HIGHLAND PARKER TAKES A BRIDE

Miss Gail Whitaker, daughter of the L. W. Whitakers of Manitowoc, Wis., was married to William S. Karger, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Karger, 421 Oakwood ave., Highland Park, Saturday at 11:30 a.m. in the rectory of Holy Innocence church, Manitowoc. The immediate families and a few close friends of the couple attended the ceremony, which was followed by a breakfast in the Lakeside Country club.

A reception was held in the club in the afternoon, after which the couple left for the Whitakers' summer home in Crystal Lake, Wis., to spend a week. Upon their return, they will reside temporarily with the John Eisendraths, 910 Lincoln ave., Highland Park.

The bride wore a white satin faille gown with a draped bustle, long sleeves and a high neckline. She had a braided crown in her hair with a fingertip veil attached. Her bouquet was of white chrysanthemums.

Matron of honor, the bride's sister, Mrs. Richard Towsley of Manitowoc, wore a dress of the same style as the bride's in apple green with a matching braided headpiece. She carried a bouquet of yellow mums. Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Frank Karger of Chicago, formerly of Highland Park.

Healing Restored to Christianity

Through the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, the lost element of spiritual healing is restored for all mankind. The thoughtful study of the Bible in the light of this great book has lifted countless thousands from sickness to health and from failure to success. Such experience is equally available for all.

Visit a Christian Science Reading Room today. Here you may read, borrow, or purchase Science and Health and the Bible, as well as other authorized Christian Science literature.
