

Deeps and Shallows

EH?
Slick writers have a penchant,
now,
Our thought to deftly split;
They make a statement positive,
And then they ask—Or was it?
They speak of boy beneath a palm,
Beside a languid sea;
They make us think he longs for home,
And then they ask—Or does he?
They tell us of his love at home,
Is she true as true can be?
We wish the writers would decide, We're all confused—Or are we?

shade
May mock a muse of fame,
But the genuine verse of Marmalade
Is not confused by name.

And though initials indicate Identity of note,
E. B. in her own right is great Because of things she wrote.

When Loki strikes her ribboned keys
The cadence is symphonic . . .
A universe of words that please Combine with thoughts that frolic.

With great wealth of experience,
And humor ever keen,
Our A.C.O. brings us accounts
Of things she's heard and seen.

Now when one reads the Limerick Lad,
There, no mistake is made . . .
He's just himself, and I am glad He courts no spooky shade.

The Highland Lass breathes of a muse
As light as any feather,
With graceful words and rhymes that fuse
Like whiffs of fragrant heather.

And R.E.O., most versatile,
In word and humor, too,
Could lend us all a hearty laugh
If she told all she knew.

—One of the Bunch

Perhaps . . .
Bearing in mind the old saying:
You can't be hanged for what you think, but you can get into a peck of trouble for what you say.

—R.B.O.

The Perfect Squelch

A recent picture portrays the experiences of an attractive young widow who captured the town's "most eligible" against all contenders. At a spinsters dinner a disappointed rival (29 on her last birthday — again) congratulates the bride-elect and remarks playfully (?) and significantly (!) in effect:
"She's done it again. Even from babyhood she stole my boy friends.
But I always got them back in high school—remember?"
The bride elect, being definitely an un-catty person, can only take it on the chin, smile sweetly, and hold her tongue. But isn't it a pity that she was not allowed to step out of character for an instant and say smoothly, with lifted brow:
"Oh? . . . And where are they now?"

—Loki

Ravinia Group Assists In Aid To Underprivileged Children

The Ravinia Auxiliary of the Chicago Commons Association was able to turn over the sum of two hundred dollars to the parent organization for the use of underprivileged children to attend its summer camp in Michigan, as the result of the successful Rummage Sale recently conducted by the local Auxiliary. Mrs. Guy Finlay, Chairman of the Sale, and Mrs.
Armand McPhee, president of the Auxiliary, wish to thank all those who helped make the sale so successful.

The April meeting of the local Group will be held on Friday, the 29th of April, at 1:30 P.M. at the home of the Vice-President, Mrs. Edwin P. Hart, 1015 Lincoln Avenue. After the usual dessert luncheon, and a short business meeting, the members will work on material recently donated to the group to make simple costumes for the children to wear at the Camp.

G. H. Hartman, assisted by Mrs.
E. M. Knox, Mrs. R. O. Farrell, Mrs. B. E. Schumacher, Mrs. G. D.
Stone, and Mrs. R. L. Wetzel.
Preceding the morning meeting the Board will meet promptly at ten-thirty o'clock.

"My Aunt Lucy fell down a flight of stairs this morning."
"Injuries?"
"Yes, it hurt her somewhat and bruised her otherwise."

Ravinia Woman's Club Climaxes Full Year With Dinner Dance

The closing dinner dance of the year for Ravinia Woman's club members and guests will be held on Saturday evening, April 30, at 8:30 p.m. at the Ravinia Village house, according to Mrs. Robert Christopher, social chairman. This dance will be formal.

With May Day in mind, the committee has decided to use available spring flowers to decorate the tables. Will Holly, formerly with Art Kassel's band will furnish the music for dancing.
This is a return engagement for Mr. Holly as he played for the club's spring dance last year and was well received.

Mrs. George Mueller is assisting Mrs. Christopher with arrangements for the party. Reservations should be made immediately with Mrs. Christopher and the deadline for cancellations has been set for Tuesday, April 26.

Other members of the social committee who will help arrange dinner tables for the party and assist with the decorating are:
Mrs. John Andrews, Mrs. Rex Andrews, Mrs. W. H. Armstrong, Mrs. L. H. Bellows, Mrs. William Elston, Mrs. Sidney Frisch, Mrs.
A. W. Geigerich, Mrs. Shelby
Garwood, Mrs. William Hinshaw,

Woman's Club To Hold Annual Spring Luncheon April 26

Alice Graham Winters will be the inspirational speaker at the Highland Park Woman's Club on Tuesday, April 26. This will be the final meeting of the current Club year.

The annual spring luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock, followed by the yearly reports of the officers and election of board members. Reservations for the luncheon must be made not later than Saturday, April 23, with Mrs. Carl L. Wolf, H. P. 706 or Mrs. F. G.
Waggett, H. P. 4149.

Mrs. Carl S. Winters, who is the wife of the minister of the First Baptist Church of Oak Park,

ALICE GRAHAM WINTERS

Illinois, is a vital, sparkling speaker and has chosen as the title of her challenging message: "We Are Tomorrow". Mrs. Winters has led an interesting life and a full one.
A friend of hers once said, "She has LIVED all her life". While still in college she married a fellow student, and together they finished their college and Divinity School education. Mrs. Winters is herself a licensed minister and assists her husband in the youth and children's work as pastor of the Junior Church.

She has proved herself a woman with unlimited enthusiasm for her ambition: the making of a better world for today and for the future.
She appeals to women primarily because she believes in the home and is the mother of three daughters. Her natural charm, graciousness and intelligence account for her ability to hold her audience.
Mrs. Winters holds aloft her belief in our ability to keep the torch of democracy and religion burning brightly in the world today. Because of her wide interest in educational and community organizations she is especially qualified to present her stirring ideas about women's part in our democracy.

Junior Welfare Group Prepares For Baby Week, May 1-7

The Juniors of the Highland Park-Ravinia Center of Infant Welfare are preparing for "Baby Week" which is to be held from May 1-7. Members are asked to contribute used baby garments for the Thrift Shop at the meeting April 25, to be held at the home of Mrs. J. P. Embich, 200 Belle Avenue.

Garnetts and the Gift Corner have kindly offered their windows for the week May 1-7 to be used for displaying the garments which the Juniors, Intermediates and Seniors have made during the year.
The hostesses for the April meeting are Mrs. John Kies and Mrs. John Kuiper for the morning, and Mrs. Carlyle Coash and Mrs.
Robert Walker for the afternoon.

Mrs. Kenneth Kraft Hostess To H. Park Music Club

The regular monthly meeting of the Highland Park Music Club will be held Wednesday, April 27th, at 2:00 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Kraft, 225 Lakewood Place.

One of the talented members of the Club, who has served frequently as an officer of it, Mrs. C.
Longford Felske, pianist, will play a number of compositions by De-Bussy, Dohnanyi, Griffis and other classical and modern musicians.
Also on this delightful program, will be Mrs. Thompson, who will give a program of "Wagneriana", including an interesting talk on that great composer, and accompanying her remarks by occasional playing of excerpts of his varied pianistic works to illustrate his genius in composition.

As always, at the close of the program, Mrs. Lisle Hawley and her Committee will serve tea to the members and their guests.
Mrs. Henry Clifford Hawes, President of the Club, will preside at this meeting.

The Ever Lengthening Shadow

In 1929 federal spending amounted to less than two thirds of the personal income of the inhabitants of California. By 1947, federal expenditures were approximately equal to the total personal income of all the inhabitants of California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada, Idaho, Utah, Arizona, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado,
New Mexico, North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and about four fifths of Texas.

Federal expenditures amounted to $121 per family in 1929, $250 in 1938, and about $984 in 1948.

Remember that these figures represent the spending of the federal government only. When state and local government spending is added, the total amounts to some 30 per cent of our national income. In other words, the American people devote nearly one third of their working time and effort to supporting their various governments.
