WEEK-END VISITORS

Week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howell W. Murray of 31 S. Linden avenue were their son-in-law and daughter, the Grant Hermans of Crawfordsville, Indiana. Mr. Herman is the son of the Raymond E. Hermans of 328 N. Linden avenue.

BACK-HOME

Recently home from Florida, are the E. H. Morrisseys of 903 S. Green Bay road. They had been in Miami Beach since November 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius C. Weed of 193 Hazel avenue are expected to return from Palm Beach this week. They have been in Florida for the past month.

VIRGINIA MOLLENHAUER WEDS

Miss Virginia Mollenhauer, daughter of the Henry Mollenhauers of Skokie, formerly of Vine avenue, Highland Park, was united in marriage with Harold Mahaffey, also of Skokie, on Saturday, February 26. The 7:30 p.m. ceremony took place in the North Shore hotel, Evanston.

The bride wore a soft grey crepe dress. Her matching halo hat was trimmed with a short face veil. The bouquet she carried was of white carnations and white orchids.

Mrs. Phillip Hoffmann of Glenview, niece of the bride, was her only attendant. Her cream colored brocaded dress was complemented by a matching halo hat. She carried pink carnations.

Robert Mollenhauer of Kenosha, Wisconsin, brother of the bride, served the bridegroom as best man.

The bride's mother chose a royal blue dress for the wedding. The bridegroom's mother was in navy blue. Their corsages were of orchids.

The bride has been employed at the Public Service company for nineteen years. Mr. Mahaffey is also employed there.

A reception followed at the hotel immediately after the ceremony. About one hundred guests attended.

After a week's honeymoon in Madison, Wisconsin, Mr. Mahaffey and his bride are now residing at 4911 Louise avenue, Skokie.

FRATERNITY INITIATE

Earl Sproul, II, (Bud) was initiated into Psi Upsilon fraternity at Trinity college on February 9. He is the son of the Earl E. Sprouls of Hawthorne lane.

His sister, Nancy, a sophomore at Smith college, recently performed in an exhibition swim at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Nancy, besides being a member of the Smith college Life Guards, is a member of her class swimming and crew team. She prepared for Smith at Roycemore.

MOVING TO EVANSTON

Having sold their home at 120 Prospect avenue, the Kenneth G. Andersons will be moving to Evanston on March 20. Their son, Kenneth, is a senior this year at the Lake Forest academy and their daughter, Claire, is a sophomore at Wellesley.

NEWS OF FORMER HIGHLAND PARKERS

The Maurice De Bonas, formerly of S. Green Bay road, who moved to the west coast last fall, have visited with many former Highland Parkers recently. Now of Santa Monica, California, the De Bonas have visited with Mrs. Fred Ruby and her family, formerly of Oakwood avenue; the Gus Stenmans, who at one time lived on Pleasant avenue; the Harry Kellys; Bob Anspach; and the Charlie Raffertys.

The De Bonas' son, Maurice, Jr. is a student at the University of Southern California.

WEDDING DATE SET

April 9 has been chosen as the date of the wedding of Miss Carolee Billington, daughter of the Thomas Billingtons of St. Paul, Minnesota, formerly of Highland Park, and Edward Therrien, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Therrien of 423 N. Green Bay road. The 8 p.m. ceremony will be performed in an Episcopal church in St. Paul.

MOVING TO CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. Otto F. Fisher of 228 Oak Terrace, Highwood, will be leaving soon to make their home in Westwood, California. Mr. Fisher, owner of the Ermine Cleaners in Highwood for 27 years, sold his business this fall. He was a boy scout and civic leader in Highwood for many years, and member of many organizations both in Highwood and Highland Park.

JOHNSTON-MANSUETTI NUPTIALS

The Immaculate Conception church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Alice Clara Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Johnston of Denver, Colorado, and Anthony R. Mansueti, son of Mrs. Dominica Mansueti of Sterling, Colorado, on Saturday, February 26. The Rev. O'Connell heard the exchange of nuptial vows at 9:30 o'clock in the morning.

The bride's dress of aqua crepe was trimmed in matching sequins. Her feathered half hat was the same color as her gown. She carried a prayer book.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mansueti of 708 Deerfield avenue, cousins of the bridegroom, attended the couple. The feathered hat Mrs. Mansueti wore matched her pale pink print dress.

The bride is a graduate of the school of music of Denver university. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Sterling high school.

A reception was held at the John Mansueti's home. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Mansueti was Miss Frances Corodini.

The young couple, who had a short northern wedding trip, is now residing at 446 Lincoln place.

TRANSFERS TO REGULAR NAVY

Lt. Commander John C. O'Connor, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. O'Connor of 590 Glenview avenue, has reported for duty under instruction at the Naval General Line school, Monterey, California.

Formerly a Naval Reserve Officer, he transferred to the regular navy and was sent to the navy's new General Line School for further training.

TO STAR IN COLLEGE PLAY

Miss Todd Melvoin, 1424 Wildwood Lane, will star in Elmer Rice's "Street Scene," which will be presented by the Roosevelt college Theatre March 10, 12, and 13, at 8:30 p.m., at the People's Playhouse, 3500 W. Douglas Blvd., Chicago.

Miss Melvoin, a senior at Roosevelt college, has been a member of the North Shore Summer Players in Chicago. She also appeared in campus productions at Wellesley college where she was a student before she came to Roosevelt college.

"Street Scene" will be the third production of the Roosevelt college Theatre's current season. It will be entirely student acted and produced and will have a supporting cast of 46.

ANTOINETTE PASQUESI, A BRIDE

Miss Antoinette Elizabeth Pasquesi became the bride of Cpl. George Clifford Allison on Saturday, February 26, at Fort Sheridan chapel No. One. The 10 a.m. ceremony was read by Chaplain J. S. Gorman before a small group of friends and relatives. The bride is the daughter of Domenic Pasquesi of 247 Everts place, Highwood, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Allison of Boston, Massachusetts.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a pink suit and matching straw cloche with navy blue accessories. She carried a prayer book marked with a white orchid.

Attending the bride were Miss Tina Biondi, her cousin, and Miss Betty Bess, both of Highwood. They were dressed alike in navy blue, complemented by corsages of gardenias.

Michael Auda of Chicago served the bridegroom as best man and Sergeant Urbane Burmeister of Iowa ushered.

A breakfast followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's father. A dinner for forty close friends and relatives was held in the afternoon at Mrs. Olympia Fabbri's on North avenue. In the evening a reception was held at the Highwood Community Center.

Cpl. Allison and his bride are now residing on North avenue.

RETURNED HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Gloe of Two Rivers, Wisconsin, and their daughter, Mrs. Paul Ninestedt of Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, have returned home after a few days' visit with their niece, Mrs. Hilton Danner of 714 S. Ridge road. They were here to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Virginia Mollenhauer, who became the bride of Harold Mahaffey on Saturday, February 26, in Evanston. Mrs. Danner is a sister of the bride.

Mrs. Donald Shanafelt Chosen "Queen" of Fraternities

Mrs. Donald Shanafelt was chosen "Queen" at the annual fraternity carnival held last Saturday, March 5, at the Illinois Medical College, Chicago. Judge of the contest was Patricia Stevens.

Each year the sixteen fraternities at the College hold an annual carnival. Each fraternity sponsors a "Queen". Alpha Kappa Kappa, of which Mr. Shanafelt is a member, chose his wife as its candidate.

Alpha Kappa Kappa also had another honor bestowed upon it. Each year a cup is given to the fraternity for outstanding work and activities during the year. If the cup is won three years in a row, the fraternity retains it. This is Alpha Kappa Kappa's third consecutive year to receive this honor.

LOOK WHO'S HERE

On Tuesday, March 8, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett T. Moroney (Rosemary Berube) of 573 Glenview avenue, became the parents of a daughter at the Highland Park hospital. The little girl, who weighed 7 pounds, 1 ounce, has not yet been named.

Grandparents are the Edward J. Moroneys of the same Glenview address and Mrs. Marie Berube of 98 Sunset road.

Word has been received from Kowloon, Hongkong, China, of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Barthen (Gloria Crain). The baby, who has been named Nicola, was born on January 29 at Kowloon. She is the granddaughter of the Charles B.

Crains of 2172 Dell place.

The Barthens, who have been stationed in Shanghai, where he is food administrator and in charge of distribution of supplies, were evacuated to Hongkong on Christmas Day. Mr. Barthen is back in Shanghai, where his offices are located, in spite of the Communist control there. His wife and daughter are remaining temporarily in Kowloon.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. Anderson, Jr. of 801 Greenwood avenue, Glenview, became the parents of a son at the Highland Park hospital on Monday, February 28.

A brother for Barbara, 15, Kathleen, 13, and Patricia, 9, arrived at the Highland Park hospital on Tuesday, March 1. The baby has been named Dwight Alan. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Skidmore of 1655 S. Green Bay road.

Mrs. Skidmore is the former Florence Barbara Dunteman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dunteman of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Skidmore of Des Moines, Iowa, are the paternal grandparents.
