BARBARA BAILEY BETHROTHED

The betrothal of Miss Barbara Ellen Bailey to E. Hugh Heck, Jr., son of the senior Hecks of Detroit, Michigan, was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bailey of 1237 Burton avenue, at a family supper party at home on Sunday evening. No date has been set for the wedding.

Both Miss Bailey and her fiancé were graduated in June from Albion college in Albion, Michigan. She is a member of Delta Gamma sorority and he is affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. Miss Bailey has taken a teaching position in the Waterford, Michigan, High school. Mr. Heck is planning to attend medical school in Chicago in the fall. Miss Bailey and her fiancé left on Monday for a three weeks' visit with his family in Detroit.

VACATIONING IN BERMUDA

Mr. John Lackner of 31 Ravine Terrace, Highland Park, is spending his vacation at the Hotel St. George in Bermuda.

CANADA CRUISE

Two Highland Park men, Midshipman Robert B. Kohn, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Kohn of 1006 Linden avenue, and Midshipman James B. Smalley, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Smalley of 485 Fairview road, are serving a tour of three weeks' active duty in the Naval Reserve aboard a Naval vessel which is scheduled to visit Quebec, Canada, for several days during the cruise.

APPROACHING WEDDING

Miss Margaret G. (Peggy) Stair, her parents, the H. Bowen Stairs and sisters, Holly and Cathie, of Short Hills, New Jersey, former Highland Parkers, returned here last week for her marriage to Karl C. Anderson, son of the C. W. Andersons of Litchfield, Minnesota, which will take place on Saturday, July 29, at the Trinity church. The 8 p.m. ceremony will be read by the Rev. Charles U. Harris. The bride's father will give her in marriage.

Miss Holly Stair will attend her sister as maid of honor and the Misses Cathy Stair, another sister; Ann Collins of Belmont, Massachusetts, a college classmate, and Jean Perrigo of Ravinia will be bridesmaids.

Louis Hoffman of Litchfield, cousin of the bridegroom, will serve as best man and Herbert Holt of Ravinia, Kenneth McDowell of Waterloo, Iowa and Jarl Natwick of St. Paul, Minnesota, will usher.

The bride-to-be graduated from Smith college this past month and her fiancé is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, School of Engineering.

After a week's honeymoon in northern Wisconsin, Mr. Anderson and his bride will leave for Waterloo, Iowa, where they will make their home.

RETURN HOME

Mrs. D. H. Irick (Pat Van Arsdale) and daughter, Judy, of Kokomo, Indiana, returned home on Monday after a ten day visit at the home of Mrs. Irick's aunts, the Misses Eve and Ruth Siljestrom, 218 Oakwood avenue.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The engagement of their daughter, Marie Ann, to Donald R. Lambert has recently been announced by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Frech of 800 Cloverdale avenue. Mr. Lambert is the son of the Joseph Lamberts of 19 Devonshire court.

Miss Frech was graduated this past month from the Highland Park High school and her fiancé is also a graduate of Highland Park.

No date has been chosen for the wedding.

JAMES FAHEY, JR. TAKES A BRIDE

On Saturday, July 15, Miss Anne Louise Beauvais, daughter of Louis J. Beauvais of Wilmette, and James G. Fahey, Jr., son of the senior Faheys of Deerfield, formerly of Highland Park, were united in marriage at St. Xavier church of Wilmette. The 12 o'clock nuptial mass was read by the Rev. Phillip J. Hayes.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. F. A. Marten of Wilmette, as matron of honor and by the Misses Patricia Hermann of Evanston, Jeanne Marten of Kenilworth and Joanne Schaefer of Wilmette as bridesmaids. Jeanette Marten of Wilmette, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl.

Edmund Josler of Highland Park served the bridegroom as best man and Charles Fitzgerald of Lake Forest, Robert Klemp of Deerfield and Robert Moran of Highland Park ushered.

Mr. Fahey and his bride will reside in Glencoe.

ENTERTAIN AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. George G. Postels and daughter, Miss Ann, of 1821 Kincaid street, were co-hostesses at luncheon on Saturday in honor of Miss Holly Stair of Short Hills, New Jersey, formerly of Highland Park. Miss Stair is here with her family for her sister's wedding next Saturday. She will attend as maid of honor.

Miss Stair just completed her first year at Smith college. Miss Postels is a student at Beloit college.

HIGHLAND PARK ARTISTS EXHIBIT IN CHICAGO

One hundred and twenty members of the No-Jury Society of Artists are exhibiting oils, water colors, and crafts in the Eighth Floor Art Exhibition Galleries at Mandel Brothers, one North State Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Highland Park is represented in the exhibition by Violette Rice, who is president of the Society, Marguerite Ramond of 2465 Briar Road, and E. Schaffner of 1139 Lincoln Avenue. Mrs. Rice has hung a small water color entitled "When Day is Done", which depicts a pair of well-worn work shoes, eloquently telling the story of human labor done by the wearer. Mrs. Rice lives at 320 N. Sheridan Road. "Summer on the Bay" is an abstract done in oil by Mrs. Ramond, and "Studio Still Life" is a competently constructed study by Mr. Schaffner.

The No-Jury Society is one of the largest art groups in the mid-western area. The exhibition includes a very wide range of subject matter and of media. All types of paintings have been submitted, from the most conservative to the ultra-modern. The exhibition will be on view during regular store hours in Mandel Brothers' galleries during the month of July.

HERE TO GREET NEW GRANDCHILDREN

Mrs. Clyde Schoonover and daughter, Anna Mae, of Milton Junction, Wisconsin, are visitors at the home of the John G. Zeivels (Frances Schoonover) of 316 N. Green Bay road. Here to greet her new grandson, John George Zeivel, Jr., who arrived at the Highland Park hospital on July 17, Mrs. Schoonover and Anna Mae will remain about two weeks longer.

Here to welcome their new granddaughter and niece, Clare Sue ZurWelle, born at the Highland Park hospital on July 17, are Mrs. Frank Klare Miller of Altoona, Pennsylvania and her daughter, Mrs. George H. Hagaman and young son, Dickie, of Morristown, New Jersey. They arrived on Saturday, July 15, and plan to remain another week.

The baby is the daughter of the Richard ZurWelles of 223 Cary avenue. Their other daughter, Lenore, is two years old.

WEDDING DATE CHOSEN

Saturday, August 19, has been chosen as the date of the wedding of Miss Marian Onesti, daughter of the John Onestis of 495 Sheridan place, and Marion Bernard Fiore, son of the Nick Fiore of S. Central avenue, Highwood. The 2 p.m. ceremony will take place in the Immaculate Conception church.

Miss Onesti has chosen Miss Jean Arnold of LaSalle, Illinois, as maid of honor and her cousin, Miss Brenda Onesti and the Misses Carol Lyle and Mildred Nanni of Highwood as bridesmaids.

Frank Fiore will serve his brother as best man and Robert Fiore, another brother; Wilmer Carlson of Highwood and Philip Casablanca of Chicago will usher.

Following a Wisconsin honeymoon, Mr. Fiore and his bride will reside with his grandmother, Mrs. Della Brasa of 309 Oak Terrace avenue, Highwood.

VISITS SISTER IN OREGON

Miss Mae Siljestrom of 218 Oakwood avenue will be returning home this week-end after a two weeks' visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McCord (Margaret Siljestrom) and their three young sons, of Dillard, Oregon. Miss Siljestrom took the trip west by plane and will return by plane, also.

The McCords reside on a ranch in Oregon.

DOLORES DEAN WEDS

Miss Dolores E. Dean became the bride of Carl J. Johnson at a private ceremony in Highland Park on Saturday, July 22, at 4 p.m. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret Dean of 242 High street, Highwood and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Anna Johnson of 641 Glenview avenue. The bride's frock of "cafe au lait" color was complemented by a brown velvet hat and brown accessories. Her corsage was of green orchids.

Miss Myrtle Parker, maid of honor, wore a periwinkle blue lace dress and her accessories were duobonnet. Small Pinocchio roses made up her corsage.

Charles Dean of St. Louis, Missouri, brother of the bride, served as best man.

The bride's mother chose a light blue dress for the occasion and the bridegroom's mother was in navy. Each wore a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Loesch of Waukegan, formerly of Highland Park, and the bridegroom are graduates of the Highland Park High school. She served as a corporal in the Marine corps for 32 months during the last war and Mr. Johnson, a fighter pilot with the 9th airforce, was a major at the time of his release. He took part in 110 missions over Europe.

A reception was held at 7 p.m. at the home of the bride's mother.

After a two weeks' honeymoon at the Dells, Wisconsin, Mr. Johnson and his bride will live temporarily with her mother.

VENEZUELA VISITORS

On Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Maiers (Stella Ostrand) and daughters, Kay, who will be four years old on August 15, and Sharon, 10 months old, left for their home in Venezuela, South America, after a three months' visit here. Mr. and Mrs. Maiers and children reside at the Anaco Field camp in Venezuela, where he is a chemist with the Socony Vacuum Oil company. Every two years they return home for a visit of two months. This year, however, Mrs. Maiers had an additional month with her parents as her husband was in both Dallas, Texas and New York on business.

During their visit to the States they divided their time with Mr. Maiers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Maiers of Minneapolis, Minnesota and her parents the Gust Ostrands of 217 Burchell avenue, Highwood. Although their trip here was by plane, they have returned by boat.

PROOF of its healing power

The way to health and harmony among men is earnestly and unselfishly sought by both Science and Religion.

Many divergent methods confront mankind. But the claims of all ultimately submit to one test — the test of proof.

The final chapter in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, consists of 100 pages of unsolicited testimonies from persons healed by reading this book alone.

All testimonies have been carefully authenticated. All manner of disease and discord has been cast out permanently and promptly. This is the proof that Christian Science provides of its healing power.

Science and Health may be read or obtained at all Christian Science Reading Rooms. The coupon is also for your use.
