What's The Use?

We moved to rural acreage,
Away from city strife,
In hopes of mending jangled nerves
With sweet bucolic life.

O' Brother, what a fallacy—
That vaunted country peace!
The blare of Nature's industry Assails us without cease.

Each night canine disputers howl
Their challenge to the moon.
At dawn our shingles rattle with A flicker's raucous tune.

With chirps and squeaks that numb the ears, Incessantly they keep It up, until we long for rest, Nor dread that final sleep.

Tucked peacefully beneath the sod, Undoubtedly I'll hear
A blatant anvil-chorus beat
Of termites on my bier.

Life At 80

After hearing a musician of 88 render Chopin to a delighted radio audience, we feel that 80, even though it may not be the alpha, is certainly not the omega.

Photo Finish

They cluster round
A funny-looking box
On legs,
And make with idiotic signs
And glassy grins,
And beg of him to smile—
To watch the pretty little birdie.
Smile!
How can a fellow smile
At odds like that?
They all behave like strangers—
Something's wrong!
He never felt so all-alone before. . . . .
Betrayed by all the world—
Yes, even mom!
At this last tragic thought
His spirit breaks,
And in shrill protest to a cruel world
He raises up his lusty infant voice
AND HOWLS!

Highwood Girl Wins Prize For Essay On Americanism

In the competition of the Eighth Grade public school children residing in Chicagoland for the prizes offered by Mrs. Charles R.
Curtiss of Joliet, National Chairman of Americanism DAR, Janet Phillips an Italian girl attending the Oak Terrace Grammar School in Highwood won the fifth prize.
Janet will read her essay at the Fourth Division DAR meeting to be held at Marshall Field and Co.
Chicago on Friday, April 8.

Among the five prize winners which included besides Janet a German and a Chinese girl and two boys, three were born overseas and all are telling in uncersored and unedited essays their ideas of true Americanism.

Highland Park Artist Exhibits Novel Piece Of Art

Among the members of the Artists League of the Midwest exhibiting in the current showing at Mandel Brothers Art Galleries is Richard Florsheim, of 138 Elmwood Drive, in Highland Park. Mr.
Florsheim has placed on view his distinguished piece of work, "The Vision within Plaster", made for the enjoyment of a sightless friend. The visitor is invited to close his eyes while running his hands over the figure, in order to enjoy the full beauty of the piece.

Mr. Florsheim has also hung two interesting drawings in Chinese ink. He is one of twenty-six members of the League whose work is in the collection. It includes sculptures, drawings, ceramics and mobiles.

Mrs. Robert C. Reed To Entertain DAR Thursday, April 14

Mrs. Robert C. Reed, 220 Knollwood Drive, Lake Forest will open her home at one-thirty o'clock in the afternoon Thursday April 14 for the April meeting of the North Shore Chapter DAR. Mrs. Reed lives in the second house inside the northern entrance of the Knollwood Country Club which is located on Waukegan road a few miles north of Lake Forest.

Reports of the State Conference held at the Drake Hotel in March will be given by the delegates Mrs. William F. Einbecker, Regent and Mrs. Garfield Day.
The nominating committee will present nominations of Board Members to be elected for the coming year.

Mrs. Lloyd Laegler will present two groups of songs—one in Modern French and one in English.
Mrs. Laegler, a graduate of the Cosmopolitan School of Music where she studied with Shirley Gandell, is now soloist at the Lake Forest Presbyterian Church. Mary Catherine Collins will accompany her.

Hostesses assisting Mrs. Reed for the afternoon will be Mrs.
William O. Bell, Mrs. J. P. Casperson and Mrs. Kellogg Speed.

pete in this League.

Special Gift Meeting And Luncheon Of Combined Jewish Appeal

By Ileen Heiman

On Monday, April 11, the Women's Division of the 1949 Combined Jewish Appeal will have a luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. Harris Perlstein, 443 Sheridan Road, Glencoe, at 12:30 o'- clock.

"This Special Gift meeting is one of the most important fundraising affairs for the Women's Division of the Combined Jewish Appeal," reports Mrs. Kurt C.
Friend, General Chairman of the Women's Division. "A prodigious amount of money is necessary to continue the gigantic task of finding new homes in Israel for 250, 000 immigrants — immigrants whose only possessions are the clothes on their back. Then, too, there's the job of relief, reconstruction and emigration among 600,000 Jews of Europe. In addition to overseas needs, the Combined Jewish Appeal includes the deficit of the Jewish Federation of Chicago and the United Jewish Building Fund, which benefits local health and social welfare institutions."

The April 11 North Shore meeting will be chaired by Mrs. Jack A. Schram (221 Maple, Highland Park), Chairman of Advance Gifts, North Shore and Mrs. John S. Wineman (310 Cary Avenue, Highland Park), co-chairman of Advance Gifts, North Shore.

The hall would be nearly empty

If you hired an auditorium and invited all the people in Illinois Bell territory who don't benefit in any way from the telephone business, not many would come.

Because you would have to exclude the 44,000 employees of Illinois Bell and their families . . . and the 65,000 Illinois people who own telephone stock, and their families . . . and the countless businesses in 337 communities that benefit from Illinois Bell's $144,000,000 annual payroll . . .
and the schools and other institutions that share in the $17,000,000 of state and local taxes paid last year by Illinois Bell . . . and the millions of telephone users served by Illinois Bell.

Few businesses mean so much to the welfare of so many people as the telephone business.
