LEE WARREN WEDS

Trinity church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Lee Warren and Donald Carpenter on Saturday, April 29, at 4:30 p.m. The Rev. Charles U. Harris read the service. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Schmid of 705 S. St. Johns avenue and the bridegroom is the son of the Frederick Carpenters of 563 Kimball road.

The bride wore a white eyelet and organza gown and carried a bouquet of white daisies. Her tulle veil was shoulder length.

Miss Jan-Ann Turner, maid of honor, and the bridesmaid, Miss Flavia Robertson, of Kansas City, Missouri, cousin of the bride, were gowned alike in turquoise organza. The yellow daisies they wore in their hair matched the bouquets they carried.

Lee Ostrander served the bridegroom as best man and Sterling Warren, Jr., brother of the bride, ushered.

A reception at the Deerpath Inn in Lake Forest followed the wedding ceremony.

Following a honeymoon at Spring Mill Park, Indiana, Mr. Carpenter and his bride will reside in West Lake Forest.

HOME FROM FLORIDA

After spending six weeks in St. Petersburg, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Werner A. Wieboldt and daughter, Miss Pearl Ann, of 700 McDaniels avenue recently returned home.

On Friday, Mr. Albert Varley of 1325 Judson avenue returned from St. Petersburg, Florida, where he spent the past two months.

Mrs. George E. Bowden of 625 Central avenue and Mrs. John T. Fitzgibbons of 2301 County Line road returned home on Saturday from Homestead, Florida, where they spent the past six months.

LYNN TURNER, A BRIDE

On Saturday, April 29, Miss Lynn Turner and Captain Ralph Howard Spanjer of the United States Marine Corps, were united in marriage at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in the chapel at the Glenview Naval Air Base. The bride is the daughter of the John B. Turners of 1520 Deerfield road and Captain Spanjer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Spanjer of St. Petersburg, Florida.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white French Renaissance lace over illusion and satin. The dress, which had a fitted bodice, was made with a bouffant skirt. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and lilies of valley and white sweetpeas.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Walter C. Jones of Sommerville, New Jersey, and the bridesmaid, Miss Joy Nelson of Chicago, were gowned alike in white eyelet with blue sashes. They carried carnations and sweetpeas.

Captain Franklin Simon of Cherry Point, North Carolina, served the bridegroom as best man and Major D. D. Irwin and Lt. Al Semb, both of Cherry Point and Major Louis Dollman and Major Hyde Phillips, both of Glenview, ushered.

The bride's mother chose a suit dress of periwinkle blue faille for the occasion. The flowered hat she wore matched her corsage of forget-me-nots, pink roses and purple stock. The bridegroom's mother wore soft blue, complemented by a flowered hat and corsage of white flowers.

Out of town guests included about twenty-four members of Captain Spanjer's squadron from Cherry Point where he is also stationed, his mother; the William Spanjers of New Jersey, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom; his sisters, Mrs. W. Leland of Rhode Island and Miss Jane Spanjer of New York; Mrs. Lydia Turner of Springfield, Illinois, grandmother of the bride; her aunt, Mrs. John E. Harris and Miss Mattie McIntyre, both also of Springfield and guests from Rockford, Elgin, Waukegan and Indiana.

Following a month's honeymoon trip to Florida and Havana Captain Spanjer and his bride will reside in Cherry Point.

APPEAR IN PLAY AT ROYCEMORE

Appearing in one of the three major roles in the play, "Quality Street," presented by the Roycemore seniors on Friday evening, was Nancy Newman, daughter of the Charles H. Newmans of 1437 Wildwood lane. Nancy took the part of Valentine Brown. Also a member of the cast was Courtney (CoCo) Clague, daughter of the Stanley R. Clagues of 300 Woodland road. Both girls will graduate this June from Roycemore.

RETURNS FROM COLORADO

After a week spent at Allens Park, Colorado, Mr. A. Gordon Humphrey of 1321 Judson avenue returned home on Tuesday.

WEDDING DATE SET

July 8 has been chosen as the date of the wedding of Miss Betty Marie Seiffert and Raymond Masotti. The Presbyterian church will be the scene of the 4:30 p.m. ceremony. Miss Seiffert is the daughter of the Raymond F. Seifferts of 822 N. Green Bay road and Mr. Masotti is the son of Mrs. Mary Masotti of Mount Clare, Illinois.

DIRECTS MELODRAMA

Miss Virginia Knox, a senior at Western College, Oxford, Ohio, was the stage manager and assistant director in "East Lynne" popular melodrama of the 19th century, presented three nights recently at the college by the Theatre Group, under the direction of William Ireland Duncan, head of the theatre department. The play was given in Leonard Theatre, appropriately referred to on this occasion as the "Leonard Opera House." Miss Knox also played a role in the cast.

Miss Knox is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Knox, 2296 Lakeside Pl.

CHRISTENING

Pamela Ann was the name given to the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Florent of 705 Sunnyside avenue on Sunday afternoon, at the christening which took place at the home of the Rev. H. K. Platzer, who officiated. Sponsors for the baby were Mr. Florent's brother and sister-in-law, the Veran Florents of Evanston.

Pamela's christening dress was the same one worn by her sister, Sandra, who was three years old on January 18, and by her father and her paternal grandmother.

ELECTED TO BLUE KEY

Frederick Meyer, senior at Denison university, Granville, O., has been elected to Blue Key, men's honorary for leadership in activities. He is the son of the Lawrence Meyers of 1638 S. Green Bay road.

DIANA SANTI MARRIES

The wedding of Miss Diana Dolores Santi and Primo Cabri took place in St. James church, Highwood, on Saturday, April 29, at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. The Rev. Arthur Douaire heard the exchange of nuptial vows. The bride is the daughter of the Bruno Santis of 236 Llewellyn avenue, Highwood, and the bridegroom is the son of the Lino Cabris of 3231 Grove avenue.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white satin made with a long train and illusion neckline. The pearls she wore belonged to her maternal grandmother. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a beaded satin headpiece. With her prayer book she carried two white orchids. Lilies of the valley were attached to the marker.

Maid of honor, Miss Santina Ugolini, wore pale yellow net and the bridesmaids, the Misses Yolanda Fabbri and Sue Saari were in green and pink nylon net, respectively. The junior bridesmaid, Miss Rita Jean Santi, sister of the bride, was in orchid. All the attendants carried peach colored gladioli.

Bruno Amedei served the bridegroom as best man and James Antonetti and Hugo Cerotti ushered. Norman Giambi served as junior attendant. Escorts were Leo Mordini and Alfonso Rizzolo.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress and hat and the bridegroom's mother was in navy blue, also. Each wore a corsage of gardenias and roses.

A dinner was held at 2:30 p.m. at the Highwood Community center and a reception was held there in the evening.

Following a two weeks' Florida honeymoon, Mr. Cabri and his bride will reside in Highwood.

TO ATTEND MOTHER'S DAY AT GREENCASTLE, INDIANA
