

THIS WEEK ... IN HIGHLAND PARK

BY ALICE ZABEL

Telephone Highland Park 2861

HOME SOON FROM EUROPE

After spending the summer touring England, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, Italy, Germany, France and the Scandinavian countries, Miss Edith Tucker of 515 Oakwood avenue is expected home this week-end. Miss Tucker and friends from Oak Park left the tour in Paris and went on to Copenhagen where they spent two weeks before returning to London. Miss Tucker, who left London on September 9, arrived in Quebec on Sunday. After a few days in New York she will return home.

HERE TO ATTEND SON'S WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Brewner and daughter, Miss Betty, of Eldorado, Illinois, were recent guests of another daughter and her husband, the Harry M. Yeagers of 1949 Northmoor road. They were here to attend the marriage of Miss Ruth Biesenthal and their son, James M. Brewner. The wedding was an event of Saturday, September 10 in Park Ridge.

Miss Betty Brewner has returned to her studies at the Northern Illinois State Teachers' college in De Kalb.

VISITS PARENTS

Commander and Mrs. O. W. Goepfner and children, Helen Virginia, 6, and Billy, 3, recently visited the Commander's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne H. Chambers of 130 Roger Williams avenue. They were enroute to Mr. Goepfner's new station at Norfolk, Virginia from the west coast. In California the Commander recently commissioned a ship, the "John R. Pierce".

MOVED TO ALBUQUERQUE

Mrs. Florence Seyl and four children left recently to make their home in Albuquerque, New Mexico. The Seyls had been living with her mother, Mrs. Florence Schmidt of 640 Homewood avenue.

Among the farewell parties before she left was one given by Mrs. Herbert Engstrom and Mrs. Ivan Edgar at Mrs. Engstrom's home, 333 N. St. Johns avenue. Prior to that Mrs. Mae Llewellyn was hostess at luncheon at the Moraine hotel in her honor. Co-workers at the Fort Sheridan Signal office were guests. Co-workers at the Telephone company also honored Mrs. Seyl at a party at the Saratoga.

Mrs. Seyl will be employed at Sandia Base, where Mrs. Mary Olson, a former Highland Park, is chief operator.

WINS ACADEMIC HONOR

One of 21 members of his class to win the academic honor, Michael Klee, of Highland Park, has been named to the Dean's list at Hobart College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Klee, 711 Crofton ave., and is now a sophomore at Hobart.

SINGING STAR

Miss Marie Lawler has a singing engagement at the "Tick Tock" club in Milwaukee, Wisconsin until September 30. She is the daughter of Mrs. Grace Lawler of Highland.

Mrs. Lawler and a friend spent Thursday in Milwaukee to see the show.

NANCY MOULTON AT MONTICELLO

Miss Nancy Moulton, daughter of the Arthur H. Moultons of 384 Oakland drive, has enrolled as a first year student at Monticello college, Alton, Illinois.

MADELINE HAZZ MARRIES

The marriage of Miss Madeline A. Hazz, granddaughter of the Dominic Rizzolos of 1845 Burton avenue, and Angelo Pasquesi, son of the John Pasquesi of 215 Everts place, Highwood, took place on Saturday, September 10, at 10:30 a.m. at St. James church, Highwood. The Rev. James Gleason performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white satin made with a bustle and ending in a long train. The fingertip veil she wore fell from a bonnet headdress trimmed with orange blossoms. The shower bouquet she carried included white roses, lilies of the valley and a white orchid.

The maid of honor, Miss Bernice Pasquesi, sister of the bridegroom, wore white organdy over orchid taffeta. The white organdy bonnet she wore was trimmed with orchid taffeta ribbon, matching her gown. She carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses. Miss Mary Pasquesi, another sister, one of the bridesmaids, wore a frock made like the maid of honor's in white organdy over yellow taffeta. Miss Nancy Smaniotta of Kenosha, another bridesmaid, sister of the bride, wore white organdy over green taffeta. They, too, carried yellow roses.

The little flower girl, Carol Rizzolo, cousin of the bride, was in organdy, made with a yellow bodice and a gored skirt of green and yellow. Her flowers, also, were yellow roses.

Best man was Henry Pasquesi, brother of the bridegroom, and Everett Bellei and Eugene Tagliapietra ushered.

The bride's grandmother was dressed in black and the bridegroom's mother, in green. Each wore a corsage of yellow roses.

A breakfast for the bridal party and the immediate families followed the ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's parents. A dinner was held in the afternoon at St. James hall and in the evening a reception was held at the bridegroom's home.

Following a northern honeymoon, Mr. Pasquesi and his bride will live at 215 Everts place, Highwood.

VISITS HERE

Mrs. Marcus Greer of Louisville, Kentucky, who was visiting with cousins, the Edward Kirshbergs of Glencoe, this past week, was a guest on Sunday of other cousins, the T. J. Zabels of 1348 Broadview avenue.

AT SCHOOL

On Monday, Charles Hunter and Gene Kiley left for Boulder, Colorado, where they will enter their sophomore year.

IRMA LAUE, A BRIDE

On Friday, September 9, the Rev. H. K. Platzer heard the exchange of nuptial vows when Miss Irma Laue became the bride of Sgt. 1/C Valentine Frankie, at a double ring candlelight ceremony in the Redeemer Lutheran church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Laue, Sr. of Greenleaf, Kansas, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mary Frankie of Springfield, Illinois, and the late Casper Frankie.

With her blue satin dress the bride wore a matching hat and short navy blue veil. She carried white roses and gardenias. Her sister, Mrs. Raymond Snow of Fort Sheridan, matron of honor, wore a bronze satin frock and a corsage of yellow roses.

Best man was M/Sgt. Snow, and Melvin Lang of Wheeling and Leonard Eichler ushered. Harry Eichler was organist.

The bridal party and guests were met at the Fort Sheridan gates by the Fort Sheridan band, following the ceremony. A reception was held at the Snow home there.

After a honeymoon in Springfield, Illinois, the young couple will reside at Fort Sheridan. The bridegroom's mother was here for the wedding.

FAMILY REUNION

On Sunday afternoon about one hundred descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frey, pioneer Highland Parkers, gathered at Sunset Park to attend a picnic and family reunion. Among Highland Parkers attending were the C. H. Bierwirths of 1631 Broadview avenue, the William Ernsts of 460 Ridge road, the senior and junior M. M. Katzers of 1978 S. Sheridan road, the Elroy Langills of 437 Lincoln avenue, the E. E. Larsons of 1317 S. St. Johns avenue and the T. J. Zabels of 1348 Broadview avenue.

LEAVES FOR SCHOOL

Yesterday Miss Marcia Riggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Riggs of 2165 Lakeside place, left for the east where she will resume her studies at Dana Hall in Wellesley, Massachusetts.

Her sister, Nancy, returned a week ago to the University of Colorado where she is a student.

NEWS OF FORMER HIGHLAND PARKERS

Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Thorsen of Ridge road were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Scheuchenflog (Mr. and Mrs. "X"), of Coquille, Oregon, former Highland Parkers.

The Dana Corroughs of Stockton, California, former Highland Parkers, also visited with the Schuechenpflugs recently.

Mrs. Nellie Heath of Kansas City, Missouri, and her granddaughter, Miss Jean Heath, Sioux City, Iowa, were recent guests of their granddaughter and sister, and her family, the Bradford Larsons of Boston, Massachusetts. They made both trips by plane.

ABOARD THE USS CORAL SEA

Marine Corporal Hugh L. Peterson, brother of John E. Peterson, N. Central avenue, Highwood, is now serving with the Eighth Marines, aboard the USS Coral Sea, part of the Second Marine Division, permanently stationed at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina. The Eighth Marines, under command of Lt. Colonel A. N. B. Robertson, is presently on duty with Vice Admiral Forrest Sherman's Task Fleet in the Mediterranean area.

Prior to undergoing recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit depot at Terris Island, South Carolina, he enlisted in the Marine Corps on October 4, 1948 at Chicago. He is a former student at Highland Park High school.

VISITING HERE

Mrs. Otto Anschuetz of St. Louis, Missouri, arrived yesterday for a ten day visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Anschuetz of 1352 Broadview avenue.

ATTENDING SOUTHERN ILLINOIS

Joseph Frank Dinelli and Frank Isolo Franzese of Highland Park and Frank Parge and Donald Ubl of Deerfield are attending Southern Illinois university this year.

VISITS IN CRESTON

Miss Carolyn Baird, daughter of the Robert D. Bairds of 20 S. Linden avenue, was a recent guest of Miss Sally Colwill of Creston, Illinois.

BACK HOME

The John H. Eides and infant daughter of 2154 Grove avenue have returned home from a vacation trip to Detroit, Michigan.

APPEAR ON TELEVISION

Mr. J. M. Rich of 801 N. Sheridan Road, and Mr. Bill Edge of 1129 Wade street appeared on television station WGN-TV recently during the "Spell with Isbell" telecast.

Mr. Rich and Mr. Edge were members of the Florsheim Shoe Co. team which competed against a team of five other men from the Florsheim Shoe Co. for the prizes awarded by emcee Harold Isbell.

"Spell with Isbell" is a weekly Wednesday 10:00 P.M. spelling bee conducted by Harold Isbell in which two teams try to outspell each other. Words are sent in by televiewers, with special prizes awarded by Isbell for best word lists submitted.

AT LINDENWOOD COLLEGE

Miss Susan Buchbinder was among the students at Lindenwood college, St. Charles, Missouri, when this college for women opened on September 13.

HIGHLAND PARKERS AT LAWRENCE COLLEGE

Miss Lorraine Hammond, 1726 Pleasant avenue, Miss Kathie Laing, 274 E. Park avenue, Bruce McClure, 583 Central avenue and Miss Jill Moore, 2038 Sheridan road are among the new students who reported to the campus of Lawrence college, Appleton, Wisconsin, on September 15 for a week of orientation before the opening of its school year.

AT UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

Enrolled at the University of Michigan as freshmen are the following Highland Parkers: Mary Eileen McClellan, 738 Marian avenue; Elizabeth Ann Sanders, 280 Linden Park Place; Jay Hill Plotkin, 2751 S. Deere Park Drive; Sanford Richard Robertson, 1835 Broadview ave; Mathilde Rose Saphir, 355 Marshman ave., and Bruce Francoeur Spencer, 6 Ravine Lane. All are enrolled in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts.

ELIZABETH WILDER WEDS

The marriage of Elizabeth Wilder, daughter of Tom and Edna Wilder, formerly of Ravinia, to Donald Weismann, on Monday, September 12, by Dr. Young at the Presbyterian church, was a great surprise to her friends and family.

Elizabeth was the first pupil to start in first grade and graduate from Ravinia school. She was valedictorian of her class at Deerfield High school, and then entered Smith college.

After specializing in Art History at Smith, she graduated and went to Europe on two fellowships to continue her studies in history at first hand for her Master's degree, and remained nearly two years.

Returning, she taught at Smith and later at Westover School for Girls in Connecticut, then entered the Library of Congress in Washington to compile a bibliography called A Guide to the Art of Latin America. During her research she flew to South America, stopping at all the principal cities where material was to be obtained.

Following this, she spent two years in Mexico on Guggenheim fellowships studying Spanish Colonial Art and Sculpture, a year as visiting professor of Art History at Ohio State University, and another year in Mexico on a fellowship from Ohio State U. Mr. Weismann was associated with her during this last year in Mexico.

They will return this week to Columbus, where Mr. Weismann will finish his Ph.D. studies and Mrs. Weismann will put the finishing touches on the manuscript for her forthcoming book, "Spanish Colonial Sculpture", to be published by the Harvard Press.

VISIT DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Bennett of Rockville, Connecticut, spent a few days visiting with their son-in-law and daughter, the Harold N. Finches of 718 S. St. Johns avenue.

The Finches' daughter, Janeth, has returned to Champaign, where she is a student at the University of Illinois.

Ravinia PTA To Hold Annual Dad's Night September 26

The kick-off meeting of the Ravinia P.T.A. will be held September 26th at 8:00 p.m. in the Village House. This will be the second annual Dad's Night, with the father's committee in charge of the evening's program.

The mystery which surrounded last year's meeting, again prevails. The committee wishes to remain anonymous and will not disclose any information concerning their plans. They do promise that the evening will begin with a bang!

Here Find Christian Science

At the nearest Christian Science Reading Room, you will find writings that reveal the Science of Christianity, practiced by Christ Jesus. It makes no difference if the difficulty is sickness, failure, fear, unrest. You - like thousands of others - can find health, happiness, success.

At the Reading Room you may read, borrow, or purchase the Bible and the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, as well as other authorized Christian Science literature.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE READING ROOM 43 NO. SHERIDAN ROAD HIGHLAND PARK OPEN DAILY Visitors Welcome

Information concerning church services, free public lectures, and other Christian Science activities also available.

Advertisement for Bowman Milk featuring a cartoon character and text: GET YOUR MILK FROM BOWMAN BOWMAN MILK is WHOLE milk... At your door; at the store

Large advertisement for North Shore Gas Company featuring a gas range and text: Out with the Old In with the New TRADE IN YOUR OLD STOVE ON A BEAUTIFUL NEW ROPER GAS RANGE Special 10% Trade Allowance For Your Old Stove 10 per cent Down 24 Months to Pay Balance SEE YOUR DEALER, OR NORTH SHORE Gas COMPANY 'THE FRIENDLY PEOPLE'

Advertisement for North Shore Florist and Landscape Service by Jos. Kolbeck, featuring a floral arrangement and contact information: 290 Greenwood Avenue Glencoe, Illinois FLOWERS FOR EVERY OCCASION

Advertisement for electric cooking featuring a bear illustration and text: COOL is the word for ELECTRIC COOKING see the beautiful Modern Ranges at your Public Service Company Store or your local dealer's