

THIS WEEK ... IN HIGHLAND PARK

BY ALICE ZABEL

Telephone Highland Park 2064

SALADINE-KNIGHT NUPTIALS

Trinity Episcopal church in West Hartford, Connecticut, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Andrea Saladine, daughter of the John W. Saladines of West Hartford, and Robert Perkins Knight, son of the Francis M. Knights of 411 Lake avenue, on Saturday, March 12, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride's wedding gown, which had a long train, was trimmed with family heirloom lace. The lace was also used for the cap headdress, from which her veil fell. She carried white orchids and stephanotis.

William Pomper of Highland Park served the bridegroom as best man. Also among the attendants were the bridegroom's sister and her husband, the Blaine Rawdons (Margaret Knight) of New York.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Hartford Country club.

The bridegroom's parents and his brother-in-law and sister, the La Rhett Stuarts (Helen Knight) of Evanston, attended the wedding. Another sister, Miss Nancy Knight, a student at Smith college, was also present.

The bride is a graduate of Bradford Junior college and the bridegroom is a graduate of Yale.

Mr. Knight and his bride are spending a two weeks' honeymoon at the Sea Ranch Hotel, Fort Lauderdale, Florida. On their return they will reside at 890 Private road, Hubbard Woods.

ELECT ALUMNAE GROUP OFFICER

Mrs. Whitt N. Schultz was recently elected vice president of the alumnae group of the Chicago Chapter of National Park college. She has also been chosen candidate for director of the national association. The National convention will be held in the east next month.

On April 2, the Chicago group will meet at the home of Mrs. Schultz.

VACATIONING IN FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. William Pearl of 714 S. Sheridan road are vacationing in Florida. They expect to return home about April 1.

WILBUR BERNARDI TAKES A BRIDE

Miss Elinor A. Nepstad became the bride of Wilbur Ralph Bernardi at a candlelight ceremony at Levere Memorial chapel, Evanston, at 6 o'clock in the evening on Saturday, February 26. The Rev. L. O. Anderson heard the exchange of nuptial vows. The bride is the daughter of the Ole Nepstads of 2146 Brown avenue, Evanston, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Bernardi of 87 Beverly place.

The bride was lovely in candlelight satin. The bustle back of her gown tapered into a three yard train. The beaded shoulder trim was repeated in her head piece, from which hung silk illusion veiling. Her bouquet was of white roses and a white orchid.

The bride's attendants, her sister, Miss Barbara Nepstad, maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, Miss Helen Nepstad, another sister, Miss Grace Cleland and Mrs. A. J. Fink, III, of Chicago, and Mrs. Sinesio Zagnoli (Norma Lenzi), of Highwood, niece of the bridegroom, were all gowned alike. Their white tissue faille dresses were made with Peter Pan collars and very full skirts. They carried white roses.

Best man was Bernard Bernardi, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were Bernard Lenzini, his nephew, A. J. Fink, III, Mark Williams and Sinesio Zagnoli.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Nepstad chose a toast colored lace dress with matching hat and gloves. Her corsage was of yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother was in emerald green lace made with long sleeves. Her pastel pink hat of roses matched the flowers in her corsage.

Following a reception at the Evanston Woman's club, Mr. Bernardi and his bride left for New Orleans to attend the Mardi Gras. After a two weeks' honeymoon in Louisiana, they are now at home at 1009 Davis street, Evanston.

ACCEPTS POSITION IN BRAZIL

Enroute to Sao Paulo, Brazil, where he recently accepted a position as an account executive for Grant Advertising, Robert Williams Schur, son of Dr. and Mrs. I. C. Schur of 810 S. St. Johns avenue, stopped at many interesting places. San Juan, Puerto Rico, and Belem, Tortaleza, Recife, Sal Salvador, and Rio de Janeiro, coastal cities of Brazil, were among the stop-overs briefly visited.

Mr. Schur, a graduate of the Highland Park high school, spent three and a half years at Northwestern University.

U. OF ILLINOIS BAND MEMBERS

Two young people from Highland Park, Janeth B. Finch and Hugo J. Melvoin, are members of the University of Illinois Concert Band, which presented its fifty-ninth annual concert March 9 and 10.

These annual concerts are the high spot in the work of an organization which has earned the international reputation of "the world's greatest college band." This program will be repeated at Davenport, Iowa, on Saturday, when the 108-piece organization plays at the biennial meeting of the Music Educator's National Conference, North Central Division. Some will also be in a program to be given in Galesburg on Sunday.

Miss Finch, daughter of the Harold Finches of 718 S. St. Johns avenue, who plays the French horn, is a second semester freshman at the university. She transferred from the University of Wichita in Kansas this spring. Mr. Melvoin, son of the Charles Melvoins of 1424 Wildwood lane, is a member of the cornet section.

BACK HOME

Back home after a five weeks' vacation spent at Camelback Inn near Phoenix, Arizona, are the Frank G. Houghs and daughter, Mary, of 646 Waverly road.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton R. Cooper of 299 Marshman avenue have returned from a five weeks' trip to Los Angeles, California, and Hawaii.

VIRGINIA BROWN, A BRIDE

On Saturday, March 12, Miss Virginia Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew John Brown of 897 Deerfield road, became the bride of Arthur R. Brandonisio, son of the Michael Brandonisios of Wrendale avenue, Highwood. The 7:30 p.m. ceremony was performed by Judge Henry Hansen.

The bride wore a grey suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Brown of S. Green Bay road, Ravinia, was her attendant. Mrs. Brown wore a brown suit complemented by a pink carnation corsage.

John Brown served the bridegroom as best man.

A dinner for twenty-two followed the ceremony at the Union Hotel, Wheeling. After a short honeymoon the young couple is now living at 120 Wrendale avenue, Highwood.

CARIBBEAN CRUISE

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kuh of 134 Ravine drive, arrived in New Orleans recently aboard the "Chiriqui" after an 18-day cruise in the Caribbean.

They spent three days in Havana, Cuba; nine days in Guatemala City and a day in Puerto Barrios, Guatemala. While in Puerto Barrios they motored inland to visit the ruins of the Mayan civilization.

HOME FOR WEEK-END

Robert Forsythe, son of the R. W. Forsythes of 525 Ravine Manor road, spent the week-end at home. Bob, a student at the University of Illinois in Champaign, is active in fencing and a member of the university's team.

North Shore Florist and Landscape Service

JOS. KOLBECK

Telegraph Delivery Service
Phone Glencoe
609

290 Greenwood Avenue
Glencoe, Illinois

FLOWERS FOR EVERY OCCASION

IN ARKANSAS

Gordon Clavey of Clavey road recently returned from a three day visit at the White Star Rice Plantation, Gillette, Arkansas, the home of his parents-in-law. His wife has been there for the past month, due to the illness of her mother.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

In honor of the birthday of her mother, Mrs. John Nizzi, the Sylvester Reitmeyer's of 230 McDaniels avenue, were hosts at a party at their home on Sunday evening.

RECUPERATING

Recuperating in Hartford, Connecticut, following an appendectomy, is Bob Sheahan, son of the Maurice Sheahans of 1305 Broadway avenue. He is a junior at Trinity college in Hartford.

MITZI ALTER MARRIES

The wedding of Miss Millicent (Mitzi) Alter, daughter of the Harry Alters of 199 Ravine drive and M. Morton Goldenberg, son of the Samuel Weinbergs of Philadelphia, took place on Saturday, March 12, at the Northmoor Country club. The 7:30 p.m. ceremony was read by Dr. Siskin of the North Shore Temple Israel.

The bride was gowned in traditional white satin made with a long train. Her full length veil hung from a cap of heirloom lace. She carried a bouquet of white lilies.

Matron of honor was Mrs. John D. Levy of St. Louis, Missouri, cousin of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Philip Lederer of Glencoe, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Walter Gips and Mrs. Robert Greenebaum of Highland Park. The attendants were all gowned alike in off-the-shoulder gowns of deep aqua organza. Their flowered headbands of peach colored carnations and ivy, matched the bouquets they carried.

Best man was William Weinberg, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were James Alter, brother of the bride, Leonard Myers of Hartford, Connecticut, and David Strouse of Philadelphia.

The bride's mother wore a pale aqua lace gown and the bridegroom's mother was in coral lace. Their corsages were of white orchids.

The bride attended the University of Chicago high school and is a graduate of Endicott Junior college in Beverly, Massachusetts. The bridegroom is a graduate of Cornell.

Over two hundred attended the wedding, and dinner that followed. Now on a month's honeymoon trip to Montego Bay, Jamaica and Cuba, Mr. Goldenberg and his bride will reside in Philadelphia on their return.

SHOWER PARTY

In honor of Mrs. Richard Anderson of S. Ridge road, Mrs. Jack Clavey and Mrs. Paul Haines were co-hostesses at a shower at Mrs. Haines' home on Clavey road recently.

CLUB MEETING

The Albert Larsons of 133 S. Green Bay road will be hosts to the "Five Hundred" club on Saturday night.

PICTURED IN "YOUTH ON THE CAMPUS"

Among the students of Beloit college, Beloit, Wisconsin, pictured in the Chicago Sunday Tribune's "Youth on the Campus", was Bill Kelly of Highland Park, sophomore.

NEWCOMERS TO HIGHLAND PARK

Newcomers to Highland Park are the Duane Redfields of 230 Cary avenue. From Evanston, they are the parents of two sons, Joe, 3, and Mike, 18 months. Mr. Redfield is in the insurance business in Chicago. They bought their home here.

New owners of the home at 868 Roslyn circle are the Herbert Gordons, former Chicagoans. Their son, Larry, is two years old. Mr. Gordon is with the Sterling bolt company, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy N. Brill and son, Michael, 18 months, are now residing at 548 Gray avenue, the home they recently purchased. From Glencoe, Mr. Brill is connected with the Illinois Creamery Supply company.

Formerly of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, are the Charles Torrences of 635 Skokie avenue. Mr. Torrence is guidance counselor of the Glencoe Public schools. They bought their home here. They are the parents of three children, Judith, 7, Patricia, 5, and Billy, four months old.

Now living at 1044 N. Green Bay road are the William A. Massinas. Mr. Massina is service man for the Harry S. Schramm Appliances. They are originally from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, but have lived in Chicago for the past two years.

From Chicago are Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Goldstein and sons, Charles, 9, and Michael, 5. They purchased the home at 694 Delta road in which they are now living. Mr. Goldstein owns a food mart in Chicago.

Complete BODY and FENDER WORK

Complete BUMP Service
Expert Paint Matching of Any Color
Frame and Axle Straightening
Guaranteed Expert Workmanship
Prompt Service! Free Estimates!
No Job Too Large or Too Small

HIGHLAND BUMP SHOP
513 Elm
Highland Park 2774

"I'm Spry as a Cricket..."

"There's spring in my step every day... because I get a good night's sleep every night under my electric blanket. At my age sleeping comfort is important, and my electric blanket keeps me just as warm as I want to be. I like turning the blanket on a few minutes early and slipping into a nice warm bed, too."

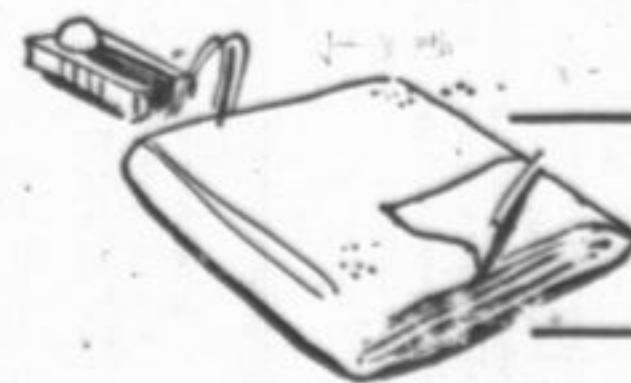

Electric bed covers bring new sleeping comfort to every member of the family. You'll find you sleep better... and feel better... when your bed is kept at a constant temperature. A dependable control automatically assures you of the warmth you want... it adjusts to changing temperatures. You'll sleep the whole night through... never waking to add a blanket or throw one off.

Cold spots are a thing of the past with electric bedcovers... your bed is cozy warm all over. And, if you're planning to save on fuel bills this year, an electric blanket will let you sleep in comfort no matter what the room temperature is.

If you like feeling spry as a cricket every morning... you'll like sleeping under an electric blanket, comforter or sheet.

... after a good night's sleep under my Electric Blanket!"

There are several types of electric bed covers from which you may choose: Electric Sheets $29.95; Blankets (Twin Bed Size) from $39.95; Blankets (Double Bed Size) from $41.95; Comforters $49.85. All prices include Federal Excise Tax.

See Your Dealer or Our Nearest Store

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS