Stand Pat, Boy!

Gaunt Gerald, there's still one course left you. When the missus endeavors to ape a teen-ager's lines—just convince her That health's more important than shape.

Stirrings Of Spring

Comes a mid-west hint of spring-time

On a clear and windless day— Just a subtle scent, disclosing Wintertime is on its way.

Bluejays know it. How they clatter

The good news—those gabby folks!

Horning forth with joyful winging

Through the sturdy, sunlit oaks.

In the still half-frozen gardens

Hardy robins hop about,— Search the willow trees to look for Silver pussies peeping out.

Welcome to this bold advance guard,

Whose main mission is to bring Tidings to the winter-weary Of the sure advance of spring.

Frosh-Soph Topple Waukegan Cagers By 36-22 Score

The Highland Park high school frosh-soph basketball team finally found itself last Friday evening and avenged its early season defeat at the hands of the Waukegan Bulldogs.

The local boys, with Frank Picchietti and Gene Pizzato at the guards, Harold Freberg and Renzo Marchietti at forwards and "Big" Bob George at center, hung a 36 to 22 defeat on the invading Waukegan team.

Until Friday night the Bulldogs had a chance to win the frosh-soph title but the Morrison coached lads really played fine ball to knock Waukegan out of the running.

Showing the best defensive ball of the year the local boys held the visitors to 2 field goals in the first half to go out in front by a 17 to 8 score at intermission time.

Marchietti was high point man of the game with 13 markers with Freberg getting 7 points. George had 9 points Pizzato had 1 point and Picchietti scored 6 points to make up the Blue and White scoring. Adams, Murphy and MacIsaac each hit the nets for 6 points for Waukegan.

The varsity and frosh soph will play at Evanston tomorrow night and then on Wednesday of next week the varsity will play New Trier in the Regional tournament at Evanston.

New Trier Terriers in the first game on March 1.

The broadcast of the Highland Park-New Trier contest will be aired starting about 7:30 and can be picked up at 106.7 on your FM radio dials.
