Do You Like Tasty Food?

Highland Park's New Speedway!

Like country style food at its abundant best, Highland Parkers?

Like tasty fried chicken with smooth mashed potatoes and gravy?

And a roquefort salad?

And homemade bread . . . and pie?

Well, if you do, we strongly recommend Shady Lane Farm, a delightful spot, 50 miles west of Highland Park and just three miles outside Marengo, Illinois.

Graciously run by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bryan, this quaint farm is really pleasant, Highland Parkers, and you'll find the food delicious.

Although we've not attended the Shady Lane Theater, also on the spacious, restful grounds, experts tell us its among the best of Illinois' growing summer theaters. The resident company, we're told, is all professional. And they really know how to entertain.

Yes, a pleasant ride through some beautiful country takes you to Shady Lane Farm. Then, large helpings of wonderful, home-cooked food for dinner. Then an entertaining play in a unique, church-like barn.

That's Shady Lane Farm!

HIGHLAND PARK'S NEW SPEEDWAY! . . . So . . . Highland Park now has its own speedway . . . Know where it is? It's Green Bay Road—from Central Avenue south to County Line Road. The PRESS has watched cars and trucks racing along this speedway for the past month. The other day we clocked a car doing 70! Despite Highland Park's able and vigilant police force, speeders continue to zoom down Green Bay Road with reckless abandon. WE LOVE OUR CHILDREN—PLEASE DRIVE SAFELY! The PRESS saw that sign on the outskirts of western Illinois town over the weekend. It's a sign with meaning. A precious life can be destroyed in an instant by a careless driver behind a 100 horsepower engine. Caution! Slow down! Remember! It's smart to drive safely at all times! TENTHOUSE THEATER NOTES . . . "Best play I've ever seen!" That was a typical comment from veteran first nighters who had just seen "The Heiress", by far the best offering of the Tenthouse Players to date. Each of the stars did an outstanding job.

And Marrian Walters and Barnard Hughes once again proved that they are among the best on the stage today. "Belvedere" is this week's attraction. Barnard Hughes, who has already been signed for the 1950 Tenthouse Theater, takes the lead with Marrian Walters and Donald Curtiss also in the star spots. Highland Parkers are wise indeed to encourage the Tenthouse Players for they are, by far, the best of all in Illinois' Summer Theaters!

Librarian Attends Conference

Miss Cora Hendee, librarian of the Highland Park Public Library, is spending this week at the University of Chicago Graduate Library School attending a conference on the report of the Public Library Inquiry. This inquiry was organized with a $175,000 grant from the Carnegie Corporation in March, 1947 under the general direction of Robert D. Leigh. It is hoped that as a result of this study, questions such as these will be answered: How adequately is the public library meeting the public's need? Who uses the library, who does not, and why? Are present-day libraries geared to a modern society?

The Haven Clings To Softball Lead

By Ray Geraci

The Haven will face the 19th Hole in a twilight game tonight (Thursday) at Sunset Park. The Haven made it three straight in the second round last Thursday by defeating the VFW, 6-3.

Both teams pounded out 16 hits, but it was the Haven's ability to hit when men were on the bases that was the deciding factor.

In a game played under protest by the 19th Hole, Fell's handed the 19th its first defeat of the second round, knocking them into a second place tie. The score was 13-10. The game was marked by both free hitting and run scoring.

Tonight Fell's faces the VFW in a night game starting at 8:45 p.m.

Fiocchi's Rout Russells

Fiocchi's won its second game in four starts in the second round by routing Russells last week, 11-4. Fiocchi's opened the game with a seven run barrage in the first inning. Russell's scored two runs in their half of the first, but were never in the game after the first inning.

Tonight Fiocchi's faces Western Electric in a twilight game at Sunset Park starting at 7 p.m.

Western Electric won its third game in four starts in the second round last Thursday by handing Monarchs an 8-5 setback. A four run blast in the eighth inning was the margin of victory for Electric who were trailing 5-4 at the time.

The defeat was the second for the Monarchs who have won only one game in the second round.

Russell's and Monarchs will meet tonight in a twilight game at Sunset Park.
