JANET MORRISSEY, A BRIDE

A very pretty wedding took place at the Immaculate Conception church on Saturday, May 21, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon when Miss Janet Elizabeth Morrissey, daughter of the Edward Henry Morrisseys of 903 S. Green Bay road became the bride of Elroy F. Langill, son of the Elroy Langills of 436 Lincoln avenue.

The bride was lovely in an "off the shoulder" ivory satin gown trimmed with heirloom lace and made with a long train. The gown buttoned down the back and the sleeves were long and pointed at the wrist. Her bouquet was of lilies of the valley and gardenias.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Thomas J. Aylward of St. Charles, Illinois, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids included Miss Norma Jane Langill, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Carolyn Conley and Mrs. Charles Rietz. Mrs. Aylward's gown was of cream of cocoa color, while the bridesmaids' gowns, made like hers, were of champagne color.

Warren Beem of Chicago served the bridegroom as best man and Edward Morrissey, Jr., brother of the bride, William Richard Morrish of Chicago and Charles Rietz of Highland Park, ushered.

The bride's mother chose a grey gown and matching hat for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother was in mauve. Her hat was trimmed with matching rosebuds and leaves. Their corsages were of orchids.

A reception was held at the Exmoor Country Club immediately after the wedding.

Following a two weeks' wedding trip to the Cascades, Virginia, Mr. Langill and his bride will reside in Lincoln Park West, Chicago.

LEAVING FOR OHIO

Mrs. Edwin M. Hadley, Jr. of 629 Kimball road will leave on June 1 for Columbus, Ohio, for a visit with friends.

VISITING PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Russell P. Kelley, Jr. (Jennifer Turner) are visiting their parents, Mrs. James A. Cook of Lake Forest and the James Allen Turners of 325 Central avenue. They recently returned from South America, where they have been since Mr. Kelley's graduation from Yale this spring. They are in Lake Forest with his mother.

FRED ROSCHER TAKES A BRIDE

On Friday, May 13, at 8 o'clock in the evening, Miss Dorothea Zoe Stanley became the bride of Frederick George Roscher at the parsonage of the Redeemer Lutheran church, the Rev. H. K. Platzer reading the service. The bride is the daughter of Walter Stanley of Lake Forest and the bridegroom is the son of the Frederick E. Roschers of 1045 Deerfield road.

The bride wore a peach colored gown complemented by white rosebuds and small white flowers in her hair. She was attended by Miss Lila Manzke as maid of honor. A corsage of red and white roses was pinned at the shoulder of their grey suit she wore.

Charles Rahning served the bridegroom as best man.

Dinner and reception for the bridal party, families and a few close friends followed the ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Mr. Roscher and his bride will reside in Lake Forest.

IN MONTREAL

Mr. Weyland D. Sears of 234 Central avenue is in Montreal, Canada, attending a Psychiatric convention. He left by plane on Sunday.

BIRTHDAY VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwartz and young daughter, Carol Lee, are arriving this week-end from their home in Bay City, Michigan, for a week's visit with Mrs. Schwartz' parents, the W. E. Gamrons of 431 S. Sheridan road. They will be here in time to celebrate Mrs. Schwartz' birthday on Saturday.

APPROACHING WEDDING

Trinity church will be the scene of the wedding of Miss Isabel Cawston Ross, daughter of Mrs. Alexander Ross of Buffalo, New York, and Alan Reed Lillie son of the Albert R. T. Lillies of 901 Ridgewood drive, on Saturday, June 18, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Charles U. Harris will perform the ceremony. A reception will follow at the Highland Park Woman's club.

Mrs. Jack Pierce of Buffalo, New York, will attend the bride as matron of honor and the Misses Joan Lillie, sister of the bridegroom and Marie Nelson of Chicago will be the bridesmaids.

William Sheahan of Highland Park, cousin of the bridegroom, will serve as best man and Robert French of St. Paul, Minnesota and Theodore Le Maire of Oak Park will usher.

The bridegroom-to-be's aunt, Mrs. Earl Sheahan of Berkeley road, Mrs. Harold Glandt of Grandview avenue and Mrs. Herbert Glandt of Elmhurst recently entertained at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Ross.

LEAVING FOR SUN VALLEY

Miss Bernice Abercromby of 452 Lincoln avenue will leave on Monday for Sun Valley, Idaho, for the summer.

HOME FROM FLORIDA

Mrs. James Allen Turner and daughter, Mary Beth, of 325 Central avenue have returned from Oakland, Florida, where they spent the past three months. Her daughter, Jan Ann, joined them there for her spring holiday from school.

Mrs. Turner's mother, Mrs. Charles Frederick Mather-Smith, formerly of Highland Park, was married on April 26 to Milo Frederic McAlpin of New York City. Only immediate members of the families attended the ceremony which took place in the bride's Florida home.

WIN ART AWARDS

Edgar B. Carter of 2092 S. Sheridan Road won second place in the oil painting division of an art exhibition held last week at Abbott Laboratories, North Chicago, by the Abbott art group. Eighty-four pieces by 23 members of Abbott Artists were on display.

Charles S. Downs of Waukegan, formerly of Highland Park, Abbott advertising manager, and Bert Ray of Ravinia, Abbott art director, judged the exhibition. They divided the entries into two groups: oil paintings in one, and water colors, pastels and pen and ink sketches in the other. The winners of oil paintings were Helene Tzitsikas, Waukegan, first; Edgar B. Carter, second; Stanley Boberg, Waukegan, third; and Ed Twentymen, Waukegan, honorable mention.

A. D. Brush of 18 Dale avenue, director of vocational service, and Paul Heerens of Lake Bluff, manager of the personnel department, are the club advisers. They are assisted by Dr. Hazel Hodges of 1730 Pleasant avenue and Dr. Everett.

Miss Tzitsikas is general chairman of the artists; Mr. Boberg chairman of the planning committee, and Richard Crook of 417 McDaniels avenue, publicity.

RENTZ-NORRLEN WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Anne Rentz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rentz of Libertyville, and Edward Harry Norrlen, son of the A. E. Norrlens of 849 Ridgewood drive, took place on Saturday, May 21, at the Bethany Evangelical church at 4 O'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Lester Laubenstein heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride's dress was of white dotted swiss. The large white straw picture hat she wore was trimmed with a face veil which was tied in a bow at her throat. Her corsage was of white orchids.

The bridegroom's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mathe of 611 Central avenue attended the couple. Mrs. Mathe's pale pink linen dress was complemented by a corsage of roses, a deeper shade of pink than her dress.

Dinner at the Fireside for the bridal party followed the ceremony. After a week's honeymoon at the Wisconsin Dells, the young couple will reside on Funston avenue, Highwood.

BACK HOME

Mrs. Elsie Hunter of Burton avenue and her mother, Mrs. J. Blomdahl of Broadview avenue, have returned from a week spent in Colorado. They visited with Mrs. Hunter's son, Charles, who is a student at the University of Colorado in Boulder.

Mrs. Albert Larson of 133 S. Green Bay road, who was in Springfield, Missouri, visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, the James W. Kents, was called home due to the illness of her husband. Mr. Larson, who underwent an operation at the Highland Park hospital on Friday, is now much improved.

The Kents, who are going to Boston, Massachusetts and New York City early in June, will arrive next week for a few days, en-route. Their twin sons, Brad and Cal, will remain with their grandparents in Highland Park while the Kents are in the East. In Boston, they will visit with Mrs. Kent's brother and sister-in-law, the Bradford Larsons, and their young son, Kent, and baby daughter, Susan.

HERE FOR WEDDING

House guests of the Elroy Langills of Lincoln avenue are Mrs. Langill's sister, Mrs. Carl Wittekind and daughter, Miss Gloria, of Pelham Manor, New York. They were here to attend the Morrissey-Langill wedding last Saturday. They plan to return East today.

BAPTISED

The infant son of the J. P. McHugh of 1356 Broadview avenue, was baptised John Patrick, Jr. on Sunday, at the Immaculate Conception church. Sponsors for the baby were James Dewey of Lake Forest, maternal uncle, and Mrs. Francis Naeger of Milwaukee, cousin of Mr. McHugh.

A family party followed the ceremony at the McHugh home.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

A marriage of interest to many Highland Parkers is that of Miss Dorothy-Mae Straight, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Straight of Chicago, and Kenneth Gordon Olson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Olson (Lillian Redine, former Highland Park) of Berwyn. The wedding took place on Saturday, May 14, at the Humboldt Park Gospel Tabernacle at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. A reception at the Tabernacle followed.

Donald Redine of Highland Park served his cousin as best man. The bridegroom's sisters, Grace and Marion, were among the bride's attendants.

VISITING IN GERMANY

On Sunday morning August Meyer of 494 Sheridan place left by plane from Chicago for Germany. Besides his mother, Mrs. Agnes Meyer, 82, he will visit with sisters, brothers and relatives in Hanover and Munich. He also plans a trip to Amberg, Germany, to visit his wife's mother, Mrs. Barbara Kleindinst. He will be gone one month.
