NANCY HOLT, A BRIDE

A very pretty wedding took place at the Presbyterian church on Saturday, August 13, when Miss Nancy Agnes Holt became the bride of William P. Wells. The 7:30 p.m. ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Dr. William A. Young. Herbert Holt, Jr. escorted his sister to the altar where their father gave her in marriage. The bride is the daughter of the H. E. Holts of 1330 Judson avenue and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Wells of Bay City, Michigan.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white embroidered organdy, made with a long train. Her fingertip veil fell from a braided tulle halo. Her bouquet was of white roses centered with a white orchid.

The bride's attendants were gowned alike in pale yellow. The bouquet of the maid of honor was Imperial daisies and Fucie chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids carried yellow daisies and wore matching headbands. Miss Marian Carlton of Cleveland, acted as maid of honor. Mrs. John Caulkins of Grosse Pointe, Michigan, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Charles Wells of Bay City, his sister-in-law; Miss Frances Grimes of 1104 Lincoln avenue and Miss Nancy Neumann of Birmingham, Michigan, attended as bridesmaids.

Charles Wells served his brother as best man and the ushers were David Holt, brother of the bride; William Chickering, John E. Caulkins; William Hibbard, Robert Hirschfield, James Nordlie, Philip Smith and Richard Strickland, all of Michigan; and Clark Pardee of Chicago.

Mrs. H. N. Finch was organist. The bride's mother chose a gown of steel blue, complemented by an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was in pale blue. She, too, wore an orchid.

A reception at the Georgian hotel, Evanston, followed the ceremony.

Mr. Wells and his bride, who left by plane for Bermuda for a two weeks' honeymoon, will reside in Detroit.

VISITING SISTER IN NEW YORK

Miss Anne Alders of 644 Vine avenue is in New York visiting her brother-in-law and sister, the John Clarks of Binghamton. When she returns, Mrs. Clark (Rita Alders) and son, Jay, will accompany her for a visit here with her parents.

REV. HOSTO TAKES A BRIDE

On Sunday, August 14, the St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church, where the bridegroom is pastor, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Ruth Meyer, daughter of the August Meyers of 494 Sheridan place, and the Rev. Roland William Hosto, Jr., son of the Rev. and Mrs. Roland W. Hosto of Mendota, Illinois. The bridegroom's father heard the exchange of nuptial vows at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride's gown of white lace, which ended in a long train, was the same one worn by her sister, Mrs. Arthur Barr of Madison, Wisconsin, four years ago the same day. Her embroidered veil was full length. She carried white roses.

Gowned in pink and carrying a bouquet of blue gladioli, Mrs. Barr (Norma Meyer) attended her sister as matron of honor. Her three year old daughter, Beverly Barr, in a long blue gown and carrying a colonial bouquet of mixed flowers, preceded the bride down the aisle, as flower girl.

The bridegroom's cousin, who was soloist, was accompanied at the organ by James Varney.

Mrs. Meyer wore an oyster colored gown for her daughter's wedding and the bridegroom's mother was in black. Each had a corsage of red roses.

Robert Hosto of Mendota served his brother as best man and Karl Meyer, brother of the bride, and Clarence Varney ushered.

A reception at the Woman's club followed the ceremony. Over three hundred attended.

MARGARET JOHNSTON MARRIES

At a ceremony in the garden of her parents' home at 505 Waverly avenue, Saturday, August 13, at 4:30 p.m., Miss Margaret Elizabeth Johnston, daughter of the S. Parker Johnstons, exchanged marriage vows with Horton Johnson, son of Mrs. Homer H. Johnson of Kenilworth and the late Mr. Johnson. The Rev. Dr. William A. Young read the service.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, was gowned in white lace. She wore a long veil and her bouquet was of white roses.

Mrs. Allan C. Dewey of Cleveland, Ohio, who attended her sister as matron of honor, wore yellow and carried red roses. Mrs. Benjamin Hair, of Winnetka, another sister, and Mrs. Charles J. Whipple, Jr., also of Winnetka, were bridesmaids. Mrs. Hair's frock was green and the roses she carried were yellow. Mrs. Whipple was in pale lavender and her flowers, too, were yellow roses.

Homer Johnson, Jr. of Kenilworth served his brother as best man and Budd Channer of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, and Charles J. Whipple, Jr. ushered.

Miss Helen Taylor played the wedding march.

The bride's mother wore light pink and the bridegroom's mother was in bright pink. Each wore an orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Roycemore and Wellesley. Mr. Johnson attended Lake Forest academy and served with the army in England during the recent war.

A reception in the garden followed the ceremony.

After a two weeks' honeymoon at Lake Tahoe, California, Mr. Johnson and his bride will live in Evanston.

"Say... Baths ain't so bad when the water's always hot"

...enjoy an Electric Water Heater!

When Junior takes kindly to bathing... it's news! And, it's a sure sign that water in his house is heated electrically... automatically! When there's always plenty of hot water on tap, even the younger generation finds it easy to keep clean.

The comfort and convenience of abundant hot water is automatically yours when you have an electric water heater of proper size. Dishwashing, cleaning, and bathing are easier and more pleasant when you can count on having plenty of hot water all day, every day. And you'll find abundant hot water is important for the proper operation of your automatic washer and dishwasher.

The gleaming white heater can be installed in your kitchen or playroom as easily as in the basement.

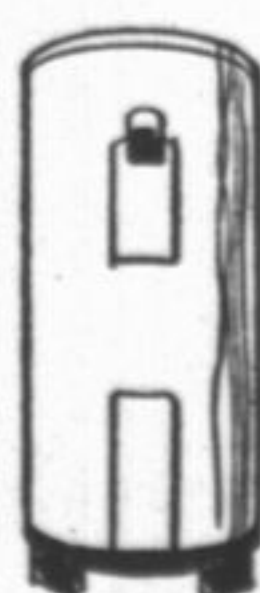

The outside of an automatic electric water heater stays clean and cool because thick insulation completely seals in the heat like a thermos bottle.
