

THIS WEEK ... IN HIGHLAND PARK

BY ALICE ZABEL

Telephone Highland Park 2864

IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon Humphrey of Judson avenue are in Washington, D. C. for a short vacation. While there, Mr. Humphrey, who is one of the City Commissioners, will be admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States.

Having his law office in Chicago, Mr. Humphrey is now serving his second term as chairman of the Probate Practice Committee of the Chicago Bar Association.

BETROTHAL ANNOUNCED

The Rev. and Mrs. Christoph Keller of St. Michaels, Maryland, formerly of Highland Park, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathryn Josephine, to Robert Gerald Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Pierce Marshall of Houston, Texas.

Miss Keller was graduated from Roycemore School in Evanston, received her B.A. from Wells College, Aurora, New York, in 1942, and her M.A. from Yale University in 1943.

Mr. Marshall was graduated in 1941 from the Rice Institute, Houston, Texas, then served in the United States Army in the Africa-Middle-East Theater. He received his M.A. from the Rice Institute in 1946 and is now studying at Yale University for his Ph. D. The wedding will take place in the late summer.

EASTER VISITORS

Visiting for the Easter holidays at the home of his mother, Mrs. Philip Schreiber, and sister, Mrs. Robert Cobb, 520 Glenecoe avenue, were Theodore Schreiber, his wife and daughters, Susan, 8, and Betsy, 6, and mother-in-law, Mrs. Emma Klosner, all of Minneapolis, Minnesota. They arrived last Wednesday and returned home on Monday.

On Saturday, Mrs. Theodore Schreiber's aunt, Miss Marie Klosner of Madison, Wisconsin, arrived for a two day visit, also.

BACK HOME

Back home after eight days in the East are the Jackson W. Smarts and their daughter, Dee Dee, and son, Allen of 99 Sycamore. The trip was made primarily to visit various Eastern colleges and schools where Dee Dee and Allen may decide to enroll in the future. Among the schools visited were Smith, Vassar, Wellesley and Connecticut College for Women. Dee Dee will be a senior at the Highland Park high school next year.

The Smarts also visited at Deerfield where Allen plans to attend next year, and at Amherst, looking still further into the future for him. Allen is a freshman this year at Highland Park.

On April 8, Janet Weiser accompanied her father, F. Walter Weiser of 554 Gray avenue, on a business trip to Boston. They made the trip by plane. After a few days in Boston they joined Mrs. Weiser and their youngest daughter, Carol, in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, where they were visiting with Mrs. Weiser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Crowe. The Weisers returned home on Saturday.

Their eldest daughter, Connie, is a student at Monmouth college.

After a week's sojourn at the Edgewater Gulf hotel, Biloxi, Mississippi, the Robert M. Schillers and their daughter, Nan, of 828 N. St. Johns avenue and Miss Peggy Loewenthal of 257 Moraine road, have returned home.

Charlie and Bobbie, the young sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Sprowl of 2351 Lakeside place, spent a week visiting at the home of their grandparents, the Charles Orr Sprowls of Lansing, Michigan. Charlie is a third grader and Bobbie, a first grader at the Braeside school.

Back home after spending a two weeks' vacation in Florida are the E. L. Doroughs and son, Philip, of 1318 Wade street.

On Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Date and daughter, Marilyn, of Rice street, returned home from a week's trip through Michigan.

The Dates' son, Henry, recently spent a week's spring vacation at home. He has returned to Carleton college in Northfield, Minnesota, where he is a student. One day during his spring recess, he visited with Ted Zabel at the Chi Phi fraternity house in Champaign, Illinois.

BUTOW-WIEDER NUPTIALS SATURDAY

The wedding of Miss Jacqueline Butow, daughter of the D. L. Butows of Evanston, and Robert Lyle Wieder, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Wieder of 1916 Hiawatha trail, will take place on Saturday, April 23. The 4:30 p.m. ceremony will be performed in St. Paul's Lutheran church, Evanston. A reception will follow at the Wilmette Woman's club.

Attending the bride will be Mrs. Gordon Schafgen, her sister, as matron of honor, and the Misses Joanne Wieder, sister of the bridegroom, Peggy Hedstrom and Betty Strahs, the latter two of Evanston.

Patty Butow will act as flower girl for her aunt and Tommy Butow will be ring bearer for his sister.

Ernest Wieder will be his brother's best man and the ushers include Douglas Butow, brother of the bride, Kenneth Olson, Henry Schramm and Gordon Schafgen.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Evanston high school and is now employed at the Rowe Printing, Evanston. Mr. Wieder is a graduate of the Highland Park high school and is now with Mergenthalers, Wilmette plumbers.

Following a two weeks' honeymoon in New Mexico, Mr. Wieder and his bride will reside in Skokie.

CHARTER MEMBER OF SCABBARD AND BLADE

Thomas Graham Tpxel, Jr. of 244 Central avenue was one of the charter members admitted recently to Scabbard and Blade, national honorary military society. More than sixty University of Texas army, air force, and navy R.O.T.C. cadet and midshipmen officers are members of this new company.

VISITS FAMILY

Thomas Free of San Diego, California, son of the W. D. Frees of 1547 S. St. Johns avenue, visited his parents recently "between assignments". Mr. Free, who recently spent three months in Fort Worth, Texas, on a special assignment, is now back on the west coast. He is with Consolidated Aircraft.

CONVENTION DELEGATES

The Rev. Herbert W. Linden and Mrs. Linden of Zion Lutheran church, Highwood, are delegates to the ninety-seventh convention of the Augustana Lutheran church, being held at the Messiah Lutheran church, Chicago, April 19 through the 22nd.

SPRING MILL PARK VACATIONERS

Many Highland Parkers spent the recent Easter vacation at Spring Mill Park, Mitchell, Indiana. Among them were the Lester B. Balls and son, George, of 724 S. St. Johns avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Embich and daughter, Carol, of 200 Belle avenue also vacationed there.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon A. Peterson and son, Tommy, and daughters, Marian and Judy, of 144 Sunset road, divided their vacation time at Turkey Run and Spring Mill Park. They spent several days at the former and then went on to Mitchell for the remainder of the week.

After spending a week-end of their vacation at Spring Mill Park, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Maxwell and daughters, Elspeth, Cathy and Susan of 491 Fairview ave., went on to Harrodsburg, Kentucky. They stopped at the Beaumont Inn.

Enroute home from a trip to the Smokys, Cumberland Gap, Lincoln Memorial, "My Old Kentucky Home", Mammoth Cave and other points of interest, Dr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson and sons, Rudd and Bruce, of Ravinia also spent a day at Spring Mill Park.
