

Deep and Shallows

But, Indubitably!

You're so right, Marmalade, when you hint that it's stupid To ransack your bean for words rhyming with Cupid. When romancing, why not choose words that you're able To match? For that matter, what's wrong about Gable?

Now there's able and babel And cable and fable And label and sable And stable and table And Mabel . . . 'n' Grable . . . 'N' Abe'll . . . 'n' Babe'll— (Why I even know of a gal who's named Zabel!)

To dally with subjects as dated as Cupid When one could sing of Gable is utterly stupid! —Highland Lassie

"Odious!"

Comparisons repel Except when we excel. —Loki

Conjugal Camouflage

An eminent scientist asserts that, of one hundred men who claim to be happily married, ninety-nine are liars. Well, they have nothing on us gals. We, too, are falsifiers. That smug expression on the dame who has hooked a man is meant to impress the female who hasn't proved that she can. A gal who has to be courted proves that her suitor isn't quite what she wants. But, in this world, it isn't what you want, it's what you can get. And the poor gink looked like a good bet.

DAR Chapter Selects Miss Holly Stair As Good Citizenship Pilgrim

Four very attractive young women and their mothers were guests of the North Shore Chapter DAR at the meeting held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Pagenkopf, 812 Waverly Place, Highland Park. These High School Seniors competing for the Good Citizenship Pilgrim of Illinois were Miss Velma Zellman of Hopkins Township High School, Grandville; Miss Barbara La Hue of Lake Forest High School and Miss Margery Demichelis and Miss Holly Stair who tied for first place at the Highland Park High School. Mrs. Harry W. Highriter, chapter chairman of Americanism gave a short history of the founding of the Good Citizenship Pilgrimage by Ruth Bryan Owen many years ago and of the activities up to this time. Each competing High School in Illinois is allowed to send in one name to the state conference which will be held in Chicago in March and from these names one is drawn. The girl chosen Good Citizenship Pilgrim of Illinois will receive a government bond of one hundred dollars maturity value. Mrs. Edwin L. Gilroy, member of the chapter committee on Americanism introduced the girls individually giving a short account of their achievements. With regret that a choice had to be made between the very fine Highland Park High School Seniors, a drawing was held, and Miss Holly Stair was the winner. The four girls were presented with dictionaries suitable for college use and Miss Zellman, Miss La Hue and Miss Stair received Good Citizenship Pilgrim pins.

FLOWERS FOR EVERY OCCASION

Thereafter, friend husband is treated like an awful bore until some other woman casts an eye on him—then does his value soar! But, once again under wifely supervision, He's a subject of derision. So, each plays a part and makes no bones of acting perfect harmony—in front of the Joneses. —Marmalade

Economic Advice

"Thou shalt not covet," is the Law, A rule of justice for man's deeds, Defy, and cause a world of hate—Obey, and know that Peace succeeds. —E.B.

We're Three, Today!

A baby in arms Has its multiple charms, And the mother will frankly maintain: "I quite dread the years That bring changes—and tears . . . He'll not be this precious again!"

But she'll say as the moppet Embarks—you can't stop it!— On a ruthless, part-toothless career: "I think that this age Is the most priceless stage— So naively and truly sincere!"

When the young adolescent With air effervescent Adopts what is known as a "line", The proud mother's look Is one for the book . . . Can this miracle really be mine?

Perhaps, now, I ought Not express such a thought, But if you leave the matter to me, I choose, for myself, That embraceable elf— The tot who has just turned three! —R.B.O.

Mrs. George C. Cusbart of Macomb, Illinois, State Chairman of Americanism gave an excellent talk urging us to be alert to subversive influences especially those creeping into our educational systems. Miss Edith Phillips read a very interesting excerpt from an article by E. L. Bullard entitled "Lincoln in the Minority". The meeting then adjourned to have tea with Mrs. Pagenkopf and her assisting hostesses Mrs. Sherman D. Clough, Mrs. Robert S. Prosser and Mrs. V. Edward Lawrence. Members of the chapter are urged to attend a meeting with the purpose of organizing a class to study national defense and Americanism to be held at the home of the regent, Mrs. William Einbecker, East 325 Park Avenue, Highland Park at ten o'clock Thursday morning February 24th.

Commons Association Plans Rummage Sale For Early April

The monthly meeting of the Ravinia Auxiliary to the Chicago Commons Association will be held on Friday, February 25th, at 1:30 P.M. at the home of Mrs. Edwin P. Hart, Vice-President, 1015 Lincoln Avenue. After the usual desert-lunch, there will be a short business meeting, followed by an hour of sewing and knitting garments for the Settlement in Chicago.

It was reported at the January meeting that the Commons' share of the October Tag Day receipts was $2600, while the Rummage Sale in Chicago netted it $2400. They will have a Bazaar on March 1st at the Settlement House, itself, to raise more money, as the amount of money received from the Community Chest in Chicago does not nearly meet the needs of this essential welfare organization.

A letter of deep appreciation from a Staff member was read, expressing the gratitude of the members of the Oldsters Group for the Christmas gifts and candy donated by the Ravinia Auxiliary.

Plans were made for the Rummage Sale in Highland Park in early April, for which Mrs. Guy Finlay is Chairman. In the absence of the President, Mrs. Armand McPhee, Mrs. Dudley Hall, former President, conducted the January meeting at the home of Mrs. William Poston, where bibs, aprons and caps were made for the children who frequent the Settlement.
