BARBOUR-CLARK WEDDING

On Saturday, January 8, at 8 o'clock in the morning Miss Nina Blanche Barbour became the bride of John A. Clark, Jr. at St. Mary's church in Akron, Ohio. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Gorman Barbour of Akron and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark of 248 Bronson lane. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Glenn Barbour. The Rev. John Price heard the exchange of marriage vows.

The bride's gown was of traditional white satin made with a long train. Her veil was fingertip length. She carried a prayer book to which baby white chrysanthemums were attached.

Mrs. Mary Hopson was her sister's matron of honor. She was gowned in pale green and carried a colonial bouquet of tea roses. The junior bridesmaid, Linda Lesko, wore pale pink, and her bouquet was exactly like Mrs. Hopson's in miniature.

Philip Clark served his brother as best man and the ushers were another brother, Richard Clark of Winnetka and a cousin, Leo F. Clark of Cincinnati.

The bride's mother wore a brown suit complemented by a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother was in dark green and her corsage was of white carnations.

A breakfast was held at the Mayflower hotel in Akron, following the ceremony.

After a two weeks' honeymoon in New Orleans, Louisiana, Mr. Clark and his bride are now residing at 853 Lincoln avenue.

ATTEND OMAHA WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Werner Wieboldt and daughter, Miss Pearl Anne, of McDaniels avenue, were in Omaha, Nebraska, for the week-end. They attended the wedding of their nephew, James Calvin Wieboldt, son of the Raymond C. Wieboldts of Evanston and Miss Patricia Wallace Garrett, daughter of the Robert Harmon Garretts of Omaha.

Miss Pearl Anne Wieboldt attended the bride as one of the bridesmaids.

ENROLLED AT MISSOURI VALLEY

Nafey Bud Larson, Jr. (Butch) left on Friday for Missouri Valley college, where he recently was enrolled. Butch is the son of the Nafey Larsons of 624 Laurel avenue. His cousin, Larry, son of the Lloyd Larsons of Central avenue has just finished his first semester there this year.

LUNCHEON BOARD MEETING

The Board of Directors of the National Park Alumnae foundation of Chicago will meet on Wednesday, February 9, at the home of Mrs. Ralph J. Foley, 659 Lincoln Avenue, Winnetka. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Roger L. Kingsland of Evanston will act as assistant hostess.

Alumnae are urged to attend the meeting. Plans for the annual benefit for the support of the dental clinic of Children's Memorial Hospital will be discussed and formulated.

ATTEND SON'S WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Tenney of 785 Oak Grove avenue recently returned from the Rose Bowl game and San Francisco, where they attended the marriage January 4 of their son, William R. Tenney, Jr. to Miss June Humason of Sacramento, California. Mr. Tenney, Jr. and his bride will live in New York City.

WINTERING IN CALIFORNIA

Wintering in California are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Abrahams of 2301 S. Sheridan road. They have been in Los Angeles since November 1.

FIOCCHI-ENSTROM NUPTIALS

The marriage of Miss Elsa Louise Fiocchi and Harold A. Enstrom, Jr. took place on Saturday, January 22, at 10:30 o'clock in the morning at the St. James church, Highwood. The Rev. Gleeson heard the exchange of nuptial vows. The bride is the daughter of the Caesar Fiochis of 373 Bloom street and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Enstrom of 324 Ashland avenue, Highwood.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Charles, wore a long sleeved white moire taffeta gown. The short veil she wore hung from a Juliet cap of pearls. The bouquet she carried was of gardenias.

Miss Jean Fiocchi, maid of honor for her sister, wore pink taffeta. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Leo Mattei served the bridegroom as best man, and Lawrence Enstrom, brother of the bridegroom and Robert Fiocchi, brother of the bride, ushered.

Miss Jean Nichols sang the "Ave Maria," "Panus Angelicus," and "Oh This Day, O Beautiful Mother."

A breakfast at the Island, Waukegan, followed the ceremony. In the evening a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents.

Following a week's wedding trip in Saginaw, Michigan, Mr. Enstrom and his bride will reside at 1242 Jewell avenue.

DON MAECHTLE GRADUATES FROM U. OF ILLINOIS SUNDAY

Don Maechtle, son of Mrs. Hazel Maechtle of 381 Roger Williams avenue, will be among the graduates receiving degrees at the University of Illinois on Sunday, February 6. For the four years he has been a student at Illinois, Don has been a member of the football team, three years on the varsity team. His accurate kicking was a very important part of Illinois' football successes.

Don's studies were interrupted during the war for three years. He served in the field artillery of the army. Eighteen months were spent in overseas duty. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

Just before leaving for the Rose Bowl classic in 1946 Donald was married to Miss Molly Coe. They have been living in Illini village since that time. Don plans to continue on at the University taking a post graduate course.

Mrs. Maechtle plans to be in Champaign on Sunday for her son's graduation.

VISITING IN DETROIT

Little Sandra Lee Chapel, daughter of the Howard Chapels of Detroit, Michigan, spent the past month visiting with her grandparents, the W. J. Seguins of 52 North Second street. Her grandmother, who returned with her to Detroit last Saturday, will be home this week-end.

The Chapels became the parents of a second daughter, Mary Lynn, on December 9.

MID-SEMESTER VACATION

Bob Berg, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Berg of Sheldon lane and Jerry Peterson, son of the Lindell Petersons of S. Green Bay road, Juniors at Purdue university in Lafayette, Indiana, will be home this week-end for a "between semesters" vacation.

DINNER PARTY

Mrs. Harry Yeager of 1949 Northmoor road was hostess at dinner on Saturday night in honor of the birthday of the Yeagers' son, Teddy.

JOAN LEMPINEN. A BRIDE

The Immaculate Conception church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Joan Frances Lempinen and Louis Piacenza on Saturday, January 29, at 10 o'clock in the morning. The Rev. O'Connell performed the ceremony. The bride's parents are the Earl Lempinens of 1055 Deerfield place and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aldo Piacenza of 103 Highwood avenue, Highwood.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white satin, made with a square neckline and long train. The colonial bouquet she carried was made with a white orchid in the center surrounded by gardenias. The fingertip veil she wore fell from a halo of lace.

Miss Eileen Flagg of Libertyville attended as maid of honor. Her headband matched the shell pink faille gown which she wore. Her bouquet was made up of red roses and blue chrysanthemums. The flower girls, Judy Hubert and Barbara Scheribel of Waukegan, wore miniatures of the maid of honor.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Loretta Cole, Marilyn Free and Angelina Ugolini and Mrs. Virginia Ferrari were dressed like the maid of honor except that their gowns were turquoise blue. Their bouquets differed only slightly, also. They, too, carried red roses but instead of blue chrysanthemums theirs were pink. Their headbands matched their gowns.

Best man was Joseph Lolli and the ushers were Robert Lempinen, brother of the bride, E. Bertagni and Orrico Ugolini. Groomsmen were Eugene Bertachini, Bruno DeBartolo, Anthony Ferrari and Alex Greco.

Robert Baldwin of Lake Forest, uncle of the bride, sang the "Ave Maria" and "Panus Angelicus."

The bride's mother chose a navy blue dress complemented by a corsage of pink carnations and red roses, matching the roses on her navy straw hat. The bridegroom's mother was in grey and her corsage was like that of the bride's mother.
