JAMES SILJESTROM TAKES A BRIDE

On Saturday, October 22, Miss Beverly Lou Melick became the bride of James Henry Siljestrom at a candlelight ceremony performed by the Rev. Orville Walker in the First Methodist church of Marshalltown, Iowa, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. The bride is the daughter of the Carl E. Melicks of Marshalltown and the bridegroom is the son of the Henry C. Siljestroms of 266 N. St. Johns avenue.

The bride, who was gowned in white satin, wore a fingertip veil held in place by a pearl crown. She carried gardenias and vanda orchids. Her father gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Furman Johnson, sister of the bride, attended as matron of honor. Her gown was of orchid and the bouquet she carried was of gardenias and yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. William Whitehill, Jr. of Ames, Iowa, and Miss Shirley Dunham of St. Louis, Missouri, bridesmaids, were gowned alike in chartreuse. The flowers they carried were yellow chrysanthemums.

Richard Van Arsdale, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man, and William Ganley of Chicago and Ben Schwirtz of Des Moines, Iowa, ushered.

The bride's mother chose a gown of teal blue complemented by black accessories. The bridegroom's mother was in grey with navy accessories. Each wore an orchid corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony at the church.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. Siljestrom and his bride will be at home at 543 Central avenue.

HOME FROM ENGLAND

Home this week-end from a two months' trip to England, will be Albert Butterworth of 2810 West Park avenue. Mr. Butterworth has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Nellie Reeve at Bexhill-on-Sea, Sussex, and his brother, Jack, at Blackpool, Lancashire. Both trips were made by plane.

CHRISTINE WEAVER WEDS

Miss Christine Stephenson Weaver became the bride of Francis Thomas Sutton, Jr. in the Frank W. Howes Memorial chapel, Evanston, on Saturday, October 29, at 4 p.m., the Rev. Dr. Louis Sherwin, formerly of Highland Park, reading the service. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. A. D. Weaver of 681 Delta road and the late Mr. Weaver, and the bridegroom is the son of the Senior Suttons of Johnstown, New York.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Denison Weaver, wore a gown of white satin made with a square neckline and long train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a bandeau of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums, made up of Fifts and baby whites.

Her two attendants, Miss Martha Weaver, her sister, and Miss Eleanor Sutton, sister of the bridegroom, were gowned alike in full skirted, off-the-shoulder green velvet, and wore matching hats. They carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Earl Cunningham of Portsmouth, Ohio, served as best man and Robert Winton of Highland Park, ushered.

The bride's mother wore a rose colored dress for the occasion. Her corsage was of white gladioli. The bridegroom's mother was in grey, complemented by a rose colored hat. Her corsage, also, was of white gladioli.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Georgian hotel, Evanston.

Following a two weeks' southern honeymoon, Mr. Sutton and his bride will reside in Johnstown.

What was it worth to call the doctor?

That hurried call you made the night of Billy's critical illness cost only a few pennies. But when the doctor arrived so promptly you knew how much that single call was worth.

There are times when nothing means so much and costs so little as a telephone call—even if it's only to say "hello" to someone near and dear.
