(SPECIAL TO THE HIGHLAND PARK PRESS)

Musical Comedies, Baseball and Addenda

Next Sunday night lucky Highland Parkers will attend the premiere of the North Shore's new Music Theater, located at Skokie and County Line Roads.

"Naughty Marietta", Victor Herbert's outstanding operetta, will be in the spotlight and it'll be the first musical in what appears will be a bright 10 week season.

A new musical and/or operetta will be given each week by the talented company. Barrie O'Daniels is managing director of the venture.

The new North Shore Musical Theater proposes to establish production headquarters here for its yearly three month engagement.

Director O'Daniels, by the way, is the director of the Detroit Civic Opera Co. and is mighty talented in his creative field.

You'll remember Harry Stockwell. He was "Curly" in "Oklahoma!" He heads the "Naughty Marietta" cast. Elaine Malbin, well known soprano, is another feature star. And Alexis Rotov handles comedy sequences.

Edward Clarke Lilley is the director; George Pronath, choreographer; and Paul Walker, musical director.

After "Naughty Marietta" comes "Rio Rita", week of July 4. "New Moon" is next. "The Vagabond King", "Sweethearts", "Irene", "The Great Waltz", "The Merry Widow", "Roberta", and "The Desert Song" follow.

To this reviewer it looks like a happy and musical summer.

We wish the new, North Shore Music Theater good luck!

Community Benefit Game . . .

Like baseball?

If you do, and if you want to see the Major League's Softball Professionals in action, come on out to the Community Benefit Game next Sunday, June 25, at Sunset Park.

Feature game, between the Highland Park Moose and the champion Martin Jeweters, begins at 3 P.M. Better be on hand to see 16 inch softball at its best.

Entire proceeds are to be shared by the Highland Park Hospital and our recreation board. The big game is being sponsored by Highland Park's loyal order of the Moose.

Credit Blue Goose owner Arnold Freeman with this whole idea to bring the best in baseball to Highland Parkers.

You'll have refreshments, music, and a gay time; and you'll see top baseball.

Remember! Sunset Park, Sunday, June 25.

Come by 1 P.M. Watch the League game between Antioch's Moose Lodge and Highland Park "Governors". At 2:30 an exhibition game between Women of the Moose and Fort Sheridan Wacs. Fort Sheridan's band will parade then, too.

And at 3, the BIG game!

Dr. Douglas Boyd Speaks At Monday Meeting Of Kiwanis

Monday night's speaker at the meeting of the Kiwanis club was Dr. Douglas Boyd, who has served as City Health officer in Highland Park for the past eight years.

Dr. Boyd presented a comprehensive picture of the sanitation problem in Lake county, feeling strongly that the problem is a county project. There is an imperative need for a County Health department, he affirmed. In fact, it is a must, in order to prevent the spread of contagion.

"The Glass Menagerie" Is Tenthouse Play-of-Week

By Whitt Northmore Schultz

It's not a play that'll make you laugh or even smile much.

But it's a play that'll make you think . . . and realize how lucky you are.

The play? Tennessee Williams' grim, prize-winning, "The Glass Menagerie." Highland Park's Tenthouse stars are presenting it this week. The tragedy runs through next Sunday.

"The Barretts", with guest star Donald Curtis, in Highland Park for just this play, opens next Tuesday.

"The Glass Menagerie" concerns itself with a mother and her two, grown, unhappy children, son Tom and crippled daughter, Laura.

Marrian Walters is the mother, and excellent in the part she is, equally as fine as Laurette Taylor was on Broadway.

Barnard Hughes, who narrates and takes the part of the son, gives an even performance and a moving one as the young, aspiring poet who must work in a warehouse to support his mother and his sister.

The sister is pathetically played by Helen Stenborg who proves once again the depth of her acting talent.

Director Michael Ferrall, making his first performance of the season, is the "gentleman caller" the mother is so anxious to have visit her shy daughter.

All does not end happily in this play. There's no fancy Hollywood ending to this one. Just stark reality. But you'll enjoy it. It's different than the usual light Tenthouse presentations. Even the scenery is heavy.

Add it all up and you have a gripping play that proves the Tenthouse Players are bringing the finest acting to our town.

Edward A. Guest To Address Graduates At Mooseheart

The nation's most cosmopolitan high school graduating class will receive diplomas on Saturday, June 24.

The class is made up of 20 boys and 21 girls from 16 states and Canada. They will be graduated from the high school of a town composed entirely of children—Mooseheart, Ill.

Mooseheart, 37 miles west of Chicago, is the "Child City" maintained by the Loyal Order of Moose, national fraternal order, for nearly 1,000 sons and daughters of deceased members. The children, ranging from infants to high school seniors, are natives of every state, Canada and Alaska.

Commencement is always a momentous event in the lives of the youngsters, since they leave Mooseheart immediately afterward to find work in the vocations for which they have been trained, or to continue their education at colleges or trade schools throughout the nation. Old grads frankly admit they "still get homesick for Mooseheart." Reason for the intense loyalty is that to many of them it represents the only home they ever had.

In every conceivable way, this year's graduates—and the 5,000 other boys and girls who have lived at Mooseheart since its founding in 1913—have been prepared for successful careers. To that end, more than $28,000,000 has been poured into the city.

At the June 24 graduation ceremony, to be held at 10:30 a.m. in Roosevelt Memorial auditorium on the Mooseheart campus, the commencement address will be delivered by poet-Edgar A. Guest. Arthur G. Adams, Mooseheart high school principal, will present the class to Appellate Judge Ralph M. E. Donges of Camden, N. J., chairman of the board of Mooseheart governors, who will award the diplomas to the 41 boys and girls.

"G. G." Bids Farewell

Due to increased business responsibilities G. G. Piacenza, the coach of the Highwood Junior American Legion baseball team has been forced to give up the coaching duties for the remainder of the year.

Scout Delegation Leaves June 23 To Attend Jamboree

Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan, the summer camp of the North Shore Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, opens its 22nd season today, June 22. The Scout Executive, E. A. Schwechel, announced that while the camp was filled to capacity, Scouts desiring to go may register on a waiting list for the second or third periods. The camp this year will accommodate 220 Scouts and 53 leaders.

Scouts leaving by train will assemble at the Northwestern station at 8:30 a.m. Approximately 150 Scouts are expected to make the trip by train on the 22nd with the balance going up with parents by car or bus.

Practically the entire camp staff arrived in camp on the 16th for a week of training and last minute preparations under the direction of Field Executive Don Santy.

Because of the large enrollment and as a health measure, parents are reminded that minor children will not be permitted on the camp grounds. Parents are also urged to observe the regular visiting days: the opening and closing of each camp period, Saturday evenings, Sunday mornings and afternoons. Also because of the capacity camp, meals can not be served to visitors without 48 hours notice.

The Scout leaders planning to visit camp are requested to notify the Council office in advance.

Mr. Schwechel also announced that he has received an appointment on the National Staff for the Jamboree to be held at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania. He will serve as Director of Camp Transportation and will leave for the Jamboree on June 22.

The North Shore Area Council is sending a delegation comprising of 74 Scouts and leaders, leaving for the Jamboree on Friday, June 23, going directly to Washington, D. C. for four days of sight seeing and then on to Valley Forge on the 27th for pre-Jamboree training.

The two Jamboree Troops will be under the leadership of: John McKee, Scoutmaster, Troop 23, Glencoe; John Kirby, Scoutmaster, Troop 18, Winnetka; Medill Radloff, Commissioner, Northwest District; George Putnam, Scoutmaster, Troop 2, Wilmette; Ed Spellman, Scoutmaster, Troop 3, Wilmette; Charles Gudbransen, Assistant Scoutmaster, Troop 13, Winnetka; and Henry Diegerich, Assistant Scoutmaster, Troop 62, Northbrook.

Legion Team Ties Zion
The Highwood Junior American Legion baseball team played to a 4 to 4 tie with Zion on Wednesday, June 21 at Zion. The boys whipped North Chicago by an 11 to 2 score last week. The next game will be against Deerfield, Friday, July 23 at Memorial field.
