroom. The bride is the daughter of the Virgil Lenzinis of 313 Oak Terrace avenue and the bridegroom is the son of the Valerio Zaganolis of 226 Highwood avenue, Highwood. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Arthur Douaire in the St. James church, at 10 o'clock in the morning on Saturday, January 15.

The bride's attendants were all gowned alike in American Beauty velvet with matching bonnets. Red roses were attached to the ermine muffs which they carried. Instead of a muff, the little flower girl, Barbara Bernardi, cousin of the bride, a miniature of the other attendants, carried a basket of red rose petals. Maid of honor was Miss Virginia Morelli and the bridesmaids were the Misses Rose Ann Bitetti, Vera Capitani, and Rosa Lorusso.

Best man was Rolland Zaganoli, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were Bernard Lenzini, brother of the bride, Alfio Zaganoli, cousin of the bridegroom, and Edward Piacentini.

Miss Marion Clark sang. The bride's mother chose a royal blue lace gown complemented by a matching feathered hat and accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore grey with grey accessories. She, too, wore gardenias.

Following the ceremony, breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Cummings, 1331 Broadview avenue, uncle and aunt of the bride. A cake in the form of double rings formed the centerpiece for the reception held at the home of the bride's parents at 7 o'clock in the evening. Over four hundred attended. The bride and bridegroom are graduates of the Highland Park high school and he is a graduate of Purdue.

Following a northern honeymoon, Mr. Zaganoli and his bride will reside at 1331 Oak Terrace avenue.

WEEK-END GUEST

Miss Dale Goldberg of Chicago was the week-end guest of Miss Donna Reid of 1949 Northmoor road.

ENTERTAINS FOR SISTER

Mrs. Paul S. Miller of Oakwood avenue entertained at the spinster dinner in honor of her sister, Miss Ellen MacFarland, daughter of the Walter R. MacFarlands of Evanston, who became the bride of Dr. George Sutton, son of Dr. and Mrs. Don C. Sutton, also of Evanston, on Saturday, January 15.

The First Methodist church, Evanston, was the scene of the wedding. Following the reception, Dr. Sutton and his bride left for a year in Sweden, combining a wedding trip and graduate study in cardiology for the Doctor.

TALKS ON BIRD-BANDING

Paul Downing of Highland Park, president of the Inland Bird-Banding association, spoke at a public meeting sponsored by the Evanston Bird club on Tuesday evening in the Public library, Evanston.

Mr. Downing is an expert in the bird-banding field and during the last few years has banded many different species in this area. His talk dealt with "The How and Why of Bird-Banding."

CHAPMAN-LEVY BETHROTHAL

The betrothal of Miss Barbara Chapman to Frank Levy, son of Jules Levy of 318 Egandale avenue, has recently been announced by her father, Louis Chapman of Stratford place, Chicago.

Miss Chapman is a graduate of the University of Illinois and has recently taught school in Cicero. Her fiancé is a graduate of St. Johns Military academy and attended Williams college before entering the medical corps in the army, during the war. At the time of his release he was a sergeant.

No date has been set for the wedding.

ENTERTAINS AT TEA

Miss Ruth Reilly, daughter of the James M. Reillys of 108 Elm avenue was hostess to over fifty of her high school friends at tea on Saturday afternoon. Ruth is a junior at the Highland Park high school.

RETURNS HOME

James C. Austin of Washington, D. C., who was here for the wedding of his sister, Miss Eleanor Austin and Orval F. Schmidt on Saturday, returned by plane to his home on Monday. His mother is Mrs. F. D. Austin of Ravinia.

PATRICIA JEAN REDFEARN MARRIES

In the presence of only members of the family, Miss Patricia Jean Redfearn, daughter of the Harry H. Redfearns of 1439 S. Sheridan road, and Hilding Wallgren, son of the D. S. Wallgrens

BICYCLES

Schwinn built heavy duty Whizzer bicycle, special price $65. 26, 24 and 20 inch Schwinn bicycles priced at $39.95.

552 Waukegan Ave. Highwood, Ill.

Cervi Sales & Service

Tel. H. P. 1197

FOR Fuller Brush Service

south of Central Ave., call

PETER LEA

H. P. 2684 After 4 p.m.

McPherson's Bump Shop

ARNOLD E. ASPLUND, Proprietor

Certified Craftsman

formerly with Cadillac

Fender & Body Repairs — Automobile Repainting $65.00 and Up.

387 Park Avenue

Phone 415

Highland Park

LEON FLEISHER, 21 year-old pianist who will appear in Highland Park, at the High School Auditorium, January 25.

of Evanston, were united in marriage. Dr. William A. Young of the Presbyterian church read the service on Saturday, January 15, at 11 o'clock in the morning at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Shirley Jean Riley of Evanston attended the bride as maid of honor and Swenn Wallgren, also of Evanston, served his brother as best man.

Following the ceremony the young couple left immediately for Florida for a month's honeymoon. They will live in Evanston on their return.

The bride is a graduate of the Highland Park high school and she attended Ferry Hall and Frances Shimer school. The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Chicago.

ENTERTAINS

Miss Mabel Ann Ernst of 460 N. Ridge road was hostess on Friday evening to several friends.

IN FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Cortesi of Deerfield avenue, accompanied by Mike Miotti of Burton avenue, left on Sunday for a two weeks' stay in Coral Gables, Florida. When they arrived they joined the William Cortesi and John Lenzinis who had gone south the previous week.

STUDENT AT KALAMAZOO COLLEGE

Many Highland Parkers recognized Harley Monk, former Highland Park, now of Flint, Michigan, who was pictured in the Chicago Tribune's "Youth on the Campus" Sunday. Harley is a student at Kalamazoo college.

NEWCOMERS TO HIGHLAND PARK

Dr. and Mrs. Paul C. Irvine are the new owners of the home at 630 Cavell avenue, in which they are now residing. From Chicago, Dr. Irvine is a physician and surgeon in Chicago. The Irvines are parents of a daughter, Judy, 4, and a son, Jimmy, 3 months old.

Formerly of Glencoe and now residing at 308 Ravine drive, the home they recently purchased, are the Alfred W. Prekills and son, David, 18 months old. Mr. Prekill is an executive of the Allied Radio corporation, Chicago.

Newcomers to Highland Park are the Glenn N. Hunolts of 710 Central avenue. The Hunolts, parents of sons, Gregory, 6, and Philip, 2 months, are from Chicago. Mr. Hunolt is with the H. N. Harper company, Morton Grove. They bought their home here.

Now living at 1016 Roslyn Lane are the Harold Kopels and daughter, Ann, 3, and son, Jeff, 16 months. Mr. Kopel is connected with the Encyclopedia Britannica Films, Wilmette. The Kopels are from State college, Pennsylvania.

"A" AVERAGE

EASTERN WASHINGTON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, Cheney, Washington, announces that achieving a straight A grade average for the fall quarter at Eastern Washington College of Education was James Erickson, Highland Park, who rated at the top with nineteen other students. Registrar G. W. Wallace announced that 171 students in all had placed on the roll with grades of B plus or better.

HIGHLAND TEN PIN

139 N. Second St.
TEL. H. P. 319

OPEN BOWLING

Saturday, Sunday and

Week Days

Until 8:00 p.m.

Doors open at 2:00 p.m.

Under New Management

This Month in Your Service BULLETIN

COURTEOUS READER. Having dedicated my last Almanack to the unmarried Ladies, I am in all Justice bound to be serviceable to the Bachelor this year. So fall to, Gentlemen, and much good may my admonitions do thee.

THE EDITOR

As Entertaining As Your Favorite Magazine
THE Service BULLETIN

Choose a wife by the ear and not the eye.
FRANCIS HAWKINS

The good or ill hap of a good or ill life
Is the good or ill choice of a good or ill wife.
POOR RICHARD

Kissing don't last, Cookery do.
GEORGE MEREDITH

Wives must be had, be they good or bad.
THISLTON-DYER

You must judge a maiden at the kneading trough
And not at the dance.
THISLTON-DYER

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS