City Recreation Department 16 Inch Softball League

The 16 inch softball league sponsored by the Highland Park Recreation Department will play its final games of the 1st round tonight. The feature game of the evening matches the Moose Sr. Governors, who lead the league, and the strong Haven Club. Should the Haven upset the Moose a three way tie may result if Fells Clothiers and Washington Gardens win their games.

In other games tonight the V. F. W. plays the Monarchs. These two clubs are tied for 5th place. Acme Liquors should give the strong Washington Gardens Club a tough game. Acme played Fells last night in a make-up game, results of which were unknown when we went to press. If Acme won last night they still have a chance to tie for honors in the first round.

The night game brings together the Moose Jr. Governors and the Post Office. The Moose Jr. still haven't broken into the win column and hope to do so against the Post Office team.

Last week's games were all close except for the Fells—Moose Jr. game which Fells won 24-6. Al Danakas knocked out two home runs for Fells. Slugger Danakas has been trying for seven years to hit a home run on Sunset Park diamond and last Thursday was his night when he came through with two round trips.

The V. F. W. forfeited their game to Acme Liquors due to the fact that they were short a couple of men. They did, however, defeat Acme with a couple of pick-ups in a game which was nip and tuck all the way. The score tied at 12 all in the last of the 9th two doubles by Francis and Neil brought home the winning run to give the V. F. W. a 13-12 victory.

The Post Office team played heads-up ball against the Moose Sr. making the Moose play its best before they could garner their 6th victory. Score—Moose, 13 and Post Office, 9.

League Standings

Table with columns: Team, Won, Lost. Includes Moose Sr. Governors (6-1), Washington Gardens (5-2), Fells (5-2), Acme Liquors (4-2), Haven (3-4), Monarchs (3-4), V. F. W. (3-4), Post Office (2-5), Moose Jr. Governors (0-7).

Girl Scout News

Christmas in midsummer is an intriguing thought—especially to the Brownies of the First Period Day Camp at the Girl Scout Lodge. They recently decided to decorate a small tree near their campsite with paper chains and ornaments and to bring Christmas-wrapped gifts to be given to the Lake Bluff Orphanage. They sang Christmas carols, and told Christmas stories. All the other campers came to see this delightful bit of fun, and one could almost hear sleighbells in the air.

Another gay party ended the First Period of the camp. Girl Scouts and Brownies all became parts of a circus and gave a show worthy of any "Big Top". Brownies wore 3-dimensional masks of elephants, dogs, a monkey, wolf, lamb, tiger, lion, zebra and bear. They danced and jumped through hoops. In the intermediate groups, the Cheyennes gave animal acts, with a boxing gorilla, trained bears and seals, dogs and clowns. The Chicagamis had a side show, with a fat lady, a midget couple who danced, two hula dancers, a snake charmer (with rubber snakes), a fortune-teller, Hop-a-Long Cassidy (an enevitable feature), and a Radio-Active man of fearful aspect. There was also a pair of Siamese twins, encased in one big pair of pants, one big shirt, and one bandana around both heads. The Ramblers had three clown skits—a clown wed-
