BROWN UNIVERSITY NEWS

Emery R. Walker, dean of admission at Brown University, was in Highland Park on Tuesday, December 13, as part of a two-months tour of secondary schools and Brown Clubs in the Middle West and South.

Dean Walker visited Highland Park High School where he interviewed students and conferred with Mr. A. E. Wolters and Mr. Edward Burwell.

TO SING IN ORATORIO

Donald H. Bergstrom, 53 N. Green Bay Rd., Highland Park, is a member of the University of Illinois Chorus which will present Handel's great oratorio "The Messiah" as its Christmas program on Sunday, Dec. 18, at 8 p.m. in the University Auditorium.

APPROACHING WEDDING

Trinity Episcopal church will be the scene of the wedding of Miss Frances Nadine Grimes and Lawrence Whiting Jordan, Jr. on Friday, December 30, at 8 o'clock in the evening. The Rev. Charles U. Harris will hear the exchange of nuptial vows. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Grimes of 1104 Lincoln avenue and Mr. Jordan is the son of the senior Jordans of San Francisco, California.

Miss Carol Grimes will be her sister's only attendant and Russell Jordan will serve his brother as best man. George Grimes, brother of the bride, an Amherst student, and Walter Boyle of Kenilworth, a former University of California classmate, will usher.

Miss Grimes attended Mills college in California and graduated from the University of California in Berkeley. Her fiancé, who also attended the University of California, is now a student at Hastings School of Law in San Francisco. She is a member of Alpha Phi sorority and he is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. Since her graduation Miss Grimes has been connected with a Child's Care Center in Berkeley.

Mr. Jordan's parents are arriving on December 29 from San Francisco.

A small reception at the home of the bride's parents will follow the ceremony.

Among the parties honoring the bride-to-be was a miscellaneous shower and tea yesterday at which Mrs. Bernard E. Newman of 122 N. Sheridan road was hostess. To-morrow Mrs. Elwood Hansmann of 950 Lincoln avenue will give a luncheon in Miss Grimes' honor and on December 24, Mrs. H. E. Holt of 1330 Judson avenue and Mrs. James M. Murphey of 250 Bronson lane will be co-hostesses at a luncheon and miscellaneous shower at the Exmoor Country club. On December 27, Mrs. Gerald D. Stone and daughter, Miss Charlotte, of 1200 Lincoln avenue will entertain at the Spinster dinner honoring Miss Grimes. The bride's parents will be hosts at the bridal dinner at their home on December 29.

CHRISTMAS GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Weir and sons, Charles, Donald and Lawrence, of Birmingham, Michigan, will be here to spend Christmas with Mrs. Weir's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Crafts Watson of 281 Marshman avenue. Another son-in-law and daughter of the Watsons, the Calvin G. Bauers will be dividing their holiday from Dartmouth college where Mr. Bauer is a student, with the Watsons and his parents, the Aaron S. Bauers of 315 Central avenue.

Mr. Harry J. Hale of Chicago, uncle of Mrs. Watson, will spend Christmas with the Watsons, also, as he has for the past forty years.

HOME FROM CALIFORNIA

Mrs. George Donnersberger of 902 S. Green Bay road returned last week from a six weeks' visit with her three daughters, Mrs. Hubert M. Coles of La Jolla; Mrs. Stewart H. Moore of Lannon Grove and Mrs. Joseph A. Thunder of Solana Beach and their families.

Mrs. Donnersberger is the grandmother of twenty-four children, eleven of whom reside in California.

HOME FROM PRINCETON

Home for the holidays from Princeton, where he is a student, will be David Aubrey, son of the James T. Aubreys of 181 Hazel avenue. David will arrive this week-end.

F. M. KNIGHTS' FAMILY

ARRIVING FOR CHRISTMAS
On Thursday, December 22, Mr. and Mrs. Edna Knight of Orangeburg, New York, will arrive to spend the holidays with Mrs. Rawdon's parents, the Francis M. Knights of 411 Lake avenue. Miss Nancy Knight will arrive a few days earlier for her Christmas vacation from Smith college, where she is a student.

Also Christmas guests of the Knights will be another son-in-law and daughter, the L. L. Sturarts and their children, Duncan and Mary, of Evanston, and their son and his wife, the Robert Knights of Winnetka.

The Knights returned last month from a European trip.

BACK HOME

After a week's vacation in Florida the George L. Martins of 8 Beech lane have returned home. They made both trips by plane.

HOME SOON

Home on December 20 from his studies at the University of New Mexico, where he is a sophomore, will be John Kidd, son of the Alan R. Kidds of 2159 Lakeside place.

HOME FOR HOLIDAYS

Mr. and Mrs. William Wells (Nancy Holt) of Detroit, Michigan, will arrive shortly before the holidays to spend Christmas with Mrs. Wells' parents, the H. E. Holts of 1330 Judson avenue. Also home for the holidays will be the Holts' son, Herb, a student at James Millikin university in Decatur, Illinois.

The other son-in-law and daughter of the Holts, the Richard Wallaces and their infant daughter, Christine, will also spend Christmas there.

Christmas Season At Library

The Christmas season in the Highland Park Public Library is now well under way. On display in the adult section are the annual publications of the Illustrated London News and the Augsburg Publishing Company along with several new Christmas books which the library has added to its holiday shelf. "Journey Into Christmas" by Bess Streeter Aldrich, a group of gently sentimental stories, is a new yuletide book of fiction. Virginia Pasley's "Christmas Cookie Book", a welcome addition to the special cookbook section, is justifiably popular at this time of the year. Another of the new holiday volumes is the beautiful "Christmas Story" by Varga, a book of holy paintings.

In the children's weekly story hour each Saturday, Mrs. Inger Boye has been presenting a special program of Christmas stories including "The Gift of St. Nicholas", "A Christmas That Was Nearly Lost", "Herman the Little Clockmaker", and "Mr. Skip".

Saturday, December 17, Mr. Avery Jones will show colored
