BETROTHAL ANNOUNCED

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Robert W. Chambers of Barrington, Rhode Island, announce the engagement of their daughter, Rosamond Wainwright, to Mr. William Edward Davis, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. Claude Davis of Tucson, Arizona.

Miss Rogers, a granddaughter of Dr. Daniel W. Rogers, who practiced for many years in Highland Park and a grand-niece of General Jonathon Mayhew Wainwright, is a former student of the Barrington schools, a graduate of St. Anne's Episcopal school, Charlottesville, Virginia, and a member of the class of 1950 of Smith college, Northampton, Massachusetts.

Mr. Davis attended the University of Arizona and was a member of Delta Chi fraternity. After two years' service in the Naval Medical corps during the war, he entered Columbia university, where he is now a third year student in the College of Physicians and Surgeons and a member of the medical fraternity, Nu Sigma Nu.

Miss Rogers, who has been prominent in the musical activities of Smith college, is a member of the Glee club, the Chamber Singers and the Octavians and has been accepted as a choral student of the Boston Symphony Orchestra in its summer music festival at Tanglewood, near Lenox, Massachusetts.

No date has as yet been set for the wedding.

EUROPEAN TRIP PLANNED

The Misses Jane and Kate Becker, daughters of the James H. Beckers of 333 Maple avenue, will spend eight weeks this summer in Europe. Each will live with a European family, chosen by an organization known as Experiment in International Living. About 450 highschool and college girls, in groups of ten, are being sponsored by this organization.

Jane will leave on the "Vuland" on June 27 with a college group of girls. She will reside with a French family. Her sister, Kate, plans to leave on July 7, aboard the "Tabinta". The group she leaves with is of highschool age. She will live in Switzerland.

VALERIE VETTER WEDS

Bethany Evangelical church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Valerie Vetter, daughter of the Arthur E. Vettors of 556 Detamble avenue, and Herman J. Koelper, Jr., son of the senior Koelpers of Wheeling. The Rev. Lester Laubenstein heard the exchange of nuptial vows at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, Saturday, June 18.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown. Her full skirt ended in a train and with her veil she wore a beaded tiara. Her flowers were white carnations and stephanotis. Mrs. Daniel Vetter (Helen Kee) of Northbrook, sister-in-law of the bride, acted as matron of honor. She wore an aqua frock and carried red carnations. She wore the same flowers in her hair, also. The Misses Ruth Koelper, sister of the bridegroom, Lois Marks and Virginia Meierhoff were bridesmaids. They were in aqua and the carnations in their hair and those in their bouquets were yellow.

Robert Koelper served his brother as best man, and Leonard Koelper, another brother, Daniel Vetter, brother of the bride, and Don Koelper, nephew of the bridegroom, ushered.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Lynn Meyer of Little Chute, Wisconsin, sang "At Dawning", "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer". Mrs. Laubenstein accompanied at the organ.

The mother of the bride chose a dress of toast colored lace, complemented by a corsage of pink and white carnations. The bridegroom's mother was in a black and white print dress and her corsage was of white carnations.

The maternal grandmothers of the bride and bridegroom were at the head of the table at the reception, held at the Wheeling Gym, following the ceremony. About three hundred attended.

After a honeymoon in Northern Wisconsin, the young couple will reside at the home of the bride's parents.

HOME FROM NEW YORK

The M. M. Kutzers of 1978 S. Sheridan road have returned from New York. They attended the wedding of a niece of Mr. Kutzer. Both trips were made by plane.

JANE STRAUB, A BRIDE

Gowned in white satin and fingertip veil of tulle and carrying white gladioli centered with white orchids, Miss Jane Ione Straub became the bride of Robert W. Cary of Inglewood, California, on Saturday, June 11, at 8: p.m. at the Presbyterian church, the Rev. Dr. William A. Young reading the service. The bride is the daughter of the George W. Straubs of 2360 Lakeside place.

Mrs. Thomas Green of Chicago, as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, the Misses Shirley Anderson of Evanston, Virginia Knox and Suzanne Olmsted of Highland Park and Jean Rodell of Minneapolis, Minnesota, wore pale green taffeta gowns and carried flame colored gladioli made in the form of a horseshoe. Gladioli of the same shade were worn in their hair. Susan Wendel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wendel of Winona avenue, cousin of the bride, acted as flower girl.

Best man was Thomas Green and the ushers were John Straub, brother of the bride, Dr. Wendel, her uncle, Delver Dever of Highland Park and Charles Erskine of Lake Forest.

The bride's mother wore beige crepe and lavender orchids and the bridegroom's mother, who arrived from California a week before the wedding with her son, was in black lace. Her corsage was like that of the bride's mother.

Enroute to California where they will live, Mr. Cary and his bride are stopping at Yellowstone, Jackson Hole and other points of interest.

LEAVING FOR TOPEKA

To-day, Miss Donna Reid, daughter of the Harry M. Yeagers of Northbrook road, will leave for Topeka, Kansas, where she will spend two weeks visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Reid.

PACE-WERHANE WEDDING

Miss Theresa Agnes Pace, daughter of the Charles Paces of 1016 Fort Sheridan avenue, became the bride of Lorenz Werhane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Werhane of 25 Deerfield place on Saturday, June 18, at 10:30 o'clock in the morning at St. James church, Highwood. The Rev. James Gleeson performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white lace over satin made with a long train. Her fingertip veil fell from a bonnet of tulle trimmed with seed pearls. She carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Karl Meyer, sister of the bride. Her frock was of pale blue and her bouquet was made up of carnations tinted to match her dress, and bachelor buttons.

Edward Sheahan served as best man and Verne Moon ushered.

The bride's mother wore navy blue. Her hat and accessories were pink and her corsage was of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother was in navy blue and white print complemented by a white hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

A breakfast at the Deerpath in Lake Forest followed the ceremony and at 4: p.m. a reception, also at the Deerpath, was held. About 150 attended.

"WELCOME HOME" PARTY

Last Tuesday evening friends from Highland Park, Des Plaines, Oak Park and Palos Heights gathered for a "welcome-home" party in honor of J. William Schmidley, who is visiting his parents, the O. J. Schmidleys of N. Second street. Mr. Schmidley recently completed his master's degree in German at the University of Oklahoma, where he also taught for the past two years.

Bill will leave shortly to join his wife at her parents' home in Washington, Pennsylvania. In the fall they will move to Madison, Wisconsin, where he will teach in the department of modern languages, while working toward his doctor's degree.

ALAN LILLIE TAKES A BRIDE

On Saturday, June 18, Miss Isabel Cawston Ross, daughter of Mrs. Alexander Ross of Collins, New York, became the bride of Alan Reed Lillie, son of the Albert R. Lillies of 901 Ridgewood drive, at Trinity church. The 4: p.m. ceremony was read by the Rev. Charles U. Harris.

With her gown of white marquisette over taffeta, the bride wore a fingertip veil caught to a halo headdress. Her flowers were Amazon lilies.

Mrs. Jack Pierce acted as matron of honor, and the Misses Joan Lillie, sister of the bridegroom, and Marie Nelson of Chicago, were bridesmaids. Mrs. Pierce wore a pink taffeta and marquisette gown and her bouquet was of pink Esther Reed daisies. The Misses Lillie and Nelson were in pale green taffeta and marquisette and their flowers were yellow Esther Reed daisies.

William Sheahan, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man and Robert French of St. Paul and Theodore Le Maire of Oak Park ushered.

The bride's mother was in grey with white accessories. Her corsage was of cymbetium orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore light blue complemented by a pink hat. Her corsage was like that of Mrs. Ross.

The young couple is now honeymooning at Cape Cod. When they return after July 4, they will make their home in Ravinia.

VISITING IN NORFOLK

Miss Virginia Martin, daughter of the George L. Martins of 8 Beech lane, is in Norfolk, Virginia, visiting with her sister, Mrs. James Farnum (Betty Martin). Before she returns home she and Mrs. Farnum plan a trip to Washington, D. C., Williamsburg and other points of interest.

Mr. Farnum of the United States Navy, is at present at sea.

KOHN-BEARDSLEY NUPTIALS

The marriage of Miss Joan Ranson Beardsley and Walter C. Kohn, Jr. took place on Tuesday, June 14, at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon at Trinity chapel. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jane Beardsley of Claremont, California and Bruce Beardsley of Santa Barbara. The bridegroom is the son of senior Kohns of 1006 S. Linden avenue.

The bride's gown was of white embroidered organdy. Her elbow length veil hung from a peaked cap of lace and veiling. Her bouquet was of white gladioli and baby orchids.

The bride's sister, Virginia, in pale blue embroidered organdy and carrying cornflowers and yellow daisies, acted as maid of honor. Her headdress was a cap of cornflowers.

Northern Illinois Research Considers Cookies...

...and Cyclotrons

Synchro-cyclotron being installed by Institute for Nuclear Studies, University of Chicago, at a cost of $2,200,000.

EACH year, educational institutions in Chicago and Northern Illinois undertake millions of dollars worth of research for industry. The varied projects range from cookies (Northern Illinois is a great food processing center) to cyclotrons (Northern Illinois has the largest private enterprise in the world for the study of atomic science).

In an age of rapid technological change, teamwork between education and industry is of major importance to the industries of Chicago and Northern Illinois. Industry provides funds, both for basic and applied research. It also furnishes a vast array of facts developed in industry's own laboratories. Educational institutions provide the trained scholars and scientists, the facilities, and the objective viewpoint vital to research. Important, also, are the unparalleled library facilities of Northern Illinois, for today library research is a basic prerequisite to successful and economical endeavor in every scientific field.

This research partnership in Northern Illinois has already been fruitful. New and improved products and processes helped arm America during the war. They have aided the record outpouring of peacetime goods and services since the war. Every user of goods has benefited by the improved quality and lower production costs that have resulted from research.

As the volume of research sponsored by industry in educational institutions is growing almost daily, it is inevitable that it will continue to yield impressive dividends in Northern Illinois.

Northern Illinois' unique combination—a great educational center and a major manufacturing community—makes the region increasingly attractive to forward-looking industrialists. It is the growth area of the nation.
