WRITZ-NIZZI NUPTIALS

Miss Regina Ann Writz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Writz of Athens, Wisconsin, and Joseph N. Nizzi, son of the John Nizzis of 230 McDaniels avenue, were united in marriage at the Immaculate Conception church on Saturday, August 6, at 9 o'clock in the morning. The Rev. O'Connell heard the exchange of nuptial vows at the ceremony, performed on the birthday of the bridegroom.

The bride was lovely in a seed pearl trimmed ivory satin gown made with long lily sleeves and ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil, which belonged to the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Sylvester Reitmeyer, fell from a beaded Juliet cap. She carried white gladioli and an orchid. Her father gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Reitmeyer attended the bride as matron of honor. Her dress was made of gold, silver and pale blue checked lumina cloth. Mrs. Benjamin Writz, bridesmaid, who was married to the bride's brother the Saturday before, wore a frock of aqua blue marquisette.

Each carried a garland of yellow straw flowers and yellow gladioli.

Miss Maria Santi sang. Sylvester Reitmeyer, who was to serve Mr. Nizzi as best man, was unable to be present because of illness. Benjamin Writz ushered.

The bride's mother was in navy blue, complemented by a grey hat and accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a sheer print for her son's wedding. Her straw colored hat was trimmed with yellow roses matching her corsage.

A reception was held at the Reitmeyer home at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Following a honeymoon trip to White Pine Forest, Illinois, Mr. Nizzi and his bride will reside at 230 McDaniels avenue.

VISITING HERE

Mrs. John J. Laurie and daughters, Donna Jill and Janet Lynn, of Springfield, Illinois, are visiting in Highland Park. They are dividing their time between Mrs. Laurie's parents, the Astor Bensons of 630 S. St. Johns avenue and Mr. Laurie's parents, the John Lauries of Roger Williams avenue.

Captain Laurie, who is at present training for a two weeks' period with the National Air Guard in Springfield, plans to join his wife and family here later. They will remain until about September 1.

BACK FROM OZARKS

On Tuesday Miss Margaret Church of 362 Laurel avenue, Miss Edith Ringdahl of 347 Hazel avenue and Miss Lillian Tucker of 519 Oakwood avenue, returned from a ten day trip to the Ozarks. On Saturday they were luncheon guests of Mrs. James W. Kent (Lois Larson) of Springfield, Missouri, and on Sunday they were dinner guests of the Misses Dora and Luella Stenson of Mountain Home, Arkansas, former Highland Parkers.

WISCONSIN VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Harris, son Tom, and daughter, Judy, of 1001 N. St. Johns avenue left last Friday for a vacation at Lake Tomahawk, Wisconsin. They will be home about August 15.

SUZANNE MILLER, A BRIDE

On Saturday, August 6, the wedding of Miss Suzanne Miller and John Manning took place at St. Ita's church, Chicago, at 11 o'clock in the morning. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Walter J. Miller of 1721 S. Green Bay road and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Leo J. Manning of Huron, S. Dakota.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Dr. Charles T. Esdale, wore a gown of white lace over taffeta, which ended in a long train. The bouquet she carried was of gardenias and stephanotis. Her headdress was of stephanotis.

The bride's attendants were gowned alike in white organdy over pink taffeta. The bridesmaids' colonial bouquets were of pink roses and white carnations with tiaras of matching flowers in their hair. The maid of honor's bouquet and the flowers in her hair were all pink. Miss Frances Fox was maid of honor and the Misses Marilyn Carr and Jeanne Hartnett of Chicago and Miss Mary Ellen Manning of Huron,

South Dakota, attended as bridesmaids.

Clark Steele of Minneapolis, Minnesota, served the bridegroom as best man and Kenneth Lemke, Gerald McNichols and Frank Novak, all of Chicago, ushered. The bride's mother wore aqua and the bridegroom's mother was in beige. Each wore an orchid. The bride's grandmother was in black and her corsage was of talisman roses.

A reception followed the wedding in the Pompeian Room of the Orrington hotel.

Out of town guests included the R. J. Ungers and daughter, Joy, and son, Reno, of Memphis, Tennessee, uncle, aunt and cousins of the bride; and Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Anderson and Dr. and Mrs. Robert McGrew of Minneapolis, Minnesota, relatives of the bridegroom. Following a honeymoon in Kenora, Ontario, Canada, Mr. Manning and his bride will reside in Wilmette.

Too hot to sleep? Get a Night Cooling Fan!

How a night cooling fan works:

It pulls out stored-up heated air, while cool night air is drawn in through opened windows. The gently moving, cool air absorbs heat and evaporates perspiration ... you feel cooler immediately!

Don't let the heat rob you of your rest ... get a night cooling window fan! This modern method of ventilation is an easy, economical way to bring cooling breezes into your house or apartment. A window fan will quietly and efficiently drive out the hot, humid air accumulated during the day ... and draw in pleasant, cool night air. You'll sleep better and feel better ... find out about a night cooling fan today!

A type for every apartment or house!

For the apartment, an easily-installed window fan or a portable model to be set up in front of the window is ideal. The permanently installed attic type is recommended for home owners.

Night cooling fans are perfect for business, too. Investigate their low-cost advantages for your store, shop or office.
