

As March 12 is the Sunday of Girl Scout Week, it was planned that the Girl Scouts attend church as a group in uniform. The ministers and priests have been consulted and each leader will make arrangements with her own troop about meeting time and places.

Girl Scouts on National Network

Radio Stars Burns and Allen Broadcast of Thursday, March 10, NBC 7:30 to 8:00 P.M. will be a salute to the 37th Birthday of the Girl Scouts of the USA. There will be some 50 or 60 programs mentioning Girl Scouting during this week. The special All Girl Scout Show will be the Girl Scout Birthday Party over NBC Saturday, March 12th, 1:00 to 1:30 p.m.

Girl Scout Convention

Highland Park Girl Scouts will be among 14 local councils to act as hostesses at the 30th National Girl Scout Convention to be held in Milwaukee, Wis., November 15-18, it was announced today by Mrs. Leonard Davidow, Commissioner of Highland Park Girl Scouts, Inc. The Highland Park Girl Scouts will be in charge of Registration.

Hostess councils for the biennial Girl Scout Conventions are chosen from among the towns near the site of the Convention to aid in planning the event and in helping to carry it through.

The purpose of the Convention is to determine the objectives of Girl Scouting in the USA for the next two years, to elect officers, and to transact organization business.

The Hostess Councils are Highland Park, Wilmette, Winnetka, Kenosha, Racine, Sheboygan, Waukegan, Madison, Beloit, Janesville, Evanston and Milwaukee.

Senior Hobby Club To Hear Talk On Rug Making

Mrs. Percy Allen and Mrs. Hannah Milham, residents of Highland Park, will give informal talks on braided and hooked rugs at 10:30 a.m. Friday for the Senior Hobby Club that meets weekly at the Community Center. Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Milham will also have on display some of the rugs which they have made.

The Senior Hobby Club is open to all adults in Highland Park, both men and women, and the facilities of the Community Center including the shop, dark room, music room and the movie projector are at their disposal. Come to the Center Friday morning and meet new friends and renew old friendships.
