OPEN HOUSE
Mrs. Irma Hayes MacDonald, formerly of Highland Park and Deerfield, will be at home at 1111 Grove street, Evanston, on New Year's Day from 4 until 9. She will welcome her many friends to meet her daughter, Barbara's husband, Wayne Marcouiller.

Mr. Marcouiller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Marcouiller of De Pere, Wisconsin. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin where he studied law and engineering. Mrs. Marcouiller majored in Home Economics and received her degree from Barat college, Lake Forest.

Barbara's cousins, Miss Margaret Mary Rose, Mrs. Thomas McNulty (Kathy Hayes), both of Winnetka, and Mrs. James Rose of Evanston, will assist in receiving the guests.

JAMES THORSEN TO WED
Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Broome of Albuquerque, New Mexico, have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Catherine, to James Thorsen, son of Ralph M. Thorsen of Highland Park.

Miss Broome, a junior at University of New Mexico, is a member of Chi Omega sorority. She was graduated from Albuquerque High, but attended Brownmoore School at Sante Fe for six years, and also Douglas School, Pebble Beach, California. Mr. Thorsen, in his third year at the university, is majoring in business administration, and is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. He was graduated from Highland Park High school and attended Todd Boys' School in Illinois.

The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's parents January 28.

HOME FROM WESTERN
Among students of Western College who left this week for the Christmas holidays are Miss Virginia Knox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Knox, of 2296 Lakeside Pl.; Miss Nancy Helen Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Ryan, of 123 Clifton Ave., and Miss Barbara Ann Michaels, of 280 Marshman Ave.

CHRISTMAS REUNION
Mrs. Dudley J. Clapp, Jr. and son, Dudley III, arrived from New York on Monday to spend the holidays with her parents, the George Prindles of Oakwood avenue. Mr. Clapp will join the family group on Friday. Dudley III is five months old.

HOLIDAY IN THE SOUTH
Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Warren and son, Edward, 1547 S. St. Johns avenue, will spend the holidays with Major and Mrs. T. K. Myers of Clemson, South Carolina. Mrs. Myers is the former Jane Warren.

HOLIDAY WEDDING
Christmas holidays will be especially exciting for Grayce Pickett Howes, for she has chosen December 30 as the date for her marriage to Jack DeWayne Clay. Only members of the immediate families will be present at the ceremony, which will take place at the home of Mrs. Howe's parents, the J. D. Picketts, 303 Ravine drive.

The couple will live in Evanston, where they will complete their studies at Northwestern university.

Mr. Clay, who is working for his master's degree at the School of Speech, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orris Moore Clay of Kankakee, Illinois.

Helen Fitzgibbons Marries in Florida

Of wide interest in the southern part of Florida comes the announcement of the marriage of Miss Helen Fitzgibbons and Luther L. Chandler, which took place Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's father, John T. Fitzgibbons, on Talbott Road, the Redlands.

The ceremony was performed by W. H. Owens, notary public, in front of the fireplace in the drawing room before the immediate families of the contracting parties.

The bride was dressed in Dutch blue lace over satin, with which she wore green suede sandals and a single orchid. Mrs. T. J. Fitzgibbons served as matron of honor and Charles Fuchs was best man. She wore a two-piece suit of pink and black linen and an orchid.

A hundred and fifty guests had been asked for cocktails at four o'clock and during the party the announcement of the marriage was made. During the afternoon John Neafsey, an old friend of the groom presented him with an Irish "shillalah" over 50 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler left for a wedding trip of unannounced destination and will make their home at the Fitzgibbon's estate upon their return home.

Mrs. Chandler has made her home in Redlands for over two years, coming from Highland Park, Ill., where her family have made their home for many years. Mr. Chandler is a pioneer resident of the Redlands and is prominent in business and agricultural organizations in the State. He is the son of Mrs. Maude Chandler of Silver Palm Drive and a brother of Mrs. B. E. Vihlen of Goulds.

LOOK WHO'S HERE!

On Monday, December 12, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Hutchings of 1441 Dean avenue became the parents of a daughter, Christie Lee, at the Highland Park hospital. The little girl has a sister, Linda, 18 months.
