

LET'S TAKE A LOOK

Young Man About Town

It's always pleasant, I think, to write about folks who are helping to make Highland Park the excellent town it is . . . .

The men and women of The Fell Company are doing just that.

These likeable folks, now serving you in one of the handsomest stores hereabouts, are courteous, efficient, eager to please.

And what you buy from the Fell stores is the finest, backed by a guarantee and sold with the positive hope the article will please you, will make you more attractive, will help you prosper.

Top credit for establishing this successful business goes to Samuel Fell, beloved father of Abe, Fred, Jacob and Neuman ("Red"), the popular sons, each of whom contributes much toward the betterment of Highland Park and other North Shore towns.

TREAT YOU WELL . . .

The continuing success of the Fell Co. proves once again the Golden Rule works—in business, in your social life.

The Fell staff has had, as its No. 1 rule, the desire to treat you as they'd like to be treated.

The rule has paid off, not only financially, but spiritually, too.

You couldn't find better-liked folks than the Fells.

FUN TO PRAISE . . .

Critics of this corner now and then ask why sincere praise is the theme of most of the articles appearing here.

When an organization like the Fell Co. does so much to please Highland Parkers, and improve our town, praise is in order.

So, you Fell men and women, congratulations to each of you for the splendid work you're doing.

It's a pleasure indeed to shop at your friendly stores!

SURPRISED? . . .

Certain readers will be rather surprised at what follows . . . . The new Chevrolet is a lot of car for the money.

That new convertible, shown to hundreds of Highland Parkers for the first time last Saturday, is about the finest looking low-priced car on the market today.

Here's wishing William Ruehl and staff good luck in their attempts to sell the new Chevies!

WISH WE'D SAID IT . . .

"New automobile television sets will come equipped with harp and halo."

Credit scribe Savage of Tower Ticker with that satirical sentence.

KEEP IT UP . . .

We've heard some nice comments about the Alcyon theatre's policy of bringing back some of the best of the old movies.

We saw "San Francisco" the other evening and found it a moving revival.

That earthquake scene was real—take it from one who witnessed the Long Beach, California catastrophe of the thirties.

REMEMBER . . .

There's always good in everyone.

Pantry Shower

Girl Scouts Lack Leader

We are Girl Scouts without a leader. It would make us happy to have troop meetings again. Will some lady help us?

A Girl Scout from Oak Terrace School

This Girl Scout represents one of 132 girls in Highland Park and Highwood who are registered members of the inactive troops at Oak Terrace, Lincoln, Immaculate Conception, and Elm Place schools who are without leaders.

These girls are most eager to meet together with their troops and to enjoy all the indoor and out-of-door fun the other 400 Girl Scouts are having.

Girl Scout Leaders get satisfaction from a useful, interesting service in bringing happiness, and training for democratic citizenship to these wistful girls who wish to be active Girl Scouts.

The Girl Scout Council is now offering leadership training. Please call the Girl Scout office H. P. 754.
