Notes From Here And There

Well, now that "Lippy Lou" is back bawling out umpires, and Ingrid Bergman, "the dis-illusioner", is re-united with her husband where she belongs, it's time to point our portable towards local matters . . .

Let's begin by thanking Mr. H. M. Rogers, headman of the Tenthouse Theater, for sending along season passes for his productions.

If they're as fine as they were last year, Mr. Rogers, you'll have a most successful season.

We predict someday soon Chicago's North Shore, thanks to creative men like Mr. Rogers, will have the most outstanding Tenthouse Theater productions in the nation.

We think we already do.

SAFETY MEASURE . . .

Northwestern Railroad safety experts are helping make Highland Park a safer town by building that new and high gateman tower at our treacherous Central Avenue crossing.

DELICIOUS . . .

"Relax eating Shelton's delicious hamburgers and sooner or later you'll see everyone you know in Highland Park come in," a person commented to the writer the other evening when Shelton's was packed with well-known Highland Parkers munching the best hamburgers available anywhere.

How true!
You couldn't get a more delicious hamburger . . . and on top of that Shelton's prices are easing downward.

Keep up the fine work you're doing, Shelton!

SUPER SALESMAN . . .

One of Highland Park's best auto salesmen is likeable, cheerful Bruce Blaine, the able sales manager of Ravinia Motors, Inc., a progressive firm with a bright future, particularly since Packard has one of America's No. 1 cars. Continued success, Mr. Blaine!

SUDDEN NOTE . . .

Had an opportunity to visit Highland Park's high school the other morning and found things in fine shape.

There surely are a courteous group of teen-agers there and many of the young ladies are pretty enough to be called cover girls . . .

STRICTLY PERSONAL . . .

Seems it's the thing nowadays for so-called columnists to list personal prejudices.

Here are a few from this corner. We like:

Five Collectors To Open Homes For Showing Of Antiques

An announcement made by the Collectors' Study Group of the Highland Park Woman's Club of a tour of five homes furnished with Antiques has been received with unusual interest. The demand for tickets has been most gratifying.

The Committee feels that the five homes which have been graciously offered for this tour represent outstanding examples of many choice collections of antiques and the joy of living with them. We are deeply grateful to the following hostesses for opening their homes: Mrs. Sigmund Livingston, 225 Cary Avenue, Ravinia, Mrs. A. J. McMaster, Wilmet Road, Bannockburn, Mrs. Mason Smith, 1113 Lincoln Ave., Highland Park, Mrs. Gordon Fox, 188 Lakeside Manor, Ravinia and Mrs. W. C. Shipnes, 511 So. Green Bay Rd., Highland Park.

In response to many inquiries received, further announcement will be made by the Committee in the next issue of this paper, giving details of the outstanding treats in store for those who participate in the tour, which will take place on Thursday, May 26th, between the hours of 1 and 5. Tickets can be purchased from Gsell's Drug Store, or any of the Committee members.

Rotarians Attend Elgin Inter-City Meeting

As winners of an attendance contest, a large majority of the members of the Highland Park Rotary Club responded to the invitation of the Elgin Club to attend a special dinner meeting at 7:00 P.M. on Monday, May 9th. The host club held the meeting in the Elgin Masonic Temple and four officers of the local club were in attendance, the entire group making the trip by special bus.

The contest was for the months of January and February, with Highland Park the victor by a margin of 1.88% having an average attendance for the period of 93.71%. President Robert Denzel and Secretary Frank Wichman accepted the winner's trophy from President Dan Withers of the Elgin Club.

An outstanding program was provided, including delightful music by a Male Chorus made up of fifty members, a short talk by District Governor Lloyd Hollister, and an excellent address by Past District Governor Mr. Francis Buddington.

It is now proposed that the contest between the two Clubs be repeated next year.

WATCH OUT FOR KIDS!

Give kids a brake. Drive with extra caution near schools. And watch out for youngsters playing in the streets. Remember—it might be your child. So slow up, and let them grow up.

Be Careful—the life you save may be your own!
