The Leopard's Free Lunch

Once upon a time, in India, roamed a young leopard, with a zest for living and the love of freedom so intense in all members of the animal kingdom, including man. His principal problem was food, which he acquired through physical exertion, developing into a beautiful and lithe creature of 175 pounds.

But one day, in the great forests, he discovered tantalizing raw meat, all set out for him which he could eat without physical effort—for nothing. He ate the tempting morsel, acquired without effort, because it was too good to pass up. But a trap was sprung and our jungle denizen, no longer free, wound up as a prisoner—secure, of course—in an 18-foot-deep concrete pit in an Oklahoma zoo.

There, he got all of the best things—shelter, protection; free medical care, and juicy horsemeat—all free. He had security, easy living. But eventually he longed for freedom, to follow the basic instinct of work and opportunity.

By prodigious self-effort, he escaped, roaming the woods at night, seeking food. But free, juicy meat was no longer available, so he returned to his captive pit. There the meat was again—another free lunch. He leaped for it, fell into a deep sleep. The meat contained an overdosed sleeping potion. The leopard died.

A vital question is raised by Doctor Benson, of Harding College, "Are we Americans, like the leopard, trading our liberties for a 'free' lunch?"

Meat Contents Doubled In "CARE" Israel Package

CARE's answer to a growing meat shortage in Israel is the introduction of a new, improved Kosher food package with nearly double the meat contents of the previous Israel adult food package.

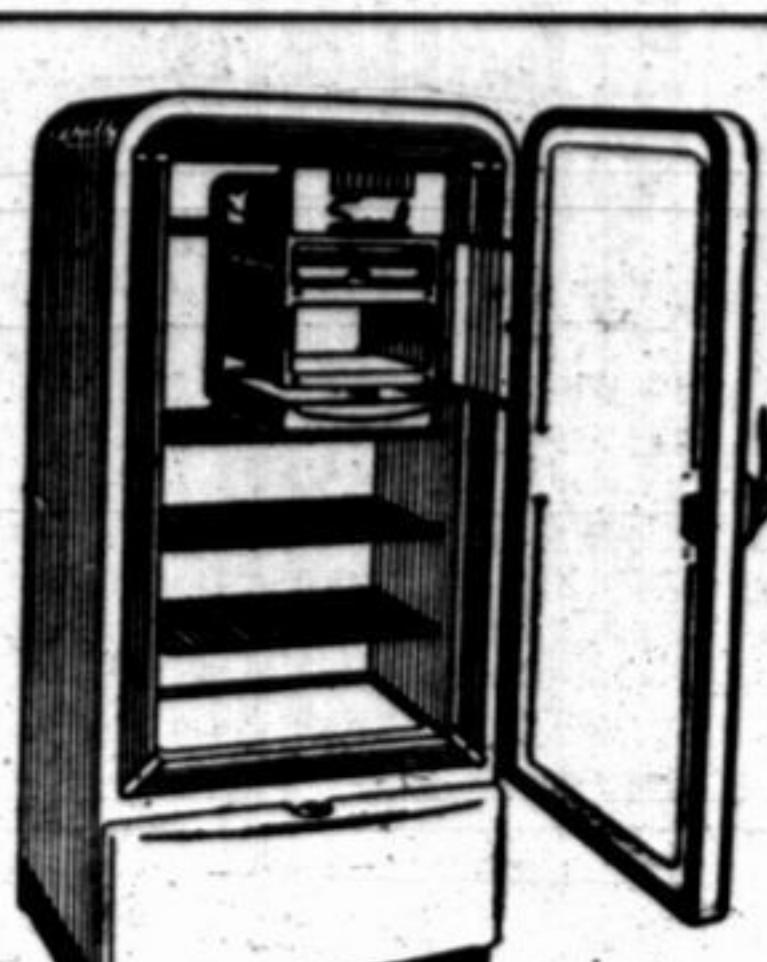

Announcing the new package, Paul Comly French, executive director of CARE, pointed out:

"The Israel government was recently forced to cut the ration allowance to less than two pounds of meat per month for an individual adult, as against the three pounds per week that is the American consumption average. CARE's new package contains more than 2½ months' Israel rations. On the basis of the CARE agreement with the Israel government, our packages are delivered with no loss of rations for the individual recipient." The price for the new package remains $10.

The new package was designed with the official cooperation and approval of the Israel Ministry of Food and has been endorsed, as were CARE's previous food packages, by the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America. The first shipment of CARE's new Israel packages is now on the high seas, to be stockpiled in CARE warehouses at Tel Aviv and Jerusalem for immediate delivery upon receipt of individual orders. Any American desiring to aid relatives and friends in the Jewish homeland, may order either the new adult food package or CARE's special Israel baby food package for the price of $10 through the Chicago Committee for CARE, 189 West Madison Street, Chicago 2.

Saucy Apple Dumplings

A new way with apple dumplings is to serve them warm with a cinnamon candy sauce.

It's apple time, and time to revive a popular dessert—apple dumplings. Those that mother used to make had whole apples baked in a pastry wrap. Here's a new treatment using flaky biscuit to create apple roll dumplings.

Spread chopped apple and brown sugar over rolled-out biscuit dough, then roll up like a jelly roll, cut in slices and stand them in a baking dish. Pour over them a spicy and colorful sirup made with those "red hot" cinnamon candies, and then bake. This bakes the sauce and dumplings all together and gives them a candied effect. Besides that "apple a day," these dumplings contribute a goodly quota of B-vitamins and iron in the enriched biscuit base.

With their apple richness and spicy sauce, apple roll dumplings are sure to be in demand as long as apples are in season and that's most of the year.

SAUCY APPLE DUMPLINGS

- 2 cups sifted enriched flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 6 tablespoons shortening
- 1/2 to 3/4 cup milk
- 1/2 cup brown sugar

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut or rub in shortening. Add milk to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead gently one-half minute. Roll into rectangular sheet about eight inches wide and one-eighth inch thick. Pare and core apples and chop coarsely. Spread evenly over dough. Sprinkle with brown sugar. Roll up like jelly-roll and seal edge. Cut in two inch slices. Place in greased baking pan. Pour one cup cinnamon sauce over slices in pan. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 40 minutes. Makes eight dumplings.

CINNAMON CANDY SAUCE

1/2 cup cornstarch
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup red cinnamon candies (red hot)
2 1/2 cups water
Mix together cornstarch and brown sugar. Add candies and water. Cook until clear and thickened, stirring constantly. Serve warm or cold over dumplings. Makes enough sauce for eight servings, one-fourth cup each.

OBITUARIES

Behrens

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, at the Seguin Funeral Home on North Second street, for Henry Behrens, former Highland Park, who succumbed on the preceding Sunday to an illness of several years, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ida Campbell, of Lake Forest.

Born in Glencoe 80 years ago, he lived there for 65 years before moving to Highland Park. A well known builder, he supervised the construction of the first section of the Moraine hotel. He was a charter member of Glencoe Masonic lodge.

Besides Mrs. Campbell, he is survived by three other daughters, Mrs. Lillian Churen Wahlen of Skokie, Miss Florence Behrens of Lake Forest and Miss Hazel Behrens of Chicago; two sons, William of Glenview and Henry J. of Highland Park; two brothers, William Behrens of Genoa, Wis., and Charles Behrens of Lake Geneva, Wis., and two grandchildren.

Interment was made in Ridgewood cemetery, Des Plaines.

Boe

Services were conducted on Tuesday in Sacred Heart, Minnesota, for Rev. T. T. Boe, who died at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Dahle, 800 Ridgewood, the preceding Thursday, at the age of 83.

NORTH SHORE CONGREGATION ISRAEL

Dr. Edgar Siskin, Rabbi
Glencoe, Ill. Phone, Glencoe 725

Services—Friday nights at 8:30 p.m.

Born in Norway, Reverend Boe came to this country at the age of 17. He was ordained in the Lutheran church in 1902 and retired in 1931, being stationed as pastor in Portland, Oregon, before coming to Highland Park last July.

Surviving in addition to Mrs. Dahle, are six sons, the Rev. T. Boe of Lake Mills, Ia., D. L. Boe of Portland, Ore., Dr. F. L. Boe of Portland, Ore., Amos Boe of Los Angeles, Calif., Norris Boe of Pullman, Wash., and J. Boe of Los Angeles, and three other daughters, Mrs. A. Bowers of Riverside, Calif., Mrs. G. Kavadias of Battle Ground, Wash., and Mrs. J. Burtness of Robinsdale, Minn.

Thom

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 21, at the Immaculate Conception church, for Mrs. Catherine Thom, 76, of 7 Hickory street, who passed away suddenly on Wednesday, May 17.

Born in Chicago on December 21, 1873, she had lived in Highland Park continuously since 1908. She and her husband, Charles, operated a grocery store for a number of years where their present business now is. They were married for 57 years.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons, Wesley and Lorraine of Highland Park; a daughter, Mrs. Gladys Brown of Los Angeles, California; four grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery.

The point winners for the local team were Kiddle who took third in the 100 yard dash and third in the 220 yard dash; Swift took the only first place for the Blue and White as he copped the 440 yard dash in 53.6; Big Bob George, Highland Park's most promising field event man, a sophomore, took a second place tie in the High Jump with Dorough ending up in a five way tie for fourth place in the same event; Watrous placed second in the pole vault; Dobus was fifth in the 200 yard low hurdles while Wilbur was third in the 880 yard run. Highland Park's 880 yard relay team and the Medley relay team both came in second. Benson, another sophomore, took fourth in the discus throw to end the scoring for the Little Giants.

In the special event division the Blue and White frosh-soph relay team copped first place and the freshman relay team came in second. This meet brought to a close the 1950 season for Coach Mark Panther's varsity and Dorman Morrison's frosh-soph teams. Considering the lack of experience these boys have had they did a good job this year.
