PATRICIA NALL WEDS

The Winnetka Congregational church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Patricia Ann Nall, daughter of the Elmer Nalls of 2455 N. Deere Park drive, and Matheson Frederick Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lucius Green of Janesville, Wisconsin, on Saturday, September 24, at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Dr. Harkness heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of very heavy white satin, made with a scalloped mandarin neckline and nipped-in waist line. Her fingertip veil of French Illusion over rosepoint lace fell from a small cap. Her bouquet was of Fleurs de Amour.

Miss Adele Mason, who attended the bride as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, the Misses Marguerite Kerber of Highland Park and Joan McCutcheon of Hinsdale, Mrs. Earl Klomp of Highland Park and Mrs. William Spicer of Marseilles, Illinois, were gowned alike in candy green satin made with fitted bodices and very full skirts. The capes and hats they wore matched their gowns. The flowers they carried were Rubrum lilies.

David Green served his brother as best man and Alan Dunwiddie and David N. Francis of Janesville, Rensselaer R. Johnson of Shaker Heights, Ohio and Hoyt McAllister of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, ushered.

The bride's mother chose a cocoa brown crepe and lace gown complemented by a beige feathered hat and orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore slate blue crepe and a velvet calot. She, too, wore an orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Highland Park High school, Milwaukee Downer and the American Academy of Arts, Chicago. Mr. Green is a graduate of Janesville High school, Denison university in Granville, Ohio, and the American Academy of Arts, Chicago. He is now an artist with the Vogue-Wright Studio, Chicago.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

After a two weeks' honeymoon in New York, Mr. Green and his bride are now residing at 48 E. Bellview place, Chicago.

HOME FROM EUROPE

After spending the summer in Europe Mr. and Mrs. George W. Block and sons, Kean and Ronnie, of 211 Vine avenue, have returned home. They traveled in eight European countries stopping at many interesting and historical places.

Kean, who graduated from Highland Park High school in June, is now a freshman at Yale university. Ronnie is a junior at Highland Park High school.

RETURNS TO ALASKA

Mrs. Clifford Willits (Ruth Larson) of Anchorage, Alaska, returned home by plane on Monday night after a three weeks' visit with her parents, the Ray T. Larsons of 322 N. St. Johns avenue. Mrs. Willits left at 11:30 p.m. and was scheduled to arrive in Anchorage the following morning at 11:30.

HOME FROM CANADA

Dr. and Mrs. Roy A. Crossman and son, Roy, Jr., of 712 Yale lane returned home last Saturday from a six weeks' visit with the Doctor's brother and his family in Dorchester, New Brunswick, Canada.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION AND FAMILY REUNION

In celebration of the eightieth birthday of Mr. A. J. Johnson of Deerfield on Sunday, October 2, a party and family reunion will be held at his home. His daughter, Mrs. Edward Koebelin, of Banning, California, has been here for the past several weeks, and on Friday his son, Robert Johnson and his wife and sons, Robert, Jr., two weeks old, and Tom, 2 1/2, of Bowling Green, Virginia, arrived for a two weeks' visit.

Today another son and his wife and daughter, Susan, 3, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, will arrive for a few days' stay.

The John Zenkos of 846 Sunnyside avenue, another daughter, have three children, John, 13, Dick, 10 and Joy, 2. The Zenkos will be hosts tomorrow night at a family dinner party in honor of the wedding anniversary of the Arthur Johnsons of Minneapolis.

EDWIN GILROY TAKES A BRIDE

St. Mary's church in Riverside was the scene of the wedding of Miss Olga Mladkovich and Edwin B. Gilroy on Saturday, September 17, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Lyons heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride's Princess style gown was of white lace and she carried African lilies and orange blossoms. Her short veil fell from a crown of orange blossoms.

The bride's attendants the Misses Dorothy and Sylvia Rudman of Lyons, were gowned alike in dark green lace over lighter green and they wore matching close fitting headpieces. One of the attendants' bouquets was of rust colored chrysanthemums and the other carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Thomas Gilroy served his brother as best man and Michael Gilroy, another brother, ushered.

The bride's mother wore a dress of plum color and grey hat and the bridegroom's mother wore iridescent dark green. Her hat was black. Each wore a corsage of orchids.

The bride, who is the daughter of the Joseph Mladkovichs of Riverside, is a graduate of Riverside-Brookfield High school and Grinnell college. Mr. Gilroy, son of the E. L. Gilroys of 286 Central ave., is a Highland Park High school graduate. He is also a graduate of the University of Minnesota. During the war he served in the states and abroad with the Army Air Corps. At present he is employed by the Commonwealth Edison company as a personnel analyst in the Industrial department.

After a week's honeymoon at Glen Lake, Michigan, Mr. Gilroy and his bride are now residing in Berwyn.

SORORITY PLEDGE

Miss Marilyn Fuller, daughter of the Albert Fullers of 617 Forest avenue, has been pledged to Kappa Alpha Theta sorority at Drake university in Des Moines, Iowa.

Thirty-six Drake women were pledged by the university's seven national sororities following the annual fall rush week.

WISCONSIN WEDDING

When Miss Lenore Lilja, daughter of the Ernest Liljas of Chicago, becomes the bride of John Gensmer of Hartford, Wisconsin, on Saturday, October 1, in Hartford, her aunt, Mrs. C. H. Bierwirth of 1631 Broadway avenue, will attend as matron of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Bierwirth will leave for Hartford this week.

BOWNS-ANDERSON NUPTIALS

On Saturday, September 24, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Wilma L. Bowns of 1211 Livingston avenue became the bride of John W. Anderson at the Highland Park Presbyterian church. The Rev. Dr. William A. Young read the service. Only the immediate families attended. The bride is the daughter of the William Hudsons of Roodhouse, Illinois, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Anderson of 1152 Chestnut avenue, Deerfield.

The bride wore a slate blue slipper satin gown and carried red roses. Mrs. Marshall Meckley, matron of honor, was in navy blue crepe. Her flowers, too, were red roses.

Frank Stuppel of Deerfield served the bridegroom as best man.

Fourteen attended the reception, following the ceremony, at Knotty Pine Inn, in Skokie.

After a wedding trip in northern Wisconsin, Mr. Anderson and his bride will reside at 332 North avenue, Highland Park.

FRESHMEN AT KENYON

Robert K. Belt, Jr. of 1919 S. Sheridan road and David Levinson, Jr. of 619 Bronson lane are freshmen this year at Kenyon college in Gambier, Ohio.

BEVERLY MARIE METT WEDS LAKE FORESTER

The altar of Immaculate Conception Church, was the scene of a lovely wedding last Saturday morning, when Miss Beverly Marie Mett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mett, 1250 Burton Avenue, Highland Park, and Nicholas Cascarano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Cascarano, Sr., of Lake Forest, were united in marriage by the Rev. Bernard E. Burns at a 10:00 o'clock Nuptial Mass.

The bride wore a white slipper-satin gown. Seed pearls garnished the sweetheart neckline of lace. Her coronet finger-tip veil was fastened with Rhinestones, and she carried a shower-bouquet of white roses surrounded by white baby mums.

Mrs. C. F. Jenkins was her sister's matron of honor. Her gown was rose slipper-satin, with matching feather plume headdress. Her bouquet was of pink and white Asthas.

The mother of the bride wore a tiel blue gown with gray accessories, and she wore a corsage of talisman roses.

The groom's mother wore a gown of hunter green with brown accessories, and she wore a corsage of talisman roses.

Donald Cascarano, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Mr. Arnold Maki, and Mr. Anthony Rogondino, all of Lake Forest.

A lovely four-tiered wedding cake centered the table at the dinner-reception held following the ceremony. One hundred and fifty guests attended the reception held at the Deerpath Inn, Lake Forest, Illinois.

Mrs. Cascarano is a graduate of Highland Park High school, and is now Secretary to Mr. W. N. Schultz, President of Northmore's Home Products, located in Highland Park, Ill.

The groom attended Lake Forest High school, and is now a Tech. Sgt. in the United States National Guard.

After the reception, the couple left for a two week motor trip through Northern Michigan and Canada. Following their honeymoon, they will be at home at 126 Laurel Avenue, Lake Forest, Illinois.
