WISCONSIN GIRL WEDS ARTHUR DICKELMAN JR.
On Saturday morning, October 5th, at the Immaculate Conception church, Dolores Scheller, daughter of the Harry Schellers of Prentice, Wisconsin, was united in marriage to Arthur Dickelman, Jr., son of the senior Dickelmans of 44 Elm avenue, Highwood.

The bride, gowned in white slipper satin, with long train and fingertip veil, carried a bouquet of white gladioli, centered with white gardenias. She was attended by her sister, Miss Tarilla Scheller, as maid of honor, who was dressed in gold slipper satin, and by two bridesmaids, Jacqueline Dickelman, sister of the bridegroom, and by her own sister, Diana Jean Scheller. Both bridesmaids wore brown satin and all carried gladioli of flame red.

Serving as best man was George O'Connell of Highland Park. Frank Moran, of Highland Park, and James Dickelman, brother of the bridegroom, ushered.

The bride's mother selected for the occasion a gown of russet and beige, with green accessories, while Mrs. Dickelman wore steel-blue satin crepe with gray accessories. Both wore corsages of pink flowers.

Breakfast at Deerpath Inn followed the ceremony, and an evening reception was held in the Highland Park Woman's Club.

The bride, a medical technician, attended Northwestern university. Her husband, after graduating from Highland Park High, served three years in the Navy. He is now in the furniture business with his father in Highwood. After a two weeks' wedding trip the young couple will stay with the senior Dickelmans until their new home is completed.
