DEBORAH MOSELEY MARRIES

Gowned in white slipper satin fashioned with a drop shoulder outlined in seed pearl embroidery, illusion yoke, long sleeves and ending in a full train, and wearing a fingertip veil which fell from a white satin helmet, Miss Deborah Elizabeth Moseley became the bride of Paul J. Beattas on Saturday, November 19, at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the home of her parents. The bride's flowers were white roses and small white chrysanthemums. The Rev. Temple heard the exchange of nuptial vows. The bride is the daughter of the Earl T. Moseleys of 710 N. St. Johns avenue and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Beattas of Bannockburn. Mr. Moseley gave his daughter in marriage.

The maid of honor, Miss Mary Friedlich, was gown in emerald satin and her bouquet was of Rubrum lilies. The little flower girl, Mary Elizabeth Moseley, daughter of the Donn Moseleys of Chicago and niece of the bride, wore white organdy over pale yellow and carried a small nosegay of small white chrysanthemums and pale pink roses.

Robert Beattas served his brother as best man and Charles Irwin and Pernod Miller ushered.

The bride's mother chose a toast colored dress complemented by a corsage of green orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown made with a black skirt and white bodice. Her corsage was of purple orchids.

Following a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Beattas and his bride left on a two weeks' honeymoon to Door County, Wisconsin. On their return they will reside in Deerfield.

THANKSGIVING WEEK-END
