RECENT BRIDES

The Congregational church in Springfield, Illinois was the scene of the wedding of Miss Alice Carroll Jordan and Robert Ford Redfearn on Saturday, June 17, at 4 p.m. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carroll Jordan of Springfield and the bridegroom is the son of the Harry H. Redfearns of 1439 S. Sheridan road.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white organdy with applique organdy trim. Her fingertip veil fell from a halo of white organdy leaves. She carried white roses.

The bride's attendants were gowned alike in pale pink organdy. The wreaths in their hair of blue delphinium, pink roses, and white flowers matched the colonial bouquets they carried. Miss Frances Glisson of Springfield was maid of honor and the Misses Janice Overaker and Beverly Phillips, also of Springfield, were bridesmaids.

Paul Daube of 265 Lambert Tree drive served the bridegroom as best man and William McCulloch of 1358 Broadview avenue and Robert Peterson of Deerfield ushered.

A reception at the Illini club in Springfield followed the ceremony.

After a three weeks' honeymoon at the Broadmoor in Colorado, Mr. Redfearn and his bride will reside in Evanston.

Gowned in white satin made with long sleeves, a fitted bodice with a square pearl trimmed yoke, and full skirt, and carrying lilies of the valley and white orchids, Miss Susan Ann Sheridan became the bride of Malcolm John McPhee at the Immaculate Conception church on Saturday, June 17. The 11 a.m. ceremony was performed by the Rev. Bernard E. Burns. The bride's father gave her in marriage. She is the daughter of the John E. Sheridans of 1632 Hillside drive and the bridegroom is the son of the A. V. McPhees of 1701 Hillside drive.

Miss Sheila Sheridan attended her sister as maid of honor and Mrs. Murray Sheridan, her sister-in-law, Miss Mary McPhee, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Patricia Trudeau of Hubbard Woods were bridesmaids. The attendants were all gowned alike in yellow organdy and eyelet made with bouffant skirts and short jackets over the fitted bodices. Their horsehair picture hats matched their frocks and they carried shower bouquets of blue delphinium, pink roses, yellow daisies and ivy. A spray of the same flowers made the maid of honor's hat slightly different than the others.

Murray Sheridan served as best man and L. Athanas of Highland Park, Matthew Doyle of Chicago and William Lynch of Forest Park ushered.

The bride's mother chose a powder blue moss crepe and lace dress with matching hat and a corsage of lavender orchids. The bridegroom's mother was in a champagne colored dress with matching accessories and coral colored flowered hat. Her corsage was of green orchids.

A reception was held at 1 o'clock in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride attended Washington university in St. Louis and Mundein college and the bridegroom attended Seewanee academy in Seewanee, Tennessee and Michigan State.

Following a three weeks' wedding trip to Lake Louise in Canada, Mr. McPhee and his bride will live in Evanston.

When Miss Virginia Sheahan became the bride of George M. Houlihan on Saturday, June 10, her five sisters preceded her down the aisle as attendants. The Misses Nancy, maid of honor, and Mary, bridesmaid, were gowned alike in white organdy over blue taffeta, while Barbara, junior bridesmaid, and Anita and Patrice, flower girls, were in white organdy over yellow taffeta. They all wore yellow daisies in their hair and carried bouquets of the same flowers and ivy.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore an embroidered white organdy dress and illusion veil and carried yellow roses and small white flowers. She is the daughter of the Raymond J. Sheahens of 435 S. St. Johns avenue and the bridegroom is the son of the James T. Houlihan of Chicago. The 11 a.m. ceremony was read by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph P. Morrison at the Immaculate Conception church.

Best man was Hugh Hanlon of Chicago and the ushers were Neil Baldwin, William Gallagher and Patrick Nolan, all also of Chicago.

The bride's mother was in aqua. She wore a large white straw pinwheel hat, lace trimmed. Her corsage was of tea roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a dark blue print dress complemented by a corsage of pink carnations, and the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Bernard Steffen of Glencoe avenue, chose a green and grey print dress for the occasion. She, too, had a corsage of pink carnations. The following day she and her husband celebrated their forty-first wedding anniversary.

A breakfast for the immediate families and bridal party followed the ceremony at the Moraine hotel. About five hundred attended the reception held at the Elks club from 3 to 6 p.m.

After a honeymoon in Michigan Mr. Houlihan and his bride will live in Chicago where he will continue his studies at De Paul university in the fall. The bride is a graduate of Highland Park High school and the Oak Park unit of Nursing at Loyola university hospital. At present she is a Public Health nurse in Chicago.

On Saturday, June 17, Miss Patricia Mae Pehlke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pehlke of Riverside, Illinois, and John Louis Heymann, son of the Walter M. Heymanns of 115 Park lane were united in marriage at the Riverside Ascension Evangelical Lutheran church at 6 p.m.

The bride's gown was of white lace and her shoulder length veil fell from a Juliet cap of seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white delphinium. Her father gave her in marriage.

Maid of honor was Miss Barbara Pehlke, sister of the bride, and bridesmaid was Miss Mona Miltonberger of Spring Valley. Their gowns were of pale blue lace and they carried pink delphinium and wore the same flowers in their hair.

Robert Heymann served his brother as best man and two other brothers, Walter, Jr. and Edward, and David Greenberg ushered.

The bridegroom graduated from Lake Forest college in January and his bride received her degree, also from Lake Forest, on June 3.

A reception at the Oak Park Elks club followed the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to Big Boulder Inn, Boulder Junction, Wisconsin, Mr. Heymann and his bride will reside at 213 Park avenue.

The marriage of Miss Gloria Masini and Oswald Mazzetta was solemnized in St. James church, Highland, on Saturday, June 3. The Rev. Gleeson heard the exchange of nuptial vows at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John Buccanti of 412 Waukegan avenue, Highland and the bridegroom is the son of the Peter M. Mazzettas of 313 Highland avenue.

The bride's gown was of white organdy. The headdress of her fingertip veil was a pearl beaded silk and organdy tiara. She carried lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Leonard Favelli (Eileen Phillips) attended as matron of honor and the Misses Frances Pasquesi and Lenore Phillips and Mrs. Eugene Vogds were bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in white organdy and wore white picture hats. Their bouquets were of lilies of the valley and other small white flowers. Little Joan Ugolini, flower girl, was a miniature of the other attendants.

Peter Mazzetta, Jr. served his brother as best man and the ushers were Robert Masini, brother of the bride, Adolph Baracani, Aldo Cabri, Bruno DeBartolo and David Santi. David Volpendesta acted as ring bearer.

A breakfast followed the ceremony at the Moraine hotel for the immediate families and bridal party and at 2 p.m. a dinner was held at Mrs. Fabbri's in Highland. A reception was held at the Highland Community center at 8 p.m.

The bride's mother wore a green suit at the church ceremony and a light blue dress at the evening reception. Her corsage was an orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore a grey suit. She, too, wore an orchid.

After a wedding trip to the west coast, Mr. Mazzetta and his bride will live with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean Ingwersen (Mary Alice Larson) of 346 Park avenue were attendants at the wedding of Mr. Ingwersen's sister, Barbara, on Saturday, June 17. Mrs. Ingwersen attended the bride as a bridesmaid and Mr. Ingwersen ushered.

Miss Ingwersen became the bride of Donald Q. Davidson in the Church of the Holy Comforter, Kenilworth at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon. A reception followed the ceremony in the Evanston home of the bride's parents.

There's nothing like an
to help you keep cool!

Saves your steps...

No more running up and down stairs to tend your water heater... you'll save your energy and keep cool while an automatic electric water heater supplies you with plenty of hot water. You'll have hot water 'round the clock... with no effort on your part at all!

Speeds your showering...

You'll have all the hot water you want for refreshing showers and baths... anytime you feel like cooling off. An automatic electric water heater is cool, too... heavy wrap-around insulation keeps the heat inside and saves you money.

Lightens the laundry...

Those mountains of summer washables melt in a hurry... when you have abundant hot water for the laundry. You can do a spur-of-the-moment washing anytime... just turn the tap. Clothes are brighter and whiter, too, when they're washed and rinsed in hot—not lukewarm—water.

Make this a carefree summer... let an automatic electric water heater take over your hot water worries.
