BARBARA WRIGHT, A BRIDE

The Presbyterian church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Barbara Ashley Wright, daughter of the William Ryer Wrights of 1121 Lincoln avenue, and William Galey Vetterlein, of Charlotte, North Carolina, son of Mrs. Harry Weston of Jackson Hole, Wyoming and Theodore Vetterlein of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on Friday, June 24, at 4 p.m. The Rev. Dr. William A. Young heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Vance Wiley Torbert of Short Hills, New Jersey, was gowned in white de soie made with a shirred bodice and full hooped skirt. Bow knots trimmed the skirt and long train. The short tulle veil she wore fell from a net Queen Anne headdress trimmed with lilies of the valley. Her bouquet was of gardenias, white gladioli and lilies of the valley.

The bride's sister, Mrs. William J. Yates of Charlotte, matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Louis De Lone, Jr. of Pinehurst, North Carolina, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Henry H. Hixson of Highland Park, cousin of the bride; and Mrs. Robert Moseley of Deerfield, were gowned alike in powder blue. They all carried peach colored gladioli and wore the same flowers in their hair. The matron of honor's bouquet and her headdress differed slightly from the others in that gladioli of a paler shade were worked in with the peach colored ones.

Theodore H. Vetterlein of Barrington, Rhode Island, served his brother as best man and William T. Galey, III, cousin of the bridegroom, Philip A. Castner and Henry Gadsden, all of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Louis De Lone, Jr. and Robert Russell of Park Ridge, and William Yates of Charlotte ushered.

The bride's mother chose a leaf green chiffon gown for her daughter's wedding. Ashes of roses net trimmed the brown hat she wore. Her corsage was of green orchids. The bridegroom's mother, who was in powder blue crepe, lace trimmed, wore a brimless hat trimmed with pink, blue and violet flowers. Her corsage was of orchids.

A reception at the Exmoor Country club followed the ceremony.

After a trip through the south, Mr. Vetterlein and his bride will make their home in Charlotte.

The Haven took over undisputed possession of first place last Thursday night by edging the 19th Hole, 3-2.

Ed "Moe" Weil gave up 14 hits to the losers, but kept them well scattered in gaining first place for the Haven. However, it was the timely and very powerful hitting of Jack Stroud, who slammed two home runs to account for all the Haven scores, that saved the game for Weil.

Stroud opened the fifth inning with his first homer of the night. The 19th Hole came back in their half of the fifth to tie the score on a home run by Jim Jennings. The 19th Hole took a 2-1 lead in the sixth inning on hits by Heinrichs, Thomson and Fay.

In the Haven half of the seventh, Bob Rasmussen led off with a single to right. After two outs, Stroud blasted his second home run over the center fielders head. The 19th Hole failed to score in the last three innings giving the Haven a 3-2 victory, and first place in the league.

Russells got two runs in the sixth, and three more in the seventh.

Fell's Shutout V.F.W.

In other games played last Thursday night in the 16 inch league, sponsored by the Highland Park Recreation Department, Fell's scored a 10-0 win over the cellar dwelling V.F.W.

Fell's took a 4-0 lead in the first inning and coasted to their third win of the season. The defeat dropped the V.F.W. deeper into the cellar.

Western Electric moved into a tie for third place by turning back Flocchi's, 10-1. The defeat was the third of the season for Flocchi's compared to two victories. Western Electric has now won two games while dropping three.

Summer Sports Section At Library

Mary K. Browne's excellently illustrated Design for Tennis is one of the latest books in the tennis field, and should prove a boon to those looking for a very careful exposition of the easy way to play the game. It is now available at the Highland Park Public Library in the summer sports section.

Another newly acquired publication in the field is Jack Kramer's How To Win at Tennis. Tennis fans will of course be familiar with the author who has won all the amateur honors and the world's professional championship, and they will appreciate that he has come up the hard way and feels deeply obligated to place his knowledge at the disposal of younger players through exhibitions, clinic and print. Chapters in this book advise on training, tactics, attitudes, and practice. One section discusses possible tennis futures for the fairly competent player. U. S. Lawn Tennis Association rules, lists of champions, and a glossary are found in the appendix.
