

TOP—(1) "What's this?" Don't tell anyone, but Mr. Stewart is having another episode with Louie. (2) Looks like some of the gang at the Hobo Hop. CENTER—(1) Here we find three of the boys beating it out on the drums. (2) Well, look who is cutting at Elliott's today? (3) Who's of the members of Fenwick just drying off. Joanne Feibel, left; Peggy Elze, center; and Whayer Furber, right. (4) Seems like the school bus is out on the job again. It really gets a work-out. BOTTOM—(1) Three of our senior girls seem to be learning the art of cooking. What we want to know is, "How did it turn out?"

Moose Governors Join "Five for Five" Club

On Decoration day the Local Moose Lodge's "Governors" softball team defeated the Woodstock ten to the tune of 17 to 1. All three in this photo batted "five for five" and are "regulars" sharpening their claws in anxiety, awaiting the Charity ball game with the Martin Jewelers at Sunset Park on Sunday, June 25. As yet the Loyal Order of Moose boys (Governors) are undefeated in either league, and are virtually playing with their "fingers crossed". In this photo naming from left to right: "Rudy" John Freimuth, Eddie Sjoberg, and Wallace "Orangey" Huehl.

Let's all make a date for June 25 at Sunset Park! Donations solicited! Proceeds to be divided
