real to us as a Person. And the Father HAS stepped out of the picture. The Word HAS become flesh. That is the meaning of Christmas. Jesus is Immanuel—God with us.

God speaks to us at Christmas with the assurance of the forgiveness of sins. Joseph is told, "Thou shalt call His name Jesus: for he shall save his people from their sins." The only condition to fulfillment of this promise is that we individually, be numbered among His people by virtue of our acceptance of Him as our Saviour.

God speaks to us at Christmas about the more abundant life which is the prerogative of all who enthrone His Son as Lord of their lives. Our Lord Himself said, "I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly."

"O Holy Child of Bethlehem! Descend to us, we pray; Cast out our sin, and enter in, Be born in us today . . ."

TRINITY EPISCOPAL Charles U. Harris, Rector

The yearly remembrance of the birth of Christ brings to our world a renewed and joyous sense of good will among men. For a brief space of time they forget their ancient animosities and present conflicts as they recall with grateful joy God's gift to the world of Himself and its meaning today.

We in Highland Park ought to be especially conscious of our particular blessings; of the high moral standards that characterize our community; of the good schools our children are privileged to attend; of the churches, hospital, and charities which serve God and man; of the merchants, public servants and entertainment people; of the doctors, lawyers and professional men; of the newspaper editors, the nurses and teachers; of the office workers, laboring people and all the others who make our town a fine place in which to live!

Rejoicing in God's great goodness to us all, we wish you all a blessed holiday.
