RETURN FROM BRIDAL TRIP

The E. E. Farmers (June Dean) have returned from their honeymoon trip to New Orleans, Louisiana, and will soon move into their new home at 625 Byron court, Deerfield.

The Dean-Farmer wedding took place on Saturday, February 4, in the rectory of the Immaculate Conception church, Rev. Edmund Skoner performing the double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families. A reception for a large number of friends followed at the Woman's Club.

For her wedding the bride was gowned in white satin with fitting bodice and full nylon net skirt. Her finger-tip veil was fastened with white hyacinths, and her bouquet, also of white hyacinths, was centered by a single white orchid.

Attending the bridal couple were Mrs. John Richardson of Benton Harbor, Michigan, sister of the bridegroom, and Ezekiel M. Olsen, a cousin, of Chicago. The matron of honor wore pale pink crepe, and her hair decoration was of maline and tiny pink roses. She carried a bouquet of deeper pink roses.

Mrs. Farmer is the daughter of Mrs. Melville C. Dean, 656 Michigan avenue, and her husband is the son of the John T. Farmers, 307 Oakwood.

CARRIBEAN CRUISE

Mr. and Mrs. Burton M. Smalley of 485 Fairview avenue will be leaving about March 1 for a two weeks' Carribean cruise. Mr. and Mrs. John McLean of Winnetka will accompany them.

ALICE ROSSITER WEDS

The Presbyterian church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Alice Rossiter and William Holway on Saturday, February 11, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Donald E. Rossiter and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orland Holway of Hannibal, Missouri. The Rev. Dr. William A. Young heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a high necked ivory satin gown made on Princess lines and ending in a long train. Seed pearls trimmed the collar of the dress. A gift of lace from a friend was used in the crown headdress, from which hung a fingertip veil. Her bouquet was of white roses.

Miss Ruth Rossiter attended her sister as maid of honor. Her Emerald green taffeta gown was complemented by a bouquet of white roses, carnations, and stock. Her headband was made up of white roses and hyacinths.

Lt. Orland Holway, Jr. served his brother as best man, and the ushers were Donald Rossiter, brother of the bride, and Ned Lund.

Mrs. Harold Finch was, at the organ.

The bride's mother was gowned in light rose crepe and her corsage was an orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore grey and her corsage, also, was an orchid.

A reception followed the wedding at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. Holway and his bride, who are now on a wedding trip in Minneapolis, Minnesota, are both graduates of Lawrence college in Appleton, Wisconsin.

NANCY ARMSTRONG MARRIES

At a small informal wedding at the Exmoor Country club on Saturday, February 11, Miss Nancy Armstrong became the bride of John W. Channer. The 4:30 p.m. ceremony was read by the Rev. William A. Young of the Presbyterian church. The bride is the daughter of the Mason G. Armstrongs of 1658 Rice street and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Earle Adare Channer of Kenilworth and the late Mr. Channer.

The bride, who wore the white satin wedding gown belonging to Mrs. Peter Richardson of Winnetka, sister of the bridegroom, was given in marriage by her father. Her fingertip veil fell from a satin cap headdress. She carried white roses and stephanotis.

Maid of honor, Miss Margaret Heath of Highland Park, was gowned in pink lace and she carried sweetheart roses.

Earle Adare Channer, Jr. of Larchmont, New York, was his brother's best man.

Following a reception at the Exmoor Mr. Channer and his bride left for a honeymoon trip to Mexico. They will live in Highland Park on their return.
