JOSEPH COLEMAN TAKES A BRIDE

St. Mary's church, Lake Forest, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Ruth Mae Sneath and Joseph Allan Coleman on Saturday, May 20, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Madden heard the exchange of nuptial vows. The bride is the daughter of the Roy Sneaths of Lake Bluff and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Henry Coleman of 630 Glenview avenue.

The bride's cousin, Miss Jean Mottier, sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white slipper satin made with a very long train. Her fingertip veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones. On the white prayer book she carried, was a white orchid. Lilies of the valley were attached to the satin markers.

Miss Patricia Ann Coleman, sister of the bridegroom, attended as maid of honor. Her pink taffeta frock was complemented by a colonial bouquet of baby pink roses and small blue flowers.

Robert Sneath, brother of the bride, served the bridegroom as best man, and the ushers were Don Rossi, of Highwood, and Rudy Freimuth of Chicago.

The bride's mother was in a brown and white print dress and the bridegroom's mother chose aqua, with white accessories, for the occasion. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

Dinner for the immediate families and close friends was held at 6 p.m. at the Moose club, Highland Park.

Following a short honeymoon Mr. Coleman and his bride will reside in Lake Bluff.

It's worth a lot to her peace of mind

Whenever you have to go away—even for just a little while—you appreciate the value of your telephone to the one you leave behind. You know it's there to bring her peace of mind, protection in emergency and help when she needs it. And no matter where you go, you know it stands ready 24 hours a day to carry your voice to her and hers to you. Few things are so valuable and cost so little as your telephone.
