MARY McCORMICK, A BRIDE

Gowned in traditional white satin made with a long train and wearing a full-length tulle veil trimmed with Duchess lace from the wedding ensemble of her mother, and carrying stephanotis and gardenias, Miss Mary McCormick became the bride of James Richard Thomas on Saturday, February 4. The 4:30 p.m. ceremony was read by the Rev. Dr. William A. Young at the Presbyterian church. The bride, who is the daughter of the D. Dean McCormicks of 541 S. Linden avenue, was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Thomas is the son of Mrs. Henry Thomas, Jr. of Baltimore, Maryland.

The bride's attendants, Miss Joan Smith of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, maid of honor, and Miss Milla Carolan, Mrs. John G. Keller, Mrs. Russell Kelley, Jr., Mrs. William Moffett and Mrs. Frank Swingle, bridesmaids, were gowned alike in periwinkle blue. Their bouquets were of white flowers.

Best man was Henry Thomas, III, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were Dean McCormick, Jr., Andrew Thomas, Robert Thomas, Charles Goodwin, Hugh Hansen, Dr. Livingston Parsons and David Ridgely.

The bride's mother chose a gown of forest green for the occasion, complemented by a brown orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was in rose beige and her corsage was of pink orchids.

A reception at the Exmoor Country club followed the ceremony.

After a two weeks' honeymoon at Sea Island, Georgia, Mr. Thomas and his bride will reside in Baltimore.

RECENT TRIP TO DELLS

Among the eleven Roycemore students who spent a recent weekend enjoying winter sports at the Dells, Wisconsin, was Miss Nancy Newman, daughter of the Charles H. Newmans of 1437 Wildwood lane. Nancy is a senior at Roycemore this year.

BRIDAL SHOWER

In honor of Miss June Dean, whose marriage to Ezekiel Farmer, took place on Saturday, Mrs. Thomas Johnson (Virginia McCaffrey) of Kenilworth was hostess at a personal shower at her home on Wednesday night, February 1.

JEAN NICHOLS WEDS

The Rev. Dr. O. R. Sellers of McCormick Seminary, Chicago, a family friend, heard the exchange of nuptial vows on Saturday, February 4, at 7 o'clock in the evening when Miss Jean Alice Nichols became the bride of Michael John Galanos, II, at the Presbyterian church. Miss Nichols is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram V. Nichols of 47 Elm avenue, Highwood, and Mr. Galanos is the son of Justice and Mrs. John M. Galanos of Athens, Greece.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white satin made with long sleeves and a high neck and ending in a long train. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses, white camellias and lilies of the valley.

Miss Carol Laeger, cousin of the bride, wore pale green satin. The skirt of the dress was made with two flying panels in back. She wore long white gloves. Her flowers were a cascade of American Beauty roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Eloise Mattheis and Miss Ruth Fredrickson, wore American Beauty satin dresses made exactly like that of the maid of honor. They, too, wore long white gloves. They carried cascades of pale pink roses. Miss Fredrickson also sang, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Harold Mattheis of Chicago.

Michael Yeary of Lake Bluff served the bridegroom as best man and Hiram V. Nichols, Jr., brother of the bride, and Roger Laeger, her cousin, ushered.

The bride's mother wore French blue crepe, silver bead trimmed, and a pink hat trimmed with pink camellias. Her corsage, too, was of pink camellias.

One hundred and ten guests attended the reception that followed at the Nichols' home.

The bride, a graduate of Highland Park High school and the Cosmopolitan School of Music, also attended Lake Forest college. Mr. Galanos, whose father is a member of the Court of Appeals in Athens, attended Athens university where he was an electrical engineering student. At present he is employed by the War department, doing research work in electronics.

Mr. Galanos and his bride are now residing in Highwood.

TO ATTEND NATIONAL COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

Miss Ellie Baird, daughter of the Robert D. Bairds of 20 S. Linden avenue, has transferred from Oberlin Conservatory of Music, Oberlin, Ohio, to the National College of Education, Evanston. Miss Baird, who has just finished a semester's work at Oberlin, arrived home this week. She attended Oberlin for one and a half years.

VOCALIST AT FLORIDA'S BAY SHORE ROYAL HOTEL

Vocalist at the Bay Shore Royal hotel, Tampa, Florida, since February 1, is Miss Marie Lawler, daughter of Mrs. Grace Lawther of Highwood. Singing in the Sky Line Room, she is billed with Jerry Colonna, who is also being featured there.

Before Miss Lawler leaves Tampa on February 11, she plans to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thomas (Josephine Baruffi) of Tampa and with the former Svea Lindstrom, who is now married and also living in Tampa.

JOHN L. McGUIRE TAKES A BRIDE

On Saturday, February 4, Miss Helen Peret, daughter of the John H. Perets of Oregon, Missouri, became the bride of John L. McGuire, son of Mrs. John McGuire and grandson of Joseph F. Leaming, both of 1540-Dean avenue, at the Westminster chapel of the Fourth Presbyterian church, Chicago, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride was gowned in white lace. From the half bonnet of lace which she wore, fell her fingertip veil. She carried white hyacinths, stephanotis and white orchids.

Mrs. J. Wendell McKinsey of Columbia, Missouri, sister of the bride, matron of honor, and another sister, Mrs. James D. Johnston of New York City, who attended as bridesmaid, were gowned alike in chartreuse taffeta and carried red tulips. Miss Charlotte Leaming, daughter of the Jerry C. Leamings of 311 Marshman avenue, cousin of the bridegroom, acted as candle lighter. Her dress was of orchid taffeta.

A Arnold Brand of Chicago served the bridegroom as best man and Warren S. Peret of Oregon, brother of the bride, and Hal C. Whittemore of La Grange Park, ushered.

The bride's mother chose a blue dress complemented by pink camellias and the bridegroom's mother wore blue, also, in a lighter shade. Her corsage, too, was of pink camellias.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Theta Sigma Phi Sorority house in Chicago, where Miss Peret has resided for the past four years.

Following a wedding trip in the south west, the young couple will reside in Chicago.

Brotherhood Jamboree At New Trier School Wednesday, February 22

North Shore residents will again join the nation in observing American Brotherhood Week, February 19-26, the week of Washington's birthday. Highlight of the Week on the North Shore will be a Brotherhood Jamboree to be held on the twenty-second of February at 8:00 p.m. in the New Trier High School Gymnasium. The program that evening will include several well-known stars as Don McNeill of "Breakfast Club" fame, Dave Garroway, All-American Sid Luckman and the music to be included will be by the famous Art Hodes and his Dixielanders from the Blue Note.

The winners of the poster and essay contests, which as in the past, have been jointly sponsored by the North Shore Council of the National Conference and Jews and the North Shore Citizens Committee, will receive their prize awards and all the students who have entered either of these contests will receive complimentary tickets to this evening of entertainment. Other tickets will be available through the schools to students who have participated in the various Brotherhood activities and programs in the schools throughout the year as well as during Brotherhood Week.

Other stars of screen and radio who will be present at this Brotherhood Week Observance to join in the program will be announced later. This program should bring to the North Shore the most outstanding group of star entertainments seen here in a long time. A limited number of tickets will be available at the door to the general public. However, the program has been arranged and set up primarily for the young people to demonstrate to them that living and believing in Brotherhood can and should be fun. There will be no charge for admission.

Members of the Brotherhood Week committee include Mr. and Mrs. John B. Foreman, Winnetka; Mrs. Francis Stanton, Winnetka; Mr. Fred Boulter, Highland Park; Mrs. Robert Lauter, Highland Park; Mr. Ed Skillin, Wilmette; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kuppenheimer, Winnetka; Miss Elizabeth Bredin, Highland Park; Miss Ray Mayer, Winnetka; Mr. Robert Carpenter, Kenilworth; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kaufman, Winnetka; Mr. William Peters, Highland Park; Mr. and Mrs. Robt Earnshaw, Wilmette; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Florshiem, Glencoe; Mrs. James O'Shaughnessy, Winnetka; Mr. John Menk, Winnetka and Mrs. Clarence L.
