Obituaries

Bertacchini

John Bertacchini of 438 Railway avenue, Highwood, was taken by death at his home last Saturday night, at the age of 66, following a long illness.

A native of Modena, Italy, he came to America 40 years ago and had lived in Highwood for over 25 years.

He is survived by his widow, Valenta, and three daughters: Mrs. Albert Bernardi, Highwood city collector, Mrs. Geno Fiochi, and Miss Mary Bertacchini; one son, Anton, and five grandchildren.

Last rites were held Tuesday morning at the Sheridan road chapel, and interment was made in Northshore Garden of Memorials.

Edwards

Funeral services were held at the Trinity Episcopal church on Friday for Mrs. Susan Bushnell Edwards, who passed away the preceding Wednesday at her home on 191 Ravine drive after a short illness.

Born in Ottawa, Illinois, 84 years ago, she had lived in Highland Park for 27 years. She was a member of the Women's Auxiliary of the Trinity church. She was preceded in death by her husband, Rev. John Herbert Edwards, former pastor of the Church of the Holy Spirit in Lake Forest, in 1941. Surviving is one son, William Bushnell Edwards, of Highland Park.

Interment was made in Ottawa, Ill.

Mennenoh

Mr. and Mrs. William Mennenoh, 222 North ave, were called to Tecumseh, Nebraska, by the death of his father, William Frederick Mennenoh, who was killed instantly on Friday, when the car which he was driving was struck by a train. Funeral services were held at Tecumseh on Monday.

Other survivors are another son, Emil, who lives in Iowa, and six step-children.

McNeil

Last rites were held on Monday of this week at the Immaculate Conception church for Mrs. Jane Sullivan McNeil, who passed away the preceding Friday at her home on 213 McDaniels avenue, at the age of 78. Born in Wauconda, she had been a resident of Highland Park for 42 years.

She is survived by her husband, Douglas, and one daughter, Margaret, of the above address.

Interment was made in All Saints cemetery, Des Plaines.

O'Connell

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday morning at the St. James church for Anthony O'Connell, lifelong resident of this city, who was taken by death early last Saturday at the Lake County General hospital, where he had been a patient for over two years. He was 59 years of age.

Formerly living in the home of his sister, the late Mrs. Edwin Frye, for the past five years had made his home with his nephew, Justice of the Peace John P. White and Mrs. White of 374 Bloom street.

Other survivors are a niece, Miss Mary Perryman of this city, and two other nephews, William and Gerald White of Los Angeles, California.

Pasquesi

Last rites were held on Wednesday at St. James church for Mrs. Ida Pasquesi of 220 Everts place, Highwood, who succumbed to a sudden attack on Sunday, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Sassorossi, of Highland Park, where she had spent a week. She had been feeling ill for a short time. Efforts of the inhalator squad failed to revive her.

Born in Italy 33 years ago, she had married Carl Pasquesi there in 1939 while he was visiting in that country. The couple had made their home in Highwood.

Besides her husband she is survived by a daughter, Mary Theresa; three sons, George, Lawrence and Robert, and her sister, Mrs.

Frosh-Soph Tackle Oak Park Huskies In Conference Opener

The Frosh-Soph football squad of Highland Park high school will take to the field for the first time this season Saturday, Sept. 24 as they entertain the Oak Park team in a Suburban Conference game on the local gridiron starting at noon.

The team, as yet, is an unknown quantity and no real line on the boys can be obtained until after this game, except perhaps that they will be an awful tough ball club to beat.

Coach George Grover, along with Dorman Morrison and John Broming, have worked the lads hard for the last two weeks and hope to have them in tip-top shape for the inaugural contest of the 1949 season.

Probable Starting Lineup

According to Coach Grover the following is the probable starting lineup for Saturday's game:

Ends—Walter Benson and Walter Cronkhite.

Tackles—Dave Baum and Marty Rosenthal.

Guards—Dan Herz and Stan
