

THIS WEEK ... IN HIGHLAND PARK

BY ALICE ZABEL

Telephone Highland Park 2064

BARBARA JONES, A BRIDE

The Presbyterian church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Barbara Minter Jones and William Hamilton Sihler on Saturday, June 24. The 8:30 p.m. ceremony was read by the Rev. Dr. William A. Young. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Telford Jones of 310 N. Linden avenue and the bridegroom is the son of the Alfred T. Sihlers of 931 Lincoln avenue. A reception followed at the Exmoor Country club.

The bride's white satin gown was made with an illusion neckline and long train. Duchess lace, which came from the wardrobe of the Empress Eugenie, was used on the collar of the dress and on the cap headpiece of her full length net veil. The strand of pearls she wore belonged to her maternal grandmother. Her bouquet was of white orchids and stephanotis. Mr. Jones gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. William M. Jones of Cleveland, Ohio, was matron of honor for her sister-in-law. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Philip Krum of Long Beach, California, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Elizabeth Kerber, cousin of the bride; Miss Margaret Flynn of East Chicago, Indiana; Mrs. Evan Olson and Mrs. Russell Pfaff, both of Chicago; Mrs. Robert Southern of Evanston and Miss Martha Wilcox of Council Bluffs, Iowa. The attendants were all dressed alike in aqua organza, and they carried old fashioned bouquets of gardenias and pale yellow daisies.

Best man was John Sihler, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were William Jones, brother of the bride; John Lanigan, David Suttle and Thomas Walsh, all of Highland Park; Joseph Hamilton of Fort Wayne, Indiana; Richard Lane of Sante Fe, New Mexico and Russell Pfaff of Chicago.

The bride's mother wore rose beige over taffeta and the bridegroom's mother chose a champagne colored crepe dress for the occasion. Each wore a corsage of orchids.

Mr. Sihler and his bride are now on a three weeks' wedding trip to Rutgers Resort, Minnesota. On their return they will occupy the home of the bride's parents while the Joneses are away for the summer at their Gray's Lake cottage.

DEBUT TEA
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Parliament of 851 N. Sheridan road introduced their daughter, Bette Jane, to their friends at a tea at their home on Saturday, June 24. Assisting Miss Parliament were Miss Nancy Lou Parliament, her sister, and the Misses Lynn Dalton of Fish Creek, Wisconsin; Mary Ann Hopkins of Northbrook, Ann Redfield of Glencoe and Nancy Waggett of Highland Park.

Following the tea, the Parliaments were hosts at dinner for their daughter, her assistants and their escorts before they went on to the Pump Room for an evening of dancing.

WEEK-END IN MICHIGAN
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Date of 1726 Rice street and General and Mrs. W. H. Wilbur of 1540 Judson avenue were week-end guests of the Joseph B. Garnetts of 622 S. Linden avenue at their summer home in Epworth Heights, Michigan.

ELIZABETH KLINE WEDS
The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Jane Kline, daughter of the Edwin Klins of 1020 N. Green Bay road and Herman Bernard Firestone took place in the garden of the Samuel Baskins of 340 Moraine road, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, on Sunday, June 25, at 5 p.m. Rabbi Siskin heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride was gowned in white marquisette made with a long train. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried gardenias and stephanotis.

Miss Jean Kline, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and the Misses Doris Brown of Highland Park, Evelyn Casper of Chicago and Rae Korjack of Glencoe were bridesmaids. Judy Baskin, niece of the bridegroom, attended as junior bridesmaid and Susan Firestone, also his niece, and Leslie Korjack were flower girls. The attendants were all gowned alike in pink-nylon net. Their accessories and picture lace straw hats matched their gowns. Their bouquets were of blue delphinium. Saul Firestone of Chicago served his brother as best man and William and Nathan Firestone, also brothers of the bridegroom, and Ralph Radwin, all of Chicago, ushered. Roy Kline, brother of the bride, served as junior usher.

The bride's mother was in pink taffeta and her corsage was of gardenias.

Dinner for two hundred guests followed the ceremony in the garden.

Mr. Firestone and his bride left by plane for Miami Beach and the Bahamas for a three weeks' honeymoon. On their return they will reside with the Baskins.

WEEK-END AT LAKE GENEVA

The Misses Lynn Ahrens of 920 S. Sheridan road, Dee Dee Smart of 99 Sycamore place and Janis Zabel of 1348 Broadview avenue were the week-end guests of Miss Peggy King of 1727 Broadview avenue at the Kings' summer home at Lake Geneva.

BETROTHAL TOLD

The betrothal of Miss Ann Louise Steacy, daughter of the J. R. Steacys of 1235 Burton avenue, to Thomas J. Clark, son of the Thomas P. Clarks of 426 Oakwood avenue, has recently been announced by her parents. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Steacy graduated on June 8 from the Highland Park High school. Her fiance served for sixteen months in Japan following the war.

PURDUE GRADUATES

Three students from Highland Park were among approximately 2,300 candidates for degrees at the 94th Commencement exercises of Purdue university on Sunday, June 18, in the Hall of Music.

The Highland Park graduates were: Elizabeth L. Lacy, 1645 Dato avenue, bachelor of science in agriculture; Jerome B. Peterson, 222 S. Green Bay road and Robert L. Berg, 1 Sheldon lane, who both received bachelor of science degrees in chemical engineering; Bob Berg also received a bachelor degree in naval science and tactics.

FRANK SHELTON TAKES A BRIDE

On Saturday, June 24, at 6 p.m. Miss Adeline Lucille Zahrt, daughter of Mrs. Esther Zahrt of Wausau, Wisconsin, became the bride of Frank D. Shelton, son of the George Sheltons of Laveen, Arizona, formerly of Highland Park, in the Zion Lutheran church in Wausau.

The bride, who was gowned in white organdy, was attended by Miss Lillian Zahrt, her sister. Her frock was of pink organdy. Marvin Tosch of Wausau was best man.

William Anker and John Swanson of Ravinia and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shelton and daughter, Linda, of Duck Lake Woods, Illinois, were in Wausau to attend the ceremony.

Following a honeymoon in Wisconsin, Mr. Shelton and his bride will reside in Marshfield, Wisconsin, where he is in charge of a Singer Sewing Machine Co. store.

STANFORD U. ALUMNI

Included in the record-breaking class of 3,012 graduates at Stanford university, California, on June 18 were the following Highland Parkers: Noel Irma Behn, B. A. in Economics, and Paul Bloomfield Zeisler, Jr., B. A. in History.

SANDRA MEITUS MARRIES

Beneath an arched arbor covered with white and yellow flowers and overlooking the ravine, in the garden of her parents' home, Miss Sandra June Meitus became the bride of Marvin Isenstein on Sunday, June 25. The 5 p.m. ceremony was read by Dr. Louis Binstock of Temple Shalom. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Meitus of 231 Ravine drive and the bridegroom is the son of the Morris Isensteins of Chicago.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white embroidered organdy. Her veil of modern fingertip length, fell from a cap headpiece of Brussels lace. Her bouquet was of stephanotis and white flowers.

Preceding the bride down the column of white and yellow bouquets and garlands of greenery were Miss Lila Meitus, who attended her sister as maid of honor and the bridesmaids, another sister, Miss Iris Meitus, Mrs. Robert Gross, Miss Barbara Naft and Mrs. Sherwin Zimmerman. Their ballerina length gowns were of white organza, embroidered in yellow. Their picture hats matched their gowns. With their white lace fans they carried yellow fleur d' amour.

Best man was Robert Gross and the ushers were Richard Cardozo, Irving Cohn, Gene Gold and Sherwin Zimmerman.

The bride's mother chose a poppy colored organza gown for the occasion and her corsage was of yellow flowers. The bridegroom's mother was in grey sheer complemented by a corsage of white orchids.

The 260 guests who assembled for the ceremony under a large green and white striped canopy lighted by electrified lanterns, remained for buffet dinner. On each of the tables, covered with white satin cloths, was a hurricane lamp and bouquet of gardenias and smilax. A bouquet of lilies of the valley topped the huge cake, frosted in white with touches of yellow, lilies of the valley. Yellow iris and white delphinium decorated the two tiered buffet tables.

An additional three hundred guests arrived later for the reception, which was also held in the garden. An orchestra was engaged for dancing on the improvised dance floor.

Following a honeymoon in the Smoky Mountains and Miami, Florida, Mr. Isenstein and his bride will reside in Evanston.

RECEIVES AWARD

Henry Date, son of the Paul Dates of 1726 Rice street, has received the Dana Award for Personal Achievement, established last year, it was recently announced by Carleton college, Northfield, Minnesota. This award of $75 was presented to Mr. Date as the "most well-rounded young man in the senior class who has been adjudged as having a most balanced combination of high scholarship, promising leadership qualities and outstanding Christian character."

Mr. Date, who graduated on June 11, plans to enter the ministry. He will attend the McCormick Theological seminary in Chicago in the fall. He is a councillor at a camp in Michigan this summer.

JOY PETERSON ENGAGED

The engagement of Miss Joy Lariene Peterson to Norman T. Nelson of San Francisco, California, has recently been announced by her parents, the Arnold Petersons of 1291 Broadview avenue. Mr. Nelson is the son of the Nels Nelsons of Des Moines, Iowa.

Miss Peterson, who was graduated this month from Wheaton college, where she received her bachelor of arts degree, is a graduate of the Highland Park High school. Her fiance is a mechanical engineer.

The young couple will be married in the fall. They will make their home in San Francisco.

CONVENTION DELEGATES

The Misses Irene Jones and Elizabeth Doty, teachers in the Highland Park schools, will represent teachers of this town at the 88th annual meeting of the National Education Association in St. Louis July 3-7, NEA headquarters announced recently.

The Assembly, representing a record membership of the organization, will be the largest in the history of the Association. Delegates will be present from every state and from the territories of Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico to participate in the discussion of problems confronting the teaching profession and the educational welfare of children.

NEWCOMERS TO HIGHLAND PARK

Mr. and Mrs. William Bloom recently moved into their newly built home at 2383 Indian Tree drive. They are from Chicago. Mr. Bloom is in the newspaper advertising business, connected with the Chicago Herald American.

From Wilmette are Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lipman and sons, Marc and Tom. They built their home at 145 Roger Williams avenue. Mr. Lipman is in the carpeting business in Chicago.

Marc, 23, graduated in February from the University of Illinois. He also attended Michigan State and Lake Forest college. He served for two years in the army during the war. Tom, 16, will resume his studies at New Trier High school in the fall. He will be entering his senior year.

Newcomers to Highland Park are the G. P. Nolans of 425 S. Linden avenue. From Oak Park, they are the parents of four children, Bucky, 7, Michael, 5, Judy, 4, and Kathie, 6 months. Mr. Nolan is an American Can Company representative.

Formerly of Chicago are the James S. Silvermans of 2605 Castlewood road. The Silvermans, who built their home here, are the parents of a daughter, Karla, 2. Mr. Silverman is Sales Representative for Backall Brothers.

Now living in the home they recently built are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Goldboss of 295 Woodland road. Mr. Goldboss is owner of a retail furniture store in Chicago. Their daughter, Sandra, will enter Highland Park High school as a freshman in the fall. Their son, Fred, will be a seventh grade student at the Ravinia school. They formerly lived on Junior Terrace, Chicago.

Recently of Chicago and now living in the home they recently built are the William J. Pathmans of 684 Delta road. The Pathmans are parents of twins, Laurel Sue and Richard, 16 months old.

Dr. and Mrs. Zachary A. Blier and daughter, Janet 4, and son, John, 3, are now living in the home they recently built at 405 Sunnyside avenue. Dr. Blier practices in Chicago at the present time. They formerly lived on the South Side, Chicago.

DEBUTANTS FETED

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence F. McClure of 333 Woodland road were hosts at Ravinia's opening night to the following debutants:

Dee Dee Bingham, Mary Ann Neuses, Suzanne Searle and Jan Ann Turner; their escorts; Mr. and Mrs. Irl Marshall, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steinhoff all of Highland Park.

Ravinia Opening—

(Continued from page 1)

food of the Carousal on the grounds, operated this year by John Charters of the Robin Hood Barns in Evanston and Park Ridge, while others found it delightful before the concert to picnic on the beautiful lawn and use the fireplaces provided.

Chairman of the Ravinia Festival Association is Howell Murray of 31 N. Linden avenue. Francis M. Knight of 411 Lake avenue is in charge of programs; Julian Collins, chairman of the guaranty committee and Mrs. L. F. McClure of 333 Woodland road is co-chairman with Mrs. Ernst C. Von Ammon, of the Women's committee.

PERSONAL
I'm ready to serve as your constant companion, personal messenger and social secretary... help with shopping, run errands. I work 16 hours a day with no time off and no vacations— for just a few nickels a day. I'm your telephone.

ANNOUNCING
ANTON and ERNEST FRUIT STAND
Now Open For Business
Skokie Hwy.—1/4 Mile North of Dundee Road
Glencoe 2492

GET YOUR MILK FROM BOWMAN
BOWMAN MILK
IS WHOLE MILK
At your door; at the store

It's Freezin' Season!
get your HOME FREEZER NOW!
Now's the time to freeze the flavor (and vitamins and minerals) in plentiful fruits and vegetables.
If you have your own garden you can save food dollars by enjoying the vegetables from it all year long... because frozen foods stay fresh for months. It's so easy and quick to preserve foods by freezing... so easy to rely on your freezer for emergency meals, frozen-fresh pastries, and shopping-saving menu treats.
Take advantage of this special offer of FREE frozen foods... get your home freezer now!
Ask about the new Home Freezers at your dealer's or our nearest store today.
SMALL DOWN PAYMENT... balance payable in easy terms on your monthly Service Bill.
SPECIAL OFFER
$25 worth FREE frozen foods with a Home Freezer of 6 cubic foot capacity or over. This offer good only until July 15, 1950.
PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS

HOUSE CLEANING? CURTAIN TROUBLES?
Call PARKWAY Curtain Laundry
For All types of curtains—spreads, table linens and blankets.
DRY CLEANING (all types)
Free Pick-up and Delivery
53 N. Green Bay
HI 2-5804

Highland Ten Pin
139 N. Second St.
TEL. H. P. 319
OPEN BOWLING
Every Day from 12:30 to 6:30 P.M.
Call HI 2-0319
for bowling instructions
OPEN ALL DAY WEDNESDAY

North Shore Florist and Landscape Service
JOS. KOLBECK
Telegraph Delivery Service
Phone Glencoe 6 0 9
290 Greenwood Avenue
Glencoe, Illinois
FLOWERS FOR EVERY OCCASION