their gratitude to Highland Park Merchants, School Officials, and Art teachers, for the splendid cooperation given all phases of the program.

Artists residing in Highland Park contributed in no small way to the success of the program when a group headed by George Straub gave generously of their talents in order that the program might be a success. Much interest was shown in the work displayed on the Edgar A. Stevens windows. George Straub, assisted by William H. Savin, produced the "Headless Horseman" while Geo. Charney, head of the Art Department of The Chicago Daily News gave us the "Window of Witches". Miss Charney is credited with the hideous looking creature known as "Cyclops". Portia and James Allen turned out "Jack and The Bean Stalk".

North Shore Art League Awards

Awards were made at the October meeting of the North Shore Art League for the prize winning pictures exhibited in the Members Show which hung at the League Studio until October 20th.

Three awards and one honorable mention were given for oils. Betty Hall received first prize for her "Rocky Place". Thryza Elliott's "Huntley" was awarded second prize, Alice A. Lazard's "Tuesday Night" third prize. Janet Middleton received honorable mention for her "Storm's Passing."

For Water Colors, first prize was awarded to Henrietta B. Pallat for her picture "Summer Afternoon", second prize to Hortense Steiner for "Harbor View", and third to Dr. Grubbel, no title.

Honorable mention went to Myrtle Frankowitz's "Summer Evening", Harold Ryerson's "Evanston Junk Yard", and Doris Butler's "Montmartre, Paris". The exhibition of members paintings will be hung at the New Trier High School until November 18th.

Conferences of League Of Women Voters To Be Held In Chicago

Mrs. Frances Puestow, president of the Highland Park League of Women Voters, plans to attend the council meeting of the Illinois League on November 8. Mrs. Edith Sampson, member of the Round the World Tour of Town Meeting of the Air, will be the guest speaker.

Mesdames Richard Seitz, David Joseph, R. P. Palmer, F. Puestow and Darrel Beam will attend the Voters Service Regional Conference held by the League of Women Voters on November 9 and 10 in Chicago. The purpose will be to train leaders of the League in ways to arouse voters to accept party responsibility.

An interesting feature will be a panel discussion on the new League pamphlet "What's U.S. to You?" Included in the panel are several prominent civic leaders—Veron Wahlberg, Illinois State Chamber of Commerce; Paul Johnson, head of The Prairie Farmer and radio station WLS; Miss Ruth Baker of the Chicago Board of Education; Mrs. Paul Gebhard of the Women's Church Federation of Greater Chicago; Albert Powers of the C.I.O. Political Action Committee, and Joseph Keenan of Labor's League for Political Education (A.F. of L.).

The keynote of the League's campaign, according to Miss Anna Lord Straus, national president of the League, is the following:

"The connecting line between you and your government officials is the political party. High government officials make the final decisions on problems of peace and prosperity, but it is the party that determines who these officials shall be. You can take an active part in the political party if you wish. 'Politics is everybody's business.'"

Girl Scout News

Girl Scout Troop 29 of Lincoln school recently spent an overnight at the Girl Scout lodge. The thirteen girls were accompanied by their leaders, Mrs. Theodore Struve, Mrs. Roger Baker and Miss Deane White. Earlier this troop completed work on the Hostess badge at a tea given at the home of Mrs. Philip C. Biggert.

Troop 15 of Ravinia school cooked lunch at the Lodge recently, completing work on the Cookout badge. Their leaders are Mesdames Joseph Schonthal, Marvin Anthony, Arthur Bjork and Mell Wolens. Earning badges were: Elizabeth Anthony, Susan Babson, Katherine Bjork, Carol De Vlieg, Roberta Dorph, Anna Franzese, Shayna Goldberg, Nancy Keare, Joan Matthiessen, Marcy Newhouse, Leone Russell, Dorothy Schaffner, Anne Schonthal, Judy Smith, Robbie Lou Stuppel, Betty Jane Wetzel, Sally Ann Windt, Nancy Wolens and Lois Zebben.

Obituaries

Barr

Private funeral services were held on Wednesday for Mrs. Katherine Barr, 1215 Wade street, who passed away at St. Luke's hospital, Chicago, on Sunday at the age of 82.

The widow of the late Francis X. Barr, one of the owners and editors of the Pittsburgh Post and Sun, she had been a resident of Chicago and Highland Park since 1914.

Surviving are three sons: Lyman, of Highland Park, Theodore, of Long Beach, California, and Lawrence, of Winnetka; and two daughters, Henrietta Barr of Chicago and Mrs. Catherine Stevens of Arkansas.

Laurie

Rites were held at the Immaculate Conception church today for Captain John L. Laurie, well known Highland Park, who met death on Monday at Jackson, Mississippi, when his plane crashed a group of trees.

Acting commander of the 170th fighter squadron, Illinois National guard, Springfield, where he had been recently stationed, his plane crashed as he was returning from New Orleans, on a routine trip, with a flight of 70 planes. He had been a member of the Air Force since 1940.

Surviving are his widow, the former Evelyn Benson; two daughters, Donna Jill and Janet Lynn of Highland Park, and his parents, the John D. Lauries of Roger Williams avenue.

Sale of Christmas Seals To Begin November 21

Mrs. Gerard Fossland of Winthrop Harbor has accepted the appointment of county chairman of the 1949 Christmas Seal Committee in Lake County, to be conducted by the Lake County Tuberculosis Association from November 21 to Christmas, according to an announcement by Dr. Theo. S. Proxmire, President of the association. Mrs. Howard F. Detmer of Highland Park will be co-chairman of the committee.

The purpose of Lake County's Seal Sale, part of the nationwide 43rd annual Christmas Seal Sale, is to raise funds for the work of the tuberculosis association, which has conducted a tuberculosis control program in Lake County for 41 years.

Schienfeld on Western Europe, and Bernard G. Davis on the Orient and North Africa. Mr. Oscar S. Rome will moderate the meeting.

Another football season is over for Highland Park high school teams, although not a very profitable one, it could have been worse.

You don't believe it?

Well, just last Saturday Austin of Chicago nosed out Marshall by a 100 to 0 score.

Then too, New Trier laid the wood to Waukegan for a 47 to 0 win and Evanston pounded out a 47 to 0 victory over York of Elmhurst.

Yes sir, things could have been much worse.

Let's hope now that next year will bring better things for the Little Giants in football.

We wish to thank George Grover and Dave Floyd for their cooperation in obtaining information for the stories on both varsity and frosh-soph squads.

Also a word of thanks to Bill Kiddle for his swell write ups of the varsity games. (His stories now can be seen in the Shoreline section of the PRESS). Thanks again, Bill, and keep up the good work.

The Little Giants could not seem to get going against Proviso and they even handed out a touchdown on a platter. A Highland Park pass was intercepted in the end zone for one of the Proviso touchdowns in the varsity game.

Baum played his best game of the season for the frosh-soph but the Little Giant ponies' line was outcharged throughout as they took it on the chin 21 to 0. Watch these boys in the next couple of years, they may turn into a very formidable outfit.

Evanston and New Trier battle for the Suburban conference title this Saturday. Boy, this should be a real tussle. Both teams are undefeated.

Basketball will begin at the high school on Monday, November 7 with varsity coach Chet Carlson and frosh-soph coach Dorman Morrison getting their first look at the hopefuls for the 1949-50 Little Giant squads. The first game will be against Argo on the local floor on Saturday evening November 19.

The Lake Forest college football team was defeated 41 to 6 by DePauw university before a large Dad's Day crowd at Greencastle, Indiana.
