JUNE DEAN ENGAGED
Mrs. Melville C. Dean, 315 Oakwood avenue, announces the engagement of her daughter, June Eleanor, to Ezekiel Edward Farmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Farmer, 307 Oakwood avenue. Mr. Farmer, who served in the Navy Air corps during the war, attended the University of Illinois. He is now employed in Chicago.
The wedding will take place February 4, 1950.

Her fiancé attended Lake Forest academy and Brown university, and was graduated from Carleton college.
Miss Mary, in her senior year at the University of Wisconsin, attended Skidmore college in New York for two years. Mr. Rayne is a graduate of Shattuck Military academy and the University of Wisconsin.

BIRTHDAY PARTY
On Tuesday afternoon several friends gathered at the home of Mrs. William H. Cuffey, 599 Owensia avenue, to help celebrate her birthday.

BARBARA JONES BETROTHED

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Jones of 310 N. Linden avenue were hosts at a surprise birthday dinner in honor of their daughter, Barbara Minter, on Wednesday night. The occasion was also a surprise to the guests as the Joneses announced the betrothal of their daughter and William H. Sihler, son of the Alfred T. Sihlers of 931 Lincoln avenue.

Miss Jones, who made her debut in 1945, is a graduate of MacMurray college. Her fiancé, a graduate of Lake Forest academy, served in the navy during the war. He is now attending the Illinois Institute of Technology.
No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Jones of Cleveland, Ohio, brother and sister-in-law of the bride-to-be, were unable to be here for the party, as were the Philip Krums of Long Beach, California, brother-in-law and sister of Mr. Sihler, and his brother, John, who is a student at the Babson School of Business Administration in Babson Park, Massachusetts.

SIGMA CHI PLEDGE

David McCulloch, son of the William C. McCullochs of 1358 Broadview avenue, a freshman this year at Illinois Wesleyan in Bloomington, has been pledged to Sigma Chi fraternity. David is also a member of the school's swimming team. He was home for the recent Thanksgiving week-end.

David's brother, Bill, a senior at Northwestern university, is a member of Chi Psi fraternity.

A DOUBLE BETROTHAL

A double betrothal announcement was made at a cocktail party at their home, 2367 Pierce road, on Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Olmsted, Jr. Suzanne, the elder daughter, is engaged to Richard Major Castle, son of the Sidney Castles of Geneva and Chicago. Mary and her fiancé, George Truitt Rayne, son of the Frederick W. Raynes of Madison, Wisconsin, will be married early next fall. Mr. Castle and Suzanne are planning a Spring wedding.

Miss Suzanne, who attended Centenary junior college in Hackensack, New Jersey, studied interior decorating in Chicago.

BACK AT MILLIKIN

Back at their studies at James Millikin University in Decatur are Herb Holt and his Thanksgiving week-end guest, Norm Hollander of New York. Herb's parents are the H. E. Holts of Judson avenue.

ELEANOR COLE, A BRIDE

Gowned in white slipper satin ending in a long train and fingertip veil which fell from a half hat of white satin and carrying a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered with a purple orchid, Miss Eleanor Irene Cole became the bride of Cataldo Soldano at the St. James church, Highwood, on Saturday, November 26. The 10:30 a.m. ceremony was read by the Rev. Arthur Douaire. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip E. Cole of 641 Sunnyside avenue and the bridegroom is the son of the Joseph Soldanos of 209 North avenue, Highwood.

Mrs. Carl Paradiso, sister of the bride, attended as matron of honor. Her gown was purple and the flowers in her headpiece matched the harmonizing lavender chrysanthemums and straw flowers tied with lavender, which she carried. The bridesmaids, Miss Rosalie Soldano, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Eunice Gockel of Wilmette, wore dresses made like that of the matron of honor, in lavender. Their bouquets, also like hers, were tied with purple ribbons. The flowers in their hair were like those they carried.

Best man was Howard Vander Bloomen and Carl Paradiso and Sonny Baldino ushered.

Enea Picchiatti sang. The bride's mother wore a dress of dubonnet and the bridegroom's mother was in brown. Their corsages were of pink camellias.

A breakfast followed the ceremony and a reception was held at the Sunset Valley club in the evening.

Mr. Soldano and his bride are now on a three weeks' wedding trip to California. On their return they will reside in Highwood.

ILLINOIS STUDENTS HOME FOR THANKSGIVING

Miss Adele Mason, a senior this year at the University of Illinois, arrived home last Wednesday for the Thanksgiving holidays. She returned to school on Monday.

Her sister and her husband, the Bruce Penwells, (Abbie Mason), also students at Illinois, spent Thanksgiving Day with his family in Kirksville, Missouri. They arrived here on Saturday for a short visit with her family, the Arthur K. Masons of 1813 Kincaid street.

They returned to their studies at Champaign on Tuesday.

Bill (Buzz) Laurie, son of the John D. Lauries of 253 Roger Williams avenue, and his week-end guest, Martin J. Copp, Jr. (Skipper), a student at the University of Dayton in Ohio, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at the Laurie home. "Buzz" is a student at the University of Illinois.

"Skipper" is the son of senior Cops of Norwood, Missouri, formerly of Highland Park.

Also home from their studies at the University of Illinois for the holiday, were Jack Stroud, son of the Fred Strouds of 1304 Burton avenue; Ted Zabel, son of the T. J. Zabels of Broadview avenue and Miles Zimmerman, son of Mrs. D. J. Zimmerman of 261 Cary avenue.

JESSIE BARNET WEDS

The Rev. Dr. William A. Young of the Presbyterian church performed the ceremony on Saturday, November 19, when Miss Jessie T. Barnet, daughter of the David Barnets of 176 Laurel avenue, and Stanley K. Salyards were united in marriage. The 7:30 p.m. nuptials were read in the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, the Roy Millens of 655 Michigan avenue. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

The teal blue dress which the bride wore was complemented by a bouquet of white roses and pink carnations. Miss Beverly Hayes, niece of the bridegroom, who attended as maid of honor, wore beige and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Stephen Sordyl, served his brother-in-law as best man. A reception followed the ceremony at the Millen home.

Mr. Salyards and his bride are now residing at 420 Waukegan avenue, Highwood.

BACK TO SCHOOL

Art Humphrey, son of the A. Gordon Humphreys of Judson avenue, has returned to his studies at De Pauw university in Greencastle, Indiana, following the Thanksgiving week-end.

MITZI NEWMAN MARRIES

Before an altar banked with white chrysanthemums and greenery Miss Mary Jo (Mitzi) Newman became the bride of John M. Field on Saturday, November 26, at the Temple Israel, Glencoe, at 8 p.m. The long sleeved Chantilly type gown she wore was made with a fitted bodice and off-the-shoulder lace Bertha embroidered in iridescent sequins, and graceful full train. Her long illusion veil, which was worn by her sister-in-law at her marriage a few years ago, hung from an orange blossom wreath which was a part of the wedding ensemble of both her mother and maternal grandmother. She carried a shower bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

The attendants were gownned alike in heavy gold colored satin. The fitted bodices of their jacket dresses were trimmed with buttons and the full skirts were bustled in back. Mrs. Robert B. Newman, sister-in-law of the bride, matron of honor, carried yellow roses and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Bernard Buchholz, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Barbara Bailey; Miss Mary Bezark and Miss Nancy Friedman carried bouquets of yellow and rust colored chrysanthemums.

Bernard Buchholz served as best man and the ushers were Robert Newman, brother of the bride; Theodore Brownell of Flint, Michigan; Richard Ettlinger of Highland Park and Robert Wolf of Detroit, Michigan.

The bride's mother chose a two piece long sleeved gown of pale grey made with a sheer lace bodice and full lace skirt. Her corsage was of orchids. The bridegroom's mother was in gunmetal grey lace complemented by a corsage of deep purple orchids.

Mr. Field, son of Mrs. Maxwell Field of 2248 Lincolnwood road, formerly of Detroit, and the late Mr. Field, and his bride, daughter of the Wilford M. Newmans of 2344 Lakeside place, are now in Florida for a two weeks' wedding trip. On their return they will reside in Evanston.

RETURNS TO COLORADO

Among the University of Colorado students home for Thanksgiving was Charles Hunter, son of Mrs. Elsie Hunter of 1897 Burton avenue. He returned to his studies on Sunday.

DEVER-SCHWALBE NUPTIALS

On Saturday, November 26, at 7 p.m. Miss Dorothy Marie Dever became the bride of Walter G. Schwalbe, Jr. at the Immaculate Conception church. The Rev. John P. O'Connell heard the exchange of nuptial vows. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lillian Dever of 941 Waukegan avenue and the bridegroom is the son of the senior Schwalbes of Waukegan.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, William Dever, wore a gown of eggshell crepe ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil fell from a halo of seed pearl beading. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

Mrs. Jack Schwalbe, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of aqua silk and carried pink and aqua carnations. Miss Joanne Schwalbe, his sister, attended as junior bridesmaid. She carried a bouquet like that of the matron of honor. Her dress was deep pink.

William Walker of Waukegan served Mr. Schwalbe as best man.

The bride's mother wore royal blue crepe complemented by a black hat trimmed in winter white. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of black trimmed with chartrreuse and matching hat. Each wore a corsage of yellow roses. A reception at Witten hall followed the ceremony.

Following a wedding trip to the Ozarks, Mr. Schwalbe and his bride will reside at 941 Waukegan avenue.

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS

Home from his studies at Purdue university for the Thanksgiving weekend was Bob Berg. Bob, a senior, is the son of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Berg of 1 Sheldon lane.

LLOYD BOTKER, JR. TAKES A BRIDE

The First United Evangelical church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Eleanor Lucille Zagalia, daughter of the Geno Zagalias of 1757 Deerfield road, and Lloyd M. Botker, Jr., son of the senior Botkers of 603 Home-wood avenue, on Saturday, November 26. The candlelight service was read at 7:30 p.m. by the Rev. A. G. Masser.

The bride's white satin gown ended in a long train. Her illusion veil fell from a Juliet cap. She carried Amazon lilies and lilies of the valley.

The coronet headpieces and the bouquets the attendants carried were of lavender chrysanthemums. Mrs. Donald Gieser, matron of honor, wore soft green satin and the bridesmaids, Miss Carolyn Botker, sister of the bridegroom was in fuschia and Miss Muriel Davis of Deerfield, in gold satin.

Little Linda Gene Zagalia, sister of the bride, acted as flower girl. Her dress was of yellow satin. In her hair she wore Amazon lilies and she carried a bouquet exactly like that of the bride, in miniature.

Mrs. Nestor Daggitt sang, accompanied at the organ by Romanie Gunsteen.

Best man was Donald Gieser and the ushers were John Dehm- low and James Diener, cousins of the bride.

The bride's mother wore teal blue crepe and the bridegroom's mother was in dark green satin. Their corsages were of yellow roses.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Y. W. C. A.

After a two weeks' honeymoon trip to Excelsior Springs, Missouri, Mr. Botker and his bride will reside at 427 Glencoe avenue.
